

SOCIETY

The week opened with some pleasant home affairs on Monday, and continued throughout, with a number of brilliant events including the ever present June wedding. Next week promises to keep up the record, many interesting affairs being scheduled to take place.

One of the charming luncheons of the week was that given by Miss Kirkpatrick at the Country club on Monday in honor of Mrs. Theodore Anderson and Mrs. Sophie Anderson. The table was elegantly set with roses and ferns, and place cards of various designs were used for each guest. The guests of honor, who had lovely hand-painted designs. The other guests were: Mrs. Montague Perry, Mrs. Arthur B. Bird, Mrs. Robert Walker, Miss Kline, Miss Letta McMillan, Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Maxwell, Misses Allen and Marge Miller.

Miss Letta McMillan was guest of honor at a party luncheon on Monday given by the members of her sewing club at the Country club. The table was decorated in pink roses and pink ribbons, and the place cards were hand-painted roses, which added to the pretty effect. The other guests were: Mrs. Benjamin White, Mrs. Richard Royal, Mrs. Mary, Miss Abbie Wells, Miss Jennie Lynn, Miss Daisy Raymond and Miss Mary Sharp.

Judge and Mrs. Martenonau entertained at dinner on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Fred Placard of Kentucky, who is visiting in Salt Lake. The table was decorated in red roses and covers were laid for 16.

On Tuesday Miss John E. Woodward of Port Douglas entertained at a delightful luncheon and bridge party in honor of Mrs. H. R. Tower and Mrs. T. A. Baldwin, about 35 guests being present. The room was decorated with flowers, and the card games were played on the lawn, where tables were placed.

Mrs. George Blank was one of Wednesday's hostesses, her function being a card-party at which about 25 guests were present. The room was brightly decorated with flowers and the tables were in Japanese design.

Mrs. Ralph Guthrie entertained at cards on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. C. E. Elliot of Kansas, about 40 enjoying the pleasant affair. The game was 500 and the tables were done in red and white floral designs, following the decorative idea in the room. Prizes were won by Mrs. Graham Putnam and Mrs. Allen Sanford.

Mrs. Thomas Carter entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Bishop Tuttle of St. Louis, who was visiting at her home.

Mrs. John Reed was guest of honor at an informal evening party on Thursday given by Mrs. D. E. Moore.

Mrs. A. G. Andrews entertained a few friends next Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. E. Drake will entertain at cards next Wednesday morning in honor of Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. E. H. Hall was hostess of a delightful reception on Wednesday given in honor of Mrs. McLeach of Georgia and Mrs. Ada Schenck of Kentucky. The hall was in blue and pink, the table in pink roses and carnations, the library in saved peas and springing, and the dining room in red roses, carnations and pink shades being used to complete the effect. Among the hostesses were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. Cline, Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Isaacson and the Boring, Simpson and Shaver. About 50 guests were present.

One of the largest events of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. W. F. James, about 50 guests being entertained. The room was effectively decorated in sweet peas and prizes were won by Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Whitely.

The Woman's Republican club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Bonnemort on Thursday night, the affair being a most brilliant one. The room was bowered of roses and the table in pink roses and carnations, the entire affair being delightful.

Miss Anna Hall was guest of honor at a party afternoon affair on Thursday given by Miss Olive Jennings, the event being in the nature of a wedding bee for the coming bride. The room was decorated with flowers and a delightful time spent.

One of the few church marriages was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Verena Hyde and Arthur W. dates is Monday, June 27. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Napa.

Miss Ada Bonnamy of Provo and Mr. Joseph Nye of Provo, were among the week's brilliant couples.

Miss Pearl Butterworth and Edward Hamilton were among Wednesday's brilliant couples, their wedding being celebrated in a quiet but pretty reception. They will live at Ponatella.

One of the quiet and pretty home weddings was that of Miss Letta Raymond and W. W. Ray, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Sonday and Mrs. Raymond. The home was bright with flowers, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ailsa Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Ray have gone to Portland and San Francisco for their bridal trip, and will return here to make their home.

Miss Edwina Bane and Frederick W. Fitcher were quietly married at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, in the presence of their relatives and friends, leaving afterward for the coast.

The wedding of Miss Leone Erickson and Ernest Anstee was among the pretty home events of the week. The room was bowered with flowers, and a number of intimate friends assisted in entertaining. The bride was attended by Miss Rachel Bailey and Lavinia Erickson, and the groom by Fred Anstee. The bride's gown was of white silk with over tulle, and the bride's bouquet of white daisies and green willow. Mr. and Mrs. Anstee are at home at 55 Wall street.

One of Monday's weddings was that of Miss Mabel Don and James E. Madden, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, a pretty reception.

being held in their honor. They are at home at 724 south Seventh East street.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara, to Albert Petty. The marriage will take place Wednesday, June 28.

The home of Mrs. Clara Layton, of Kayville, was the scene of a pretty wedding reception on the evening of June 21, the contracting parties being Miss Sarah A. Jarnan, Mrs. Layton's daughter, and Wm. M. Stoker, son of Wm. H. Stoker, of Rockport, Humili county. About 35 guests were present to enjoy the event. The grounds were lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the dining and reception rooms tastefully and lavishly decorated with roses and sweet peas. Supper, ices and strawberries were served from 10 till 2. After a few days' visit among relatives and friends in and around Salt Lake, the newly married pair will go to Rockport where they will make their home.

Mrs. J. T. Hofman and Mrs. N. T. Knell entertained at a card party yesterday, about 35 guests being present. The afternoon was very pleasant, and the decorations and other details were pretty carried out in pink.

Miss Margaret Walker gave a pretty luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Miss Margaret Mathews, the table being daintily in pink decorations, and covers being laid for 16.

A party of young people under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. H. Bonnell spent the evening at the lake Thursday night. They were Miss Winnie Rhodes, Miss Bob Elmerick, Miss Moine Hadd, Miss Ella McIntyre, Miss Louise Sullivan, Miss Letta Raymond, Mrs. Mary Smiley, Frank Carhart, Walter Anderson, Wallace Bredemeyer, Deserene Jennings, Alex Thomas, Paul Nelson and James Sadler.

An elaborate affair of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Christensen on Thursday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Critchlow whose wedding recently took place. The room was literally embowered in blossoms and vines while palms were used with effect in making the alcoves for the orchestra and punch tables, the latter being on the porch. The lawn was brightly lit and thronged with guests, made a charming picture. Assisting the hosts and guests of honor in receiving were Mrs. Critchlow, mother of the groom, Miss Mary Critchlow and Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Hanson. Other friends assisting in receiving were Mrs. Franklin Pierce, Mrs. Henry P. Henderson, Mrs. Ledyard M. Dudley and Mrs. H. J. Dinwiddie. The young girls who served in the dining room and at the punch bowl were: Miss Kate Dwyer, Miss Edna Cohn, Miss Lena Welby, Miss Hollister Hancock, Miss Susa Sawyer, Miss Jean Odell, Miss Kate Green, Miss Julia Cullen, Miss Mary Bruntton, Miss Edith Patterson, Miss Louise Walden and Miss Kate Allen.

Mrs. Jamerson gave a pleasant affair on Thursday at the home, in honor of Mrs. Ormond Tower, Mrs. T. A. Baldwin and Miss Fannie Jamerson, the event being in the nature of a wedding bee, and taking place at the officers' club. The room and porch were decorated in wild flowers, and 11 tables were placed.

Mrs. Fisher Harris and Miss Agatha Berkhoff have issued cards for a reception to be given next Wednesday at the Harris home on G street, to meet Madam Anselma M. Fox of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell will leave next week for the northwest, taking a party of nearly 20 in a private car to Portland and down the coast through California. The party will include friends from Idaho Falls and Ogden, as well as some local people, and the trip will last some weeks.

Mrs. David Evans has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given at her home next Friday.

One of the largest events of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. W. F. James, about 50 guests being entertained. The room was effectively decorated in sweet peas and prizes were won by Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Whitely.

The Woman's Republican club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Bonnemort on Thursday night, the affair being a most brilliant one. The room was bowered of roses and the table in pink roses and carnations, the entire affair being delightful.

Miss Anna Hall was guest of honor at a party afternoon affair on Thursday given by Miss Olive Jennings, the event being in the nature of a wedding bee for the coming bride. The room was decorated with flowers and a delightful time spent.

One of the few church marriages was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Verena Hyde and Arthur W. dates is Monday, June 27. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Napa.

Miss Ada Bonnamy of Provo and Mr. Joseph Nye of Provo, were among the week's brilliant couples.

Miss Pearl Butterworth and Edward Hamilton were among Wednesday's brilliant couples, their wedding being celebrated in a quiet but pretty reception. They will live at Ponatella.

One of the quiet and pretty home weddings was that of Miss Letta Raymond and W. W. Ray, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Sonday and Mrs. Raymond. The home was bright with flowers, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ailsa Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Ray have gone to Portland and San Francisco for their bridal trip, and will return here to make their home.

Miss Edwina Bane and Frederick W. Fitcher were quietly married at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, in the presence of their relatives and friends, leaving afterward for the coast.

The wedding of Miss Leone Erickson and Ernest Anstee was among the pretty home events of the week. The room was bowered with flowers, and a number of intimate friends assisted in entertaining. The bride was attended by Miss Rachel Bailey and Lavinia Erickson, and the groom by Fred Anstee. The bride's gown was of white silk with over tulle, and the bride's bouquet of white daisies and green willow. Mr. and Mrs. Anstee are at home at 55 Wall street.

One of Monday's weddings was that of Miss Mabel Don and James E. Madden, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, a pretty reception.

being held in their honor. They are at home at 724 south Seventh East street.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara, to Albert Petty. The marriage will take place Wednesday, June 28.

The home of Mrs. Clara Layton, of Kayville, was the scene of a pretty wedding reception on the evening of June 21, the contracting parties being Miss Sarah A. Jarnan, Mrs. Layton's daughter, and Wm. M. Stoker, son of Wm. H. Stoker, of Rockport, Humili county. About 35 guests were present to enjoy the event. The grounds were lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the dining and reception rooms tastefully and lavishly decorated with roses and sweet peas. Supper, ices and strawberries were served from 10 till 2. After a few days' visit among relatives and friends in and around Salt Lake, the newly married pair will go to Rockport where they will make their home.

Mrs. John Reed was guest of honor at an informal evening party on Thursday given by Mrs. D. E. Moore.

Mrs. A. G. Andrews entertained a few friends next Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. E. Drake will entertain at cards next Wednesday morning in honor of Mrs. John Reed.

One of the largest events of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. W. F. James, about 50 guests being entertained. The room was effectively decorated in sweet peas and prizes were won by Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Whitely.

The Woman's Republican club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Bonnemort on Thursday night, the affair being a most brilliant one. The room was bowered of roses and the table in pink roses and carnations, the entire affair being delightful.

Miss Anna Hall was guest of honor at a party afternoon affair on Thursday given by Miss Olive Jennings, the event being in the nature of a wedding bee for the coming bride. The room was decorated with flowers and a delightful time spent.

One of the few church marriages was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

WEDDING BELLS

The week has culminated all of the month in the number of weddings, and while nearly all have been home affairs, they nearly all have been beautiful, charming in detail. Perhaps the most elaborate of the week's weddings was that of Miss June Hinz and John C. Day, the event being celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hinz, on Wednesday, and every detail being perfectly

COMING AND GOING

Walter C. Hurd of this city has graduated from the law school of the George Washington university, being

MRS. CLARENCE H. MACKAY

Mrs. Clarence Mackay, one of the most prominent society women of America, has announced that she will use every effort to free Joseph P. McKay, a former groom once in her service, who is on trial for murder. Mrs. Mackay paid a visit to Byrne's cell and had a long talk with him. The sympathy and generosity Mrs. Mackay has shown in the matter has caused much talk in society.

The room had each their separate color scheme, and were decorated with a profusion of flowers, ferns and palms, and the ceremony, costume, and all details were in accord with the brilliant affair. The bride party consisted of Mrs. Frederick Leonard as matron of honor, and the Misses Day, Berkeley, Florence, Grant and Della Richards as bridesmaids. Miss Margaret Hamilton as maid of honor, and the little ring bearer, while Mr. Edward Roberts acted as best man. A number of intimate friends of the bride party assisted in entertaining, and Miss Bertha and Miss Lamson furnished the bride music. Mr. and Mrs. Day will return after their wedding trip to reside here.

One of the few church marriages was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Verena Hyde and Arthur W. dates is Monday, June 27. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Napa.

Miss Ada Bonnamy of Provo and Mr. Joseph Nye of Provo, were among the week's brilliant couples.

Miss Pearl Butterworth and Edward Hamilton were among Wednesday's brilliant couples, their wedding being celebrated in a quiet but pretty reception. They will live at Ponatella.

One of the quiet and pretty home weddings was that of Miss Letta Raymond and W. W. Ray, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Sonday and Mrs. Raymond. The home was bright with flowers, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ailsa Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Ray have gone to Portland and San Francisco for their bridal trip, and will return here to make their home.

Miss Edwina Bane and Frederick W. Fitcher were quietly married at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, in the presence of their relatives and friends, leaving afterward for the coast.

The wedding of Miss Leone Erickson and Ernest Anstee was among the pretty home events of the week. The room was bowered with flowers, and a number of intimate friends assisted in entertaining. The bride was attended by Miss Rachel Bailey and Lavinia Erickson, and the groom by Fred Anstee. The bride's gown was of white silk with over tulle, and the bride's bouquet of white daisies and green willow. Mr. and Mrs. Anstee are at home at 55 Wall street.

One of Monday's weddings was that of Miss Mabel Don and James E. Madden, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, a pretty reception.

being held in their honor. They are at home at 724 south Seventh East street.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara, to Albert Petty. The marriage will take place Wednesday, June 28.

The home of Mrs. Clara Layton, of Kayville, was the scene of a pretty wedding reception on the evening of June 21, the contracting parties being Miss Sarah A. Jarnan, Mrs. Layton's daughter, and Wm. M. Stoker, son of Wm. H. Stoker, of Rockport, Humili county. About 35 guests were present to enjoy the event. The grounds were lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the dining and reception rooms tastefully and lavishly decorated with roses and sweet peas. Supper, ices and strawberries were served from 10 till 2. After a few days' visit among relatives and friends in and around Salt Lake, the newly married pair will go to Rockport where they will make their home.

Mrs. John Reed was guest of honor at an informal evening party on Thursday given by Mrs. D. E. Moore.

Mrs. A. G. Andrews entertained a few friends next Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. E. Drake will entertain at cards next Wednesday morning in honor of Mrs. John Reed.

One of the largest events of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. W. F. James, about 50 guests being entertained. The room was effectively decorated in sweet peas and prizes were won by Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Whitely.

The Woman's Republican club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Bonnemort on Thursday night, the affair being a most brilliant one. The room was bowered of roses and the table in pink roses and carnations, the entire affair being delightful.

Miss Anna Hall was guest of honor at a party afternoon affair on Thursday given by Miss Olive Jennings, the event being in the nature of a wedding bee for the coming bride. The room was decorated with flowers and a delightful time spent.

One of the few church marriages was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Edith Kent and H. A. McMillan, the ceremony taking place at St. Mark's with Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle officiating, assisted by Dean Edgars. The church was beautifully decorated, as was also the bride's home where supper was afterward served. Mrs. Jack Aitken was matron of honor, Misses Ruth, Letha and Helen Chapman, flower girls, Mr. Will McCrean best man, and Fletcher Chapman ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have gone for a trip to the coast and will return here in a few days.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Verena Hyde and Arthur W. dates is Monday, June 27. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Napa.

Miss Ada Bonnamy of Provo and Mr. Joseph Nye of Provo, were among the week's brilliant couples.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Wising and Le Roy Wising left Wednesday morning for an extended trip to the coast, taking in the Portland fair, San Francisco and southern California.

Mrs. Morris Broun of Denver is the guest of Mrs. Mae Schiller, 229 Sixth East street.

Mrs. Vincent Kerna of St. Louis left this week for her home after spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kearns.

Mrs. Kent Smith of Eureka and her sister, Mrs. George W. Luft, left this week with their children for Portland and the northwest, to spend a part of the summer.

Miss Fern Hamilton and Miss Mae Walsh of Denver are visiting at the home of their cousin, Miss Georgia Hamilton, on Princeton avenue.

Mrs. John Reed of Denver, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. W. Andrews for the past two weeks, will be a guest at the home of Mrs. A. E. Andrews at 181 Q street for a week.

Mrs. D. A. Hurst of Kansas City is in town, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William H. Daly.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson will leave with her children for the coast about July 1.

Miss Edith Shearman will return tomorrow from New York, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Gue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Galligher are now in their new home at 521 east First south street.

Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman and little daughter left last evening for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the summer.

Col. N. W. Clayton, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Minnie Gough of Detroit and Lawrence Clayton have returned after an absence of some time in the east.

Miss Eloise Sadler has returned from Trafalgar institute, where she has been in school for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wallace will leave shortly for a trip to the northwest, going to Alaska to spend a part of the time of their absence.

Mrs. Frank Morrow is back from San Francisco with her little daughter, Frances, and will remain till the early part of August.

Miss South of Logan is visiting in Ogden, the guest of her sister Mrs. Stanley R. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bigelow left Ogden this week for Portland and the northwest on an extended pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. R. Scott and children returned home this week from an extended visit in Los Angeles. They will leave Ogden in a short time for Oakland where they will make their future home.

Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple Miss Olive P. Moyes was married to Mr. John P. Corry. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moyes and one of Ogden's most beautiful young ladies and a leader in society. Mr. Corry is assistant manager of the R. M. B. Telephone company's office in Ogden, and is highly respected by his employers. He is a progressive young business man. Their many friends join in extending wishes for a long and happy life.

The Child Culture club was entertained this week by Mrs. Vogel, 246 Twenty-third street. An interesting program was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. West of Baker City, Oregon, are spending a short time in Ogden visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. P. Ferrin of Le Grande, Oregon, with her children arrived this week in Ogden to visit for a month with relatives and friends.

Miss Olive Moyes was the guest of honor at a china shower given Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Letta Perry on Washington avenue, which was enjoyed by a large number of her lady friends. She received some very beautiful and useful presents. Dainty refreshments were served.

W. B. Hughes and wife have gone to Los Angeles on a two week's pleasure trip. They will also visit other California points of interest.

Mrs. Fred M. Nye was hostess at a pretty high five party given Wednesday afternoon at her home on Jefferson avenue. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Robert Proudfit. There were present about 30 of her lady friends who enjoyed the afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served after cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Smurthwaite returned home this week from a very

Mrs. Andrew Howat and Dr. and Mrs. Hampton will arrive in the city early next week. Dr. Hampton has been studying medicine in Vienna for the past nine months.

Bishop Daniel R. Tuttle left for Chicago Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chamberlain, Harry and Frank Chamberlain, left Thursday for a week's visit at the fair. The party will also visit friends at Hood River, Or.

Mrs. Victor Clement left for Washington Thursday, where she will be joined by a party of friends and will sail early in July for a three months' tour of Europe.

Miss Ina Rudy and her mother left Thursday for Portland and the northwest to spend the summer.

Roy and William Bain are back from a stay of some time in Los Angeles.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Wising and Le Roy Wising left Wednesday morning for an extended trip to the coast, taking in the Portland fair, San Francisco and southern California.

Mrs. Morris Broun of Denver is the guest of Mrs. Mae Schiller, 229 Sixth East street.

Mrs. Vincent Kerna of St. Louis left this week for her home after spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kearns.

Mrs. Kent Smith of Eureka and her sister, Mrs. George W. Luft, left this week with their children for Portland and the northwest, to spend a part of the summer.

Miss Fern Hamilton and Miss Mae Walsh of Denver are visiting at the home of their cousin, Miss Georgia Hamilton, on Princeton avenue.

Mrs. John Reed of Denver, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. W. Andrews for the past two weeks, will be a guest at the home of Mrs. A. E. Andrews at 181 Q street for a week.

Mrs. D. A. Hurst of Kansas City is in town, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William H. Daly.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson will leave with her children for the coast about July 1.

Miss Edith Shearman will return tomorrow from New York, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Gue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Galligher are now in their new home at 521 east First south street.

Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman and little daughter left last evening for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the summer.

Col. N. W. Clayton, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Minnie Gough of Detroit and Lawrence Clayton have returned after an absence of some time in the east.

Miss Eloise Sadler has returned from Trafalgar institute, where she has been in school for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wallace will leave shortly for a trip to the northwest, going to Alaska to spend a part of the time of their absence.

Mrs. Frank Morrow is back from San Francisco with her little daughter, Frances, and will remain till the early part of August.

Miss South of Logan is visiting in Ogden, the guest of her sister Mrs. Stanley R. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bigelow left Ogden this week for Portland and the northwest on an extended pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. R. Scott and children returned home this week from an extended visit in Los Angeles. They will leave Ogden in a short time for Oakland