The latest discovery. Of more value than any silver mine in Colorado, is GERMAN CATARRH CURE—a remedy prepared especially for the cure of Catarrh and severe colds in the head, that invariably lead to catarrh, which are so common in this climate. Remember that catarrh, if not checked promptly, goes to the lungs and ends in consumption. Each day's delay lessens the chance of cure. Price only 50 cents. For sale by the manufacturers, Brown Medicine and Manufacturing Company, Leavenworth, Kansas, and all wholesale and retail druggists in the west.

In the Whole History of Medicine
No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it, never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers. d1m

We Challenge the World.
When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a Common or Chronic Cough in one half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all other Dr. Shiloh's Cough Cure. It is pleasant to take; harmless to the youngest child; and we guarantee what we say. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your lungs are sore, Chest or Neck lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, Wholesale and Retail, Salt Lake City, Utah. d296 f

THE MOST COMPLETE STOCK OF BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS, ARCTICS AND OVERSHOES in the City, at away down prices, is at DUNFORD'S.

Solid Merits will Tell.
For all the bitter opposition of envious rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, at Moore, Allen & Co., Salt Lake City. d296 f

The discovery of the circulation of the blood was an important event in the history of medicine; but if the blood be full of impurities, its circulation, which Providence intended as a blessing, proves a bane. Hence we should cleanse the blood with Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. d1m

From the steady, firm and regular beat of the heart, replacing interrupted and feeble action of that organ, demonstrated in a variety of cases, FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites is known to exert a powerful tonic effect on the muscles of the heart. d1m

EVENING NEWS.
Monday, December 20, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Reason.—The lateness of our paper for the last few evenings, has been due to a disabled engine in our press room. We trust our patrons will excuse us under the circumstances.

District School.—The Seventeenth District School will open on Monday, Jan. 5th, 1880, at 9 a. m., in the 17th Ward School House, with Professor O. H. Biggs, as principal, and Miss Winnie Clayton, assistant. Liberal inducements offered to pupils.

Released.—The last number of the Millennial Star states that "Elder H. H. Evans is (at his own request) released from being traveling Elder in the Welsh Conference to return home." It also states that he left Liverpool for this Territory on the 6th of December, on board the steamship Waco.

New Year's Fast Day.—The coming Thursday, January 1st, is the regular monthly fast day of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Saints. Coming on a holiday, this time, opportunity is afforded to all to attend meeting and worship God as He has commanded. It could not come on a more auspicious day, nor could the Saints commence the new year in a more suitable manner.

Election Returns.—The election returns Saturday, as far as known, were very light. No opposition was made to the People's Ticket. Hon. C. W. Penrose was elected to fill the vacancy in the Territorial Legislature. The number of votes cast in this city was in the First Precinct, 194; Second, 180; Third, 164; Fourth, 98; Fifth, 109. Of these the greater number were cast by ladies. Other places not yet heard from.

Blighted Hopes.—The following is furnished by our "man about town," who will, if necessary, vouch for its veracity:

On Christmas Day a grand family gathering took place at the residence of one of our prominent citizens, and, as is customary on such occasions, a Christmas tree was placed in the center of the parlor the night previous, and decorated with all the dolls, dainties and ornaments that imagination could suggest or money procure. In this family are three boys, the eldest a great practical joker, the second of a careful, saving disposition, and the youngest of an extremely sensitive and peevish temperament. Some time during the night of the 24th, the bold, bad boy, first mentioned, went surreptitiously to the room of his careful brother and abstracted thence a handsome gold watch, which the owner, on account of its value and beauty, would not even wear, but kept constantly under lock and key in the top drawer of his chamber bureau. Going down stairs on tiptoe, the joker, carefully labelling the time piece "To my dear brother Chauncey," and hanging it conspicuously upon the Christmas tree, stole quietly back to his bed to await the coming morn.

The first grey streaks of dawn were appearing in the east, when the family were aroused, and all, with one accord, swarmed into the parlor to see what "Santaquin" had done for them. First in the van came "Chauncey," the poetical youth, whose eyes had caught sight of the "Elgin" afar off, and were already glistening with liquid gratitude toward his dear brother, whose long and careful secretion of the splendid gift was now, in his mind, fully accounted for. Hastily securing the patent lever, he kissed it fervently and turned around to embrace the knees of his fraternal benefactor. The face of the owner of the watch, during this brief period, was a delightful study for the psychologist. He had recognized his property on the instant, as well as the handwriting of the deed of transfer, and the whole weight of the horrid reality now rested, like a ton of ball, on his startled soul. Desiring to treat the matter as a pleasant surprise, and yet, as soon as possible, remove from the mind of his thankful brother the fatal illusion which possessed it, he was in a quandary for a few moments as to how he should act. Self interest, however, gained the mastery over his other emotions, and ripping out an oath that caused "Chauncey" to drop upon his knees and roll his eyes in horror, he snatched the watch from his trembling grasp and left the room in a storm of passion, while the disappointed victim of a brother's villainy, hearing nothing on all sides but bursts upon bursts of uproarious laughter, chief among which were those of the factious individual who had caused all his sorrow, departed thence, hid his head in a sand bank and wept bitterly, and for the space of five hours, "never repassed that hoary threshold more."

"Junction" Clippings.—A lady was robbed of two diamond rings a few days ago, while en route from Butte City, to the terminus of the Utah & Northern. She had secreted the articles for safe keeping in a mitten, and placed them in her satchel. Upon returning to her baggage, after a short absence, she discovered the theft. The finger jewelry was worth $350.

A few days since a man named Chris. Guthe committed suicide in Beaver Cañon, the present terminus of the Utah & Northern railroad. No cause is known to have existed that would induce him to take his own life. He was found dead in the street on a cold morning, with a bullet hole in his head, and a revolver by his side. He was the owner of a brewery in Montana, and was visiting in Beaver Cañon. In his pockets were found $390 in cash. An informal inquest was held by friends of the deceased, but no light as to the cause of the act could be discovered. Guthe was a man of middle age, and a native of Germany.

The weather along the route of the Utah & Northern Railroad was even colder than heretofore reported. At the terminus most of the thermometers froze up, and it was only by the aid of a spirit thermometer that the weather could be gauged at all. It was 42° below zero. A number of men were severely frost-bitten, live stock was frozen to death, and bread and other articles of food in pantries were caked so hard as to be unfit for use.

Important to Land Men.—Land Lawyers and Real Estate Agents: Your names will be inserted WITHOUT CHARGE, in the American Settler's Guide, a new work on public land law, soon to be issued for extensive circulation in the Atlantic States and in Europe.

Send for a circular giving details of importance to every land man. Address HENRY N. COPP, Washington, D. C.

We hope no man or attorney or real estate broker will be so careless of his own or his neighbor's interests as to neglect to send his name for insertion in this forthcoming book. Addresses should be forwarded at once, as the first part of the book is now in press.

Mr. Copp is the editor of Cope's Public Land Laws, Cope's Handbook of Mining Law, and other works on our public land system. He refers to the Surveyors-General, U. S. Registers and Receivers, and the leading land attorneys of the country.

More Thieving.—Saturday night, fifteen chickens were stolen from the premises of Dr. Sprague, 13th Ward, and about the same time a harness was mislaid from the stable of President D. H. Wells, in the same neighborhood. It is presumable that the same thief visited both places. About 11 o'clock that night, the night watchman tracked a man through the lot near Squire's barber shop, but lost trace of him beyond the wire fence in the center of the block.

Caught in the Snow.—A man, his wife and six children were caught in a snow-fall last week in Fremont's Pass and their team refusing to pull, they were stuck for three days without fire or water in a cave and never falling asleep. They were rescued by a party of men who had a fine stock farm. Best reasons given for the rescue—Address O. H. Biggs, Salt Lake City. d1m

Notice to Presidents.—The Presidents of the Stake Y. M. M. I. Associations are requested to send in their reports immediately so that a full and complete record may be handed in at the Quarterly Conference.

Silver Wedding.—The 25th anniversary of the wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mills, of Ogden, took place at the Union Depot Hotel in that city, on Friday evening. About 200 guests assembled to do honor to the occasion. A magnificent banquet was prepared and served of, and a very happy occasion enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Mills have our best wishes for their future life.

Died To-day.—is with feelings of sadness and sympathy, that we chronicle the death of Gracie Groo, a bright and intelligent little girl of 13 years, the daughter of Elder Isaac Groo and his wife Mary W. of the 9th Ward, which sad event occurred at 2 o'clock this afternoon. For the past two weeks, the little one has been suffering from diphtheria, but at the time of her death every symptom of that disease had left, and had it not been for other attending ailments, would in all probability have recovered. Her death was occasioned by congestion of the heart. May God comfort the hearts of those who mourn.

The New Railroad.—The project of a railroad, between this city and Coalville, it seems, has now assumed a definite shape. Friday night the articles of incorporation were signed, and Saturday, filed in the office of the Territorial Auditor. The name of the new line is to be the Utah Eastern Railroad. Its proposed route is from this city, up through either Emigration or Parley's cañon, to the summit of the Wasatch range, thence across Parley's Park to the head of East Cañon Creek, thence across the divide to the head of Silver Creek and to Park City, thence down Silver Creek to Wanship, thence down the Weber River to Coalville, a distance of about 50 miles. $700,000, divided into 7,000 shares, will constitute the capital stock of the corporation. Of these, 510 shares have been already taken and paid for. The actual cost for building, furnishing and equipping the road is estimated at $600,000. The number of directors is nine. The following are their names: Robert C. Chambers, George M. Scott, Henry Dinwoodie, Francis Armstrong, Edmund Wilkes, John A. Groesbeck, Joseph M. Cohen, Robert Harkness and Robert T. Burton, all of this city. The subscribers to the articles of association, with their place of residence and the number of shares taken by each, are as follows:

A FREE BOOK FOR THE SICK.—Containing nearly 100 pages, in pamphlet form; shows how chronic diseases can be positively cured by an original system of practice. It contains valuable and suggestive notes, by Dr. E. B. Foote, on nearly all the chronic ills to which the human family is subject, besides illustrative cases, and will be sent by mail to any address by any one sending their address and a three-cent stamp to pay cost of mailing. Address:

MURRAY HILL PUB. CO., 129 E 23rd Street, N. Y. City.

DIED.
At the residence of Prest. A. M. Cannon, 14th Ward, Dec. 28th, at 6 a. m. of consumption, LYDIA ENSIGN HARDY, daughter of Postmaster and Ann F. Valencia, born in San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25, 1865.

Funeral services will be held the Wednesday of Robert Cannon at 11 a. m. Wednesday, 31st inst.

Sister Hardy's mother was a passenger on the ship "Brooklyn," in the early settlement of San Francisco, she being a daughter of Sister Lydia Moe, sister to Brother Samuel Jensen, of this city, while her father, B. Valencia, was son of Candiano Valencia, of the Mission Dolores, of Castilian descent, who owned, by a Mexican grant, a large part of the present site of San Francisco. John Hardy, her husband, falling a victim to consumption, over four years since, left his young wife with two little girls to provide for, at Santa Rosa, Cal., which she did in a creditable manner by teaching school, having received a very excellent certificate from the board of education of that State. Her faith in the Lord was great; she embraced the gospel some months since, as believed in by her departed mother and now sleeps with the glorious hope of living with His saints eternally. [Cont.]

S. L. "Herald" San Francisco and Santa Rosa papers please copy.

In the 9th Ward, in this city, at 2 p. m., December 28th, 1879, of congestion of the heart, GRACIE W., daughter of Isaac and Mary J. W. Groo, (the mother's oldest child); born Feb. 10, 1866.

At Lake Town, Rich County, Utah, December 28th, 1879, of milk fever, ANN HODGES, greatly beloved wife of Joseph Irwin.

Deceased was born at the parish of St. George, Gloucestershire, near Bristol, England, September 18th, 1855; was baptized at Bristol by Elder Elijah N. Freeman, May 31st, 1874, and emigrated to Utah in July, 1875; was sealed in the bonds of matrimony to her husband for time and eternity October 5th, 1875, and now leaves her husband and two children and a multitude of friends who deeply mourn her departure.

Sister Annie, from the time she entered into covenant with the Lord, by her high and holy calling, and the great peace and resignation that characterized her in death were but the true reflex of her noble and virtuous life. She was a loving wife and mother, a faithful Sister of the Faith, and was conscious to the last moment, and departed full of faith and hope of a glorious resurrection. [Cont.]

At her mother's residence on the 28th of December, 1879, of pneumonia, HELENA RUTH RANDS, aged 15 years and 5 months, daughter of John and Mary Rands, was called to her eternal home. Friends are respectfully invited. M. G. Star please copy.
