DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY DECEMBER 12 1908

On Wednesday of this week in Washington, Miss Edith Sutherland, daugh-ter of Senator and Mrs. George Sutherland, was formally presented in Washington at an elaborate reception held in the ball room of the Highlands. representatives from many distin-guished circles figuring in the diplo-matic life at the capital were present.

22

and the entire affair was a social suc

Miss Pearl Van Cott entertained at a funcheon on Wednesday, the table hav-ing for a centerpiece a vase of Amer-ican Beauty roses, and single ones at each place, while the lights were shad-ed in the same color.

Miss Helen Evans was hostess at an informal bridge tea on Wednesday for Miss Julia Cullen, the decorations be-Miss Julia Curlen, the decorations in be-ing in yellow chrysanthemums and the hostess assisted by Mr. Herbert Me-Millan, Miss Rose Evans and Miss Marguerite Richmond.

Mrs. A. A. Parsons entertained her sewing club this week.

Mrs. Reed Smoot will entertain at an afternoon tea next Tuesday, Dec. 15, at her home in Provo, her mother, Mrs. C. A. Eldredge, and others will go from Salt Lake to be present.

Mrs. Glen R. Bothwell will give bridge tea a week from today at her . . .

Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood entertains tonight at a dinner for Mr. and Mrs J. F. Evans of San Francisco.

Miss Julia Cullen was guest of honor at an informal bridge party on Wed-nesday, given by the Misses Rae and Olive Bartch, the prizes going to the guest of honor, and to Mrs. Matthew Cullen and Miss Helen Evans.

Mrs. J. J. Daly entertained on Wed-nesday for her daughter, Mrs. Edward Roberts.

Col. and Mrs. A. B. Kessler gave a large box party at the Orpheum on Tuesday their guests being Gov. and Mrs. Cutler, the staff and their wives. and Governor-elect and Mrs. Spry.

Col. and Mrs, W. S. Scott and the other officers of Fort Douglas and their wives were guests of honor at the Colonial theater on Monday night.

Miss Edna Farusworth entertained last night at a uncheon in honor of Miss Julia Cullen.

The Plate club met yesterday with Mrs. Fred Slade.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner N. Smith entertained informally at dinner yesterday.

Miss Selma Wall was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday at the Wilson hotel, her party including Mrs. J. J. Daly, Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton, Mrs A. Fred Wey, Mrs. Edward J. Roberts, Mrs. Vaughn Paul, Miss Colburne, Miss Spalding, Miss Mount, Miss Anna Wey, Miss Isabella Osborne, Miss Anny Os-borne, Miss Eudora Daly, and Miss Hannah LeCompte of Park City. Hannah LeCompte of Park City.

Mrs. C. R. Pearsall entertained a few friends informally at cards ou Tuesday. Prizes were won by Mrs H. L. Charles, Mrs. M. L. Ritchie and The hostess was as-Mrs. Swindler. sisted at tea by Mrs. Alexander C. Ewing, Mrs. Robert Gemmell and Mrs. William Igleheart. Ohlo, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Derrah, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Read. . . .

Miss Katherine Judge entertained at a bridge tea on Thursday, five tables being played and the decorations being in red roses and red shaded candles. Miss Judge was assisted by Mrs. L. B.

days with Mrs. Greenwood's relatives in Portland, Or. . . . F. J. Fablan will leave soon for the east to spend the holidays.

Miss Hollister Hancock has return-ed from a ten days' stay at Redlands, Cal., with her aunt, Mrs. M. M. F. Allen, Miss Kate Allen, who is attend-ing school at Ferry Hall, Ill., will go to Redlands for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Tiernan and Mr. Tierman's mother, will sail from San Francisco Dec. 19, for Honolulu, where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Egbert Roberts, a former Salt Laker, who now makes her home at Long Beach, Cal., is visiting her son, Albert Taylor, at Honolulu, where he now makes his home.

Mr. Millington and his daughters, the Misses Millington, of New York,

No other soap is "just as good" as Ivory Soap. No other is so pure.

No other can be used in so many different ways.

The manufacturers have been trying since 1837 to produce a perfect soap.

Ivory Soap is as nearly perfect as any soap can be.

Equally available for bath, toilet and fine laundry purposes.

During the three evening engage-ments of "Ben Hur" at the Grand Opera House this week numerous theater parties were given by members of Ogden's social circle.

Mrs. W. B. Kirkwood, wife of the Ivory Soap 99 44 100 Per Cent. Pure.

Miss Stubblefield, will remain at Long Beach over the holidays, when Mr. Tracey and son Russell will join them

The dance given Friday evening by the Seventh ward Sunday school was largely attended, a pleasant evening was spent by the young people of the newly created ward. . . . Mrs. E. Bonnemort will reurn next week from her trip to Washington and other Eastern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn P. Palmer will soon be at home at the Smith apartments. * * *

Tuesday evening the local lodge of the Modern Woodmen of America after initiating a class of 100 gave a banquet in the Eagle hall, which was attended by prominent, members of the order from various to the state. Mr. A. H. Snow will arrive the Mr. and Mrs. W 3. Turner and chillatter part of the week from Mexico,

A DIRECTOIRE RIDING HABIT.

ompany is in Ogden for a few days | Rogers by a number of her girl friends, ing.

Rogers.

Schwab.

ng erected.

their way to the home of Miss Rogers and finished an evening of merry mak-

The Utah Sorosis met Wednesday af-ternoon at the home of Mrs. J N. Hold-

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Taylor en-tertained at their home Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Greenwood, who were married Dec. 2 in the temple at Manti. About one er relatives of the bride and the im-mediate friends, were present to wish godspeed. Many beautiful and useful presents were received and an elabor-ate wedding supper was served. Mrs.

Greenwood was formerly Miss Ethel

. . . Mr. Eugene Roberts has returned home from Europe, where he has spent the last two years and a half laboring

Mrs. George Havercamp entertained at a bridge tea at her home Wednes-day afternoon. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. D. Roberts and Mrs. Sam

. . . Mrs. J. H. Suttle of Los Angeles has joined her husband in this city. Mr. Suttle is located in our city, having charge of the federal building now be-

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Bagley enter-tained at a card social at their home Monday evening. Whist was the game enjoyed by all, and prizes were won by

Miss Davis and Mr. Walter Adams. An

The Tri club were entertained Wed-

The Tri club were entertained Wed-nesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Van Wagenen. Music, games and cards all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. W. B. Ward and Mr. Jacob Evans won the first prize; the consolation prizes were awarded Mrs. J. T. Taylor and Mr. W. M. Roylance. Lunch was served.

. . .

elaborate lunch was served.

as a missionary.

. . . .

Rogers by a number of ner girl friends. The guests gathered at the home of the guest of honor, where they show-ered Miss Rogers with dainty linen and delleate china; here a light lunch was visiting relatives. Murray King, a former Ogden newspaper man, but now engaged in mining in Nevada, was an Ogden visitor durdelicate china; here a light lunch was served. From there the merry crowd went over to Miss Nellie Schofield'a residence and enjoyed that lady's hos-pitality. Miss Etna Holdaway was the next hostess, and after a pleasant time passed there, the jolly party made that way to the how es for the set of the set ing the week.

vice president of the Chicago North-western railroad, in private car "402" passed through Ogden Tuesday en route to California for the winter. While in Miss Marie Rafferty, Miss Susie Thomas and Mrs. J. H. Mills of Evanston spent Tuesday in Ogden to California for the winter. While in this city Mrs. Kirkwood greeted a num-ber of Ogden friends. visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams of Morgan were Ogden visitors Tuesday evening and attended the performance of "Ben Hur.

Leonard Fornoff and family have re-turned from an extended visit to Oak-land and other California towns.

away; two excellent papers were given as follows: "England under Henry the VI," by Mrs. D. D. Houtz, and "England from 1554 Down to Henry VIII," by Mrs. J. L. Barker. John Livingston of Oakland, Cal., mail clerk on the Overland run was married on Wednesday evening to Miss Martha Childs of this city at the home of the bride's parents on Twentye-sixth Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loose announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Erma, to Prof. Preston G. Peterson, the marriage to take place in the early part of January. Miss Loose is one of Provo's most charming young ladies, street. The couple left on Friday after-noon's train for Oakland where they will make their future home. and Mr. Peterson, formerly of Logan, but now one of the able professors of the B. Y. university.

Dr. J. W. Pidcock and Miss Dora Moyes were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moyes on Twenty-first street, Wednesday evening. A re-ception was tendered the young couple at which were present a large number of relatives and immediate friends. Dr. and Mrs. Pidcock will make their fu-ture home in this city.

PROVO.

Miss Erma Loose was the guest of honor at a shower given Thursday evening by Mrs. Fred Rennion and Miss Nettie Parkinson at their home on the corner of First South and Fourth West. About thirty of the friends of the bride-to-be were present. The evening passed merrily in games and vering any semiconter Mony preiand various amusements. Many pret-ty gifts were received. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hyde of Nephi spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Provo.

The second year students of the B Y. university gave a very enjoyable dancing party at the First ward social hall Friday evening.

Miss Francilla Adams is visiting relatives in Parowan this week.

Miss Aurora Walton and Mr. Alms Brereton were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walton, Fri-day evening, attended by a large num-ber of relatives and friends. An claborate wedding supper was served, and many beautiful presents were received by the popular young couple.

Mrs. Jennie Wilkins entertained the mombers of the Priscilla club at a candy-rull at br home Thursday evening. Mrs. Gertrude Page, and Miss Vio Sorenson were invited guests

Mr. and Mrs. William Hatfield an-nounce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bessie to Robert R. Stevenson of Salt Lake on Oct. 12. They will be at home to their friends at 609 Mrs. James Brown entertained at a social at her home Wednesday even-ing in honor of her sisters, Miss Vera and Maud Davis. Whist was the featsouth Main, Salt Lake City. . . . ure of the evening.

served.

Miss Francella Adams was the guest of honor at a social Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George Craig Games and music were the features of the evening. - A dainty lunchcon was served. Postmaster Clove was a Salt Lako visitor Thursday.

who has many evening engagements. It should be made of a fabric not too light in color; for it should not be too dainty or too conspicuous for street car wear. A feature of new evening capes is the arrangement for draping. Three big buttonholes on the lower right front, when "the cape is thrown toga-wise across the shoulder, fasten to three big buttons at the back.

Mrs. H. P. Kirtley was hostess at a bridge party on Thursday, in honor of Miss Julia Cullen, the decorations be-ing in yellow chrysanthemums and five

Mrs. H. G. McMillan entertained at a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. J. F. Evans of San Francisco. The decorations being in pink roses and covers being laid for the following

Miss Margaret McClure, who is in a New York school, will spend the holi-days with relatives in Vermont.

The first vertices and five tables played. Prizes were awarded to Miss Cullen. Miss Farnsworth and Mrs. Robert Roy Hampton. At the tea following Mrs. Matthew Cullen, Miss Beth Critchlow, Miss Olive Bartch and Mrs. G. C. Barron have returned from their wedding trip.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swindler will eave the first of next week for Los

. . . Mrs. Louis B. McCornick has re-

Mrs. C. R. Aley will leave next week for San Francisco, to spend the holidays with her mother. Mr. Aley will join her later.

McCornick, Mr. E. S. Ferry., Mrs. W. G. Filer and Mrs. Woodward. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mil-ler for a few days.

THE KAISER CAPE.

An all-enveloping cape is a useful adjunct to the wardrobe of the woman

Mrs. George L. Savage was hostess at two delightful bridge parties this week, the first being given on Mon-day, and the other on the day following, and both being in honor of Mrs. A. H. Snow. The rooms were bright with carnations and ferns, the dining room being in the Christmas colors. Six tables were played and a number of guests came in later for tea. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. P. Bridge, Mrs. L. P. Pearce; Mrs. C. R. Savage, Miss Bernadine Kimball, Miss Geneva Savage. Geneva Savafie, Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mrs.

Fred Hornung.

On Wednesday Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin Butcher entertained at a dinner in bonor of Miss Towle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser entertained at an Orpheum party on Monday night follower by a supper at their home, in honor of their brother Lyster Cham-bers, who appeared in a clever sketch.

Another bridge tournament has been Another bridge tournament has been organized, with the following as mem-bers: Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. L. B. McCornick, Mrs. C. W. Fifield, Mrs. J. P. McGeath, Mrs. G. C. Moore. Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson, Mrs. Ar-thur Bird, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. Union Worthington, Miss Edith Shear-man, Miss Hanauer, Miss Katherine Judge, Miss Katherine Williams and the Misses Bancroft. The first meet-ing took place Tuesday afternoon with Miss Kate Williams. Miss Kate Williams.

Tonight Gov. and Mrs. J. C. Cutler Tonight Gov. and Mrs. J. C. Cutter will entertain the archaeological so-clety at their home, and an interesting program is promised. Dr. Ira D. Tra-vis of the Salt Lake High school will give a paper on "Early Explorations in the Southwest," and Professor Edwin Evans of the University will discuss the subject of a "Utah Museum of Art and Archaeology," and Archaeology." and Archaeology." A program of mu-sical selections will be given by Miss Edna Evans accompaniel by Miss Tully. Tully.

The Regimental Bridge club held its usual meeting this week at the Post hall. The host and hostesses of the evening being Lieut, and Mrs. Edwin Butcher, Lieut, and Mrs. C. R. Elliott, Capt, Conrad and Lieut, Ellis, There were a few guests from the city.

Mrs. Levis Evans entertained het bridge club this week.

Mrs. Glen Miller entertained the Pan Hellenic on Thursday.

Capt. and Mrs. Cavenaugh will entertain at a supper tonight at the post.

ing music in New York, will spend the holidays in the cast. On Friday night, Dec. 18, the annual Red and Black dance will be given by the senior class of the High school in the Eator Gym. This is the big dance of the year with the High school stu-dents and it is expected that all the Alumni will be in attendance. Differ-ent committees have the matter in charge and they are working hard to make the affair an exceptional suc-cess. school at St. Mary's Knoxville, III, will be home to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents. CEES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Greenwood en-tertained at a dinner Thursday for Mrs. J. F. Evans of San Francisco, the holi-day idea being suggested in the dec-orations in Christianas bells, and place cards done in holly. Besides the guest of honor, present were Mrs. Jones of

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, son and daughter will spend the holicovers being laid for the following besides the guest of honor: Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mrs. J. M. Bowman, Mrs. W. H. Dickson, Mrs. Thomas Weir, Mrs. J. H. Dinlnny, Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mrs. Hoyt, Miss Hartley, and Mrs. U. T. Clotfelter of Los Angelos Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Henrotin left this week for their home in Chicago after a short visit with friends and relatives in Salt Lake. Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston leave for New York to spend Christmas with their daughters, who are in school . . . Dr. and Mrs. J. T. White entertained there. at an informal musicale on Monday night in honor of their guest, Miss Julia Herne, the program including vo-Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook have as their guests Mrs. Cook's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Eby of Iowa, who will spend a few days cal numbers by Mrs. Charles Read, Mrs. Jack Keith and Mr. Brines.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Filer gave a box here on their way to California. party at the Orpheum on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Baer have relowed by a supper at their home, about 20 being entertained. urned from a two wekks' stay in Denver.

. . .

. . .

Miss Leslie Woodruff, who is study-

Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn P. Palmer are at home to their friends in the Smith

Miss Joanna Sprague will spend this month with Doctor and Mrs. F.

. . .

Miss Marian Oberndorfer, who is in apartments.

today.

Bascom.

turned from a stay of a month or more in the east. Mrs. O. J. Sailsbury, will remain in New York some time Mrs. E. B. Wells left Wednesday for Spokane, to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Woods. longer.

Miss Mary Young, who has spent Miss Katherine Baker will return to her home in Everett, Washington, this week, afer a delightful visit in the some time with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, left Monday for Wyoming, where she will visit her brother, and ity, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferry. later go to California.

Mrs. Harry Knight and three children will leave in the new year for southern California, where they Mrs. Sarah B. Summersays left Tuesday for Independence Missouri, where she will spend the holidays with her son Richard. will spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Nivin will arrive in Salt Lake next week after Mrs. Karl Scheld will go to New York after the holidays to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. F. K. Woodruff, spending six months abroad. Waldemar Van Cott Jr., who is at-

Angeles.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin and her daugh-ters, Miss Kervin and Miss Hope Ker-vin, left this week for San Francisco, accompanied by J. E. Cosgriff. tending Cornell, will spend his Christ-mas vacation with his parents, Mr, and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott on East First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks left Sunday for Oakland, Cal., where they Mrs. Russel L. Tracy and her niece, will make their home.

on the positive guarantee that if it does not give satisfaction we will return the entire amount of money paid us for it. We ask all those who are run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption to try Vinol with this understanding.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Druehl will shortly be at home in their new home at 89 M street. SMITH DRUG CO., Also DRUEHL & FRANKEN, DRUGGISTS, Salt Lake City, Utab.

has touched even the long-tailed coat, with short double breasted front, high collar and huge pockets, makes the pretty maid who wears it look as though she had stepped from an old picture. The winter riding girl will choose a very warm fabric for her habit and her gloves, particularly, will be as heavy as she can wear and manage her horse correctly.

William Shaw of the Lewiston Sugar to spend the holidays in Salt Lake. they will spend a number of the win-ter months. Mr. A. P. Callagham returned Thursday, from several weeks spent in the east.

Miss Charlotte Holmes has returned today from Los Angeles with her father. G. S. Holmes, and will be at home at the Knustford.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Douglas nounce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Emma, to Newel White, the marriage to take place during the holidays. The bride-elect is a sister of Mrs. J. J. McClellan and Mrs. R. S. Wimmer of this city, and the groom a well known and popular young man of Payson. On Wednesday night Miss Eva J. Jensen and George W. Whipple were married in the Temple, and in the evening a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Jensen, the rooms being de-corated in the holiday colors with festoons of crepe paper and bells with carnations and marguerites. The bride wore a gown of white satin with trimmings of valenciennes lace and carried bride's roses. She had no at-tendants. A feature of the evening was a program of music addresses and recitations, and about 100 guests enjoy-ed the affair.

Mrs. E. A. Wickens announces the engagement of her daughter Alice to D. Richard Lamph. The wedding will D. Richard Lamph. take place Dec. 16.

On Tuesday night Miss Ida M. Har-Scher and Arthur Turner were mar-ried, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. W. Lankow, appropriate bridal music being played by Mrs. M. Her-wick, and a number of friehds assist-ing. Following the marriage a supper way served at the home of the bride was served at the home of the bride.

OGDEN.

Ogden, Dec. 12.-The reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Douglas, Wednesday evening in hon-or of their daughter, Genieve, who was married on Wednesdaf in the Salt Laka Temple to John Lorin Taylor, was one

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knudsen en-tertained at a wedding recention at their home Thursday evening, in honor of the marriage of their son. Heber, to Miss Maud Wright, which was sol-emnized Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. dren have done to Los Angeles where

About one hundred relative and friends made merry the event with the usual wedding festivities. A sumptuous supper was served and the pres-ents were numerous and beautiful.

. . . Mrs. L. Morrison entertained Tues-

Nature intended man to be happy and to be able to give A Smile All the While Look at healthy children-look at the healthy man or woman-and you see the pleasures that come from perfect health-the protection that wards off the excesses of life to-day Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, the perfect food drink-braces up the system -strengthens the body and enthuses the brain into perfect activitybesides it pleases the palate, too. 30 cups of a delicious drink 25c

Jesse Knight is spending the week in Idaho.

day evening the relatives and a few friends at her home in honor of the A very unique affair was given Sat-urday evening in honor of Miss Ethel marriage of her daughter, Miss Ethel