Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more

Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

Wire Gauze Oven Door

IS THE LATEST IMPROVEMENT ON THE

It Produces Practical Results in Baking and Roasting never before attained in any Cooking Apparatus, and will

Revolutionize the Present Methods of Cooking

ITS THEORY

Is that all Food Bakerd or Cooked, should be cooked in fresh air freely admitted to the oven. This is done by discarding the close oven door heretofore used, and substituting for it a door containing a sheet of Wire Gauze nearly as large as the door itself.

Through this Gauze Door the air freely circulates, facilitating the process of cooking, and producing food that is unequalled in flavor and nutrition, and actually cooked with less consumption of fue than in an oven with a closed door.

It makes an enormous saving in the weight of meat.

It also produces larger Loaves of Bread, requires less attention from the cook, and promotes the health of the family by the SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE FOOD COOKED IN IT.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT.

MRS. MARY B. WELCH, Teacher Domestic Economy, Iowa State University, says: "My deliberate judgment is that the oven of the Range, as compared with others, is not only more equally heated in every part—front and rear—but as a result of its superior ventilation the food placed therein is better cooked, while retaining a sweeter flavor, and a larger proportion of its best juices. I find, also the consumption of fuel in this Range is much less than any other for same work.

THE PRESS.

What American and English Papers Have to Say on the Result.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Sun editorially says:

When a party loses sight of the principles on which it was founded and of which it has been for a century the custodian and trustee; when it sends some of its best men to the rear and surrenders the management of its affairs to a syndicate of cracked intellects and enthusiasts with just enough shrewdness to half disguise their ultimate purpose; when it abandoned the people in the same sense and makes itself an engine for the propagation of a theory; in short, when it goes in for an educational canvass, somebody is bound to be educated. This is what happened yesterday. The great mass of the democracy is sound to the core, as loyal as ever to the essentials and eternal truths of its creed, hopeful even in defeat and courageous and unshaken as this dismal November morning is the victim of an educational campaign. It is has been educated with a vengeance and at a tremendous cost. It has learned its lesson and is not likely to forget the same.

THE "WORLD"

further says editorially referring to the result:

The chief reason for this disaster is a want of adequate preparation for meeting the main issue. Eleven months were not time enough in which to enlighten a mass of unthinking voters, educated for a full generation in the belief that taxes promote prosperity and that tariff regulates wages. The World being questioned last June whether the President had not, in forcing the issue so near to the beginning of an active campaign done the right thing, we commended his courage but doubted his discretion. Had the issue been forced a year earlier it is not improbable that the errors and sophistries and bugaboos of the protectionists could have been prevailed against. It is plain that the country needs a reduction of taxes through a reform of the tariff.

ALBANY, Nov. 7.—The Evening Journal estimates a plurality of 12,000 for Harrison and 17000 or Hill in New York State, and a republican gain of nine assemblymen. The Congressional delegation is unchanged in political proportion.

IT IS CERTAIN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Telegram says:

So far the election of Harrison stands recorded as next to certain. New York has shutted to the republican column and made victory certain if the other states remain as they were in 1884.

The Evening Sun says:

The latest dispatches indicate that the election of Harrison is assured beyond question.

The World says:

Chairman Brice refuses to concede Harrison's election. He has not yet conceded New York State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Evening Post says:

The returns received this morning leave no reasonable doubt of the election of the republican presidential ticket. Very little has been received from the country districts of this state, but there is no reason at this writing to think that full returns will give a democratic plurality. Indiana is STILL IN DOUBT.

In an editorial on the result it says:

It is unnecessary to go beyond the city of Brooklyn to find proof that Cleveland was beaten in the State of New York, not because the majority of voters condemn his policy of tariff reform, but because the majority of voters would not sustain for the presidency a party which nominated a man like David B. Hill for the governorship.

The Commercial Advertiser's (democratic) headlines are:

The latest returns indicate the election of Harrison and Morton. Hill is re-elected governor by about 10,000 plurality. Indiana is probably renublican by a small majority. The republicans will have a good working majority in the NEXT CONGRESS.

The latest edition of the Sun makes Harrison's plurality in the state 10,001.

The extra World says at 2:30 p.m. the national democratic committee announced New York so doubtful that an official count will be necessary to decide the election. This will take three days.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7, noon.—Secretary McPherson, of the republican congressional campaign committee, is confident of the election of Harrison and 12 republican majority in the next House of Representatives.

The Augusta, Ga., Chronicle tomorrow will editorially say of the democratic defeat:

The President's message, while it was honest and brave, caused his defeat. We regard the defeat of President Cleveland as a national calamity. This defeat does not mean the dissolution of the democratic party. Four years from next Tuesday our party will march to victory under the leadership of David B. Hill or some other man who is its nominee for the Presidency.

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The Evening Journal says:

It may be that the republican victory saves Canada some IMMEDIATE TROUBLE.

The democrats were so committed to the retaliation principle, to say nothing of the embroilment of the democratic executive with Great Britain by the Sackville business, that very little friction might have necessitated Cleveland's enforcement of retaliation. We don't think the republicans are more friendly than the democrats, or even so much so, but they at least can enter into fresh negotiations with Great Britain or Canada without going back on any official record. After all, the so called "Irish vote" has not appeared to have had any effect on the election. The election was decided by New York and the state was decided by the increased republican vote in the country districts; that is, among the farmers and villagers, where the Irish vote in not decisive.

THE BRITISH PRESS.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times says:

Though we believe President Cleveland's internal policy and his administration are more remarkable for capacity and uprightness than anything to which the republican can point in recent years, we cannot but profess to regard the event as an appropriate penalty for his discreditable subservience to the meanness of American politics and his culpable neglect of the decencies of international intercourse. It is not improbable that President Cleveland's hasty change of front in the fishery affair and Secretary Bayard's treatment of Lord Sackville alienated or at least cooled the friends of purity, reform and national dignity whom the common peril of the demagogic rule of the republicans had driven to the opposite camp. In respect to his policy on the fisheries question, there is no reason why General Harrison, if he has courage to shake off the power of the machine, may not emulate and even surpass President Cleveland. We are that the change of government involves the retirement of Minister Phelps, who has performed his duties with marked ability and adroitness, and who has won esteem and friendship.

SINCERELY SORRY

The Standard says: Never was there a more absurd fiction than that British gold was lavished to secure the defeat of Mr. Blaine and his nominee or that Englishmen would be mortified at the overthrow of President Cleveland Of all persons in the world that we have the least reason to be grateful to is President Cleveland. Cleveland is one of those who would play false and yet would rightly win. His half-hearted, paltry demagogism and statesmanship simultaneously caused him to lose reputation abroad as well as to forfeit the confidence of the great democratic party of America, who could sweep the Irish from the ballot boxes if they pleased. At the same time we have over the triumph of the republicans. The possible effects of Harrison's success on the foreign relations of America cannot be tegarded as favorable. We have no reason ro regret or rejoice.

The News says: What has happened in America is parallel to what is happening in England; a section of influential republicans who revolted four years ago after much talk of forming a new party, have returned to their old party. Though Cleveland will depart from the White House with all the honors of a dignified and successful administration, it need scarcely be said that he opened up the new era in American politics that was proclaimed for him. His defeat is a sore disappointment te tariff reformers.

THE "POST" SAYS:

President Cleveland's term of office has not justified the fair hopes with which Englishmen regarded his election. His attitude toward England has been, and doubtless would again be, friendly. But for election purposes he proved himself equally ready with his most violent opponents to flout England. It is impossible for Englishmen not to feel a small gratification at the complete failure of those unworthy tactics. For the rest England may regard the change with indifference. It would be unfair to lay overmuch stress on Blaine's reckless expressions against England. The two countries have lived in harmony under previous republican governments and can again.

The Daily Telegraph says: It should flatter both ourselves and possibly our American kinsmen if we said there was any here in the election, or any emotion at Harrison's success. As far as they have any choice the English wished well to the democrats, but recent events tended to show they were six of one and half a dozen of the other.

The Daily Chronicle attributes the result in no small measure to Blaine's prudence, and says: It is pretty well understood that Harrison is a mariopsette, and that Blaine pulls the strings. The republican accession stifles any lingering hopes that the labors of the Fisheries Commission would be ratified.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

The following statement from Mrs. Emeline P. Mizner of Burg Hill, Ohio, will be of great interest to those who suffer from Bright's Disease or Gravel.—I have long resolved that I would so praise you of the deep sense of obligation which I feel. There is nothing which I now enjoy that I do not owe to the happy chance of having used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy at a time when I was suffering all that a human being could endure. My troubles began in my Kidneys over nine years ago and from which

I Never Expected to Recover.

I was compelled to use a cane when I walked, and I finally got so weak that I could not stand alone. In a few months my physician said I had Bright's disease, which was indeed alarming information. To add to my affliction after I had been ill about two years, I had a bad attack of Gravel. Six years ago, last June, how well I remember the day, I saw Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondout, N. Y. advertised in our paper. After using one bottle I threw away my cane and went to New York on a visit, and three bottle cured me, this was six years ago. I have never had a return of gravel, nor of the pains or weakness in the back, and though I am over sixty years of age

I am Now Vigorous and Strong

as I was in my prime. I do all my own work, and rarely know what it is to be tired. I keep the medicine in the house and give it to my grandchildren, and recommend it whenever I can. What physicians and all of the many remedies I had taken could not do, Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy did; it stayed the disease and made me a strong, vigorous woman.
