"TRIAL BY JURY" at the Twelfth Ward Assembly Room, to-morrow evening. The open venire jury, composed of all nationalities, will produce a great amount of merriment. All who wish a couple of hours' genuine enjoyment will not fall to be there. ERWEST S. PENROSE, who has just returned from a trip through the eastern counties and down the Weber, reports deep snow and roads badly blocked with drifts nearly everywhere he has been, especially from Echo to the mouth of the Weber Canon.

MRS. THOMAS E. FITZGERALD, While dancing at the Conductors' ball, given in Ogden, Friday evening last, fainted dead away. She was taken home, and in a few hours later she expired. In connection with her faint, she sustained a pressure at the base of the brain, which caused her death.

THE dramatic and musical entertalument given in the Fourth Ward school house on Saturday evening was pronounced by those who witnessed I the best ever given in that hall. It was attended by a not very large but a very appreciative audience. It will be repeated this evening, when it is to be hoped it will be better patronized, as it should be, both on account of the merits of the performance and the worthy object for which it is given.

Information Wanted .- The relatives of Mr. James B. Gibson of Utah, are very much exercised over a report that has appeared in some of the California papers stating it is feared Mr Gibson has been murdered. From what the family know he was last seen by his acquaintances at Phoenix, Arizona, on or about the 12th inst. Any information of his whereabouts will be gratefully received by Mr. Gibson's friends here. He is a man probably a little above the average height, slightly built, and light complexioned, with blue or light grey eyes. He wore no heard when in this city some months ago.
