GENERAL.

A Santa Fe telegram reports that the U. S. depository has been robbed of three hundred thousand; on Saturday, J. L. Collins, the depository, was found dead in a room, shot through the heart. There is no clue to the robbers.

James Washington, colored, has sued the Quincy Packet Company for $2,000 damages for refusing to allow him a seat at the regular table, and afterward ejecting him from the boat.

A morning paper says a ship which cleared for San Francisco, sailed yesterday for Cuba with 800 men, mostly recruited in the West and commanded by Colonel Hendrey, formerly Captain of an Ohio regiment; the men were fully equipped and most of them have seen service.

New York.—At the monthly meeting of the Xavier Alumni Society yesterday, Archbishop McClosky delivered an interesting address, in which he warned young men against secret societies, and especially against Free Masonry. He said he was astonished at hearing learned gentlemen of another faith express the belief that the Catholic Church could not be serious in her prohibition of Free Masonry, as Archbishop Hughes and several eminent priests, and even Pope Pius IX were Free Masons.

The report of the deputy commissioner of revenue shows that during October, November and December, 1868, fifty-seven per cent. of our domestic exports, and ninety per cent. of our re-exports, were transported in foreign vessels.

Cleveland.—The tug Asa Cowell, yesterday afternoon, exploded her boiler, blowing the tug to atoms. Captain George Greenhalgh, jr., was instantly killed; others are supposed to be lost, as there were several men and boys on board, only five of whom were rescued from the water, one being severely injured.

The Pearl Oil Works were burned on Sunday morning; loss $10,000. No insurance.

The new Peruvian Minister has arrived; he will be presented to the President this week.

It is stated on unquestionable authority, that Spain has about 30 light draft gunboats building in this country for guarding the coast of Cuba.

The graduating class at the Naval Academy will start from Boston in the frigate Sabine on their yearly cruise early next month; they expect to spend next winter in the Mediterranean, and thence visit Asia and South America.

Gen. Jeff. Davis will soon be relieved of the command of Alaska. One of the California papers, some weeks ago, printed articles, which have been widely copied in the East, in which it was charged, and shown by specifications, that a good deal of lawlessness exists among the soldiers there, and that outrages of an indecent character had been perpetrated upon a number of women; that some of the officers were greatly addicted to drunkenness, and others were openly living with abandoned women as mistresses. Official reports also show that the Indians and natives have been abused and maltreated in many ways, and that, in a word, there is a deplorable lack of discipline among a portion of the troops. The President has made an inquiry into the matter, and finds that the newspapers have by no means told the worst, and an officer more efficient than Gen. Davis has proved in this field will be sent to take his place.

There is considerable excitement arising over the municipal election in Washington, which occurs to-day; the Democrats charge the Radicals with importing negroes from Maryland and Virginia. It is reported that the Conservatives have got out warrants for the arrest of several hundred of these negroes. The Democrats have not nominated any ticket, but will support the independent and citizen's ticket.

St. Louis.—A Denver dispatch says, arrangements have been made by Governor Evans for the early completion of the Denver Pacific Railroad. He starts east to-morrow morning to complete the contract with the Union Pacific for laying the track and equipping the road.

Omaha.—Generals Sheridan and Doubleday and party arrived yesterday, and will leave for the West to-day.

Atlanta, Georgia.—Gen. Terry gave a military escort to Sheriff Norris to Warrenton, and has sent troops to assist him in arresting the assassins of Senator Atkins.

The large shops for building the bridges at Oswego for the Erie Pacific Railroad were burned this morning.

Boston.—Jas. M. Murdock, a wealthy retired merchant, residing at Brighton, was thrown from his carriage last evening and killed; his sister, Mrs. Wilder, and two other occupants of the carriage, were considerably injured.

Washington.—The President has issued an executive order, defining the duties, etc., of the commission of citizens appointed under the authority law for the management of Indian Affairs. The first regulation allows the Commission to make its own organization, employ clerks, &c.; the second allows the Commission to inspect the records of Indian offices and obtain full information therefrom; the third gives power to inspect the various Indian superintendencies and agencies, to be present at the payment of annuities, etc., and to advise superintendents and agents in the performance of their duties; the fourth authorizes them to be present at the purchase of goods for Indians, to inspect the said purchases, and to advise with the commissioners of Indian affairs with regard thereto; the fifth authorizes the commission that whenever they deem it advisable for the instructions of superintendents and agents be changed or modified, they will communicate such, through the office of the Commissioner on Indian affairs, to the Secretary of the Interior, and in like manner; their advice as to any changes in the modes of purchasing goods or the conduct of the affairs of the Indian bureau proper. Complaints against superintendents or agents or other officers are, in the same manner, to be forwarded to the Indian bureau or to the Department of the Interior for action; the sixth says that the commission will, at their board meeting, determine upon the recommendations to be made as to the plans for the civilization of or dealing with the Indians, and submit the same for action in the manner above indicated; the seventh is with regard to the manner of accounting with the Treasury Department; the eighth enjoins that all officers of the Government co-operate with the commissioners, give them all facilities, opportunities and aid in the performance of their duties; the ninth requires the Commission to keep the necessary records of their proceedings.

Commissioner Parker instructs the army officers assigned to duty as Indian Agents and Superintendents as follows: "It being the wish of the government to collect the Indians and locate them in permanent abodes upon their reservations, reasonable appropriations having been made to assist them in sustaining themselves after such permanent location by the pursuits of civilized life, you are earnestly requested to use your best endeavors, in co-operation, to advance this humane and wise policy; hence you will use every means to inform yourselves as fully as possible respecting the condition of the Indians in your Superintendencies, impressing the Indian mind, upon every opportunity, with the views of the government, and thus prepare them to submit to the change in their mode of life, to pursuits more congenial to a civilized state. You will endeavor to keep constantly before their minds the pacific intentions of the government, and obtain their confidence by acts of kindness and honesty in dealing with them, thereby securing that peace which it is the wish of all good citizens to establish.

There has been considerable rioting during the day on account of the election; the excitement in the afternoon assumed serious proportions, amounting almost to a battle between the police and negroes, who attacked Chas. Stewart and attempted to lynch him; the police, rescuing him with difficulty. Several of the police were injured with stones, etc., by the negroes. Finally, after warning the negroes to disperse, the police fired a volley into the crowd, killing one and wounding several. Mayor Bowen soon appeared on the ground and was busily engaged in endeavoring to restore order and quiet; the excitement was allayed with difficulty.

Louisville.—Considerable excitement prevails in the lower part of the city, caused by the weekly meetings of the W. Bank negroes, who, it is alleged, are uniformed and have regular drills; steps have been taken to ascertain if the meetings are of a peaceful or warlike character.

Summit of the Black Hills, 8,250 feet above the sea level, June 7th, seven o'clock p.m.—The Pullman dining car, the "International," the pioneer of its class over the Pacific Railroad, is passing the Summit, accompanied by two of the Pullman palace sleeping cars, forming a part of a through train to Sacramento. Among the passengers from the East are General C. Cook, formerly of Colorado, and his wife and child; Governor Bross, of the Chicago Tribune and wife; Miss Stewart, of Chicago, Professor Miller, of the Rush Medical College; Mr. Waite, proprietor of the Brevoort House, New York, and Fitch of the San Francisco Bulletin, and wife and two children; William Swinton, of the New York Times; Elliott, of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, and wife and child; Simonton, of the Associated Press, and wife, son and others, one hundred and forty-six passengers in all. The dining car seats forty-eight at the table at once, in its centre; it is compact, but pleasant. The kitchen, with the ice box and provision cellar, is beneath. Dinner is now being served, while moving across the wilderness at the rate of thirty miles per hour, over an excellent road, in cars free from dust and thoroughly ventilated, with a deliciously soft mountain air. The party is partaking of as luxurious a meal as a first class Eastern hotel can afford. The vote is unanimous that no railroad traveling in America or Europe equals this in comfort or pleasure for men, women or children.

Washington.—Attorney General Hoar gives an opinion, at the instance of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company, that the control of telegraphic communication with foreign nations by means of cables leading from the shores of the United States, is within the Constitutional authority of Congress to permit, regulate or prohibit, and there can be no security for such enterprises while no authority or protection for them has been derived from acts of Congress. He says that the separate States may grant the enjoyment of their own rights and soil and of the privileges within their control, but they cannot grant rights which interfere with or limit the paramount Constitutional authority of the United States.

Rev. M. J. Cramer, U. S. consul at Leipzig, and brother-in-law of President Grant, arrived here on Saturday evening, accompanied by his wife; both are stopping at the Executive Mansion.

The President has appointed Joseph T. Hoyle U. S. marshal for Nebraska.

Albany.—In the National Typographical Convention this afternoon, the committee on credentials reported, calling attention to a large number of proxy representatives, and recommending their rejection; also recommending the admission to seats of the ladies representing the women's Typographical Union of New York. The report was accepted. A long discussion followed on the question of proxy representation, which was finally referred to a special committee. The divisions in several of the Unions were also referred to a special committee.
