LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Indicted for Murder.—We learn that Robert Keyes, who shot and killed H. Steers, a soldier, at Beaver, a few days ago, has been indicted for willful murder by the grand jury of the Second District. The regular session of the court is to be very strong, his general character being bad.
Director Elected.—Mr. S. W. Bears has been elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Directors of the Z. C. M. I., caused by the demise of the late Hon. W. H. Hooper. Mr. Bears is one of the shrewdest business men in the Territory, and the trade of the Ogden Branch of the Institution has grown remarkably under his management and manipulation.

Railroad Officials.—This morning we were pleased to receive a call from J. L. Truflow, Esq., general traveling agent of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad, and Chas. T. Parsons, Esq., Colorado agent for the same line, the latter being located at Denver. These gentlemen are here on business connected with their road. The emigration from the Southern States Mission passes over it, and our people have been treated with marked courtesy by its officials, especially Mr. Truflow, with whom Brother Morgan has had direct dealings.

Sister Smoot's Condition.—President Wilson, who has been in the city since he reached there on Saturday, "Ma" Smoot was unable to speak, but before he left yesterday she could talk as to be understood, and the was an evident improvement in her condition. It is scarcely expected, however, that she will recover so as to be able to be about again. She talks herself as if she did not anticipate it.
 Brother Woodruff attended meeting in Provo yesterday, preached to the people, and had an interesting time.

Accidentally Drowned.—We learn from E. C. Anderson, of Koonharin, that a fatal accident occurred there about sundown on Saturday, the 5th inst. A boy named John E. Mahan, not quite eleven years old, son of Orson M. Mahan, took his father's horse to water. He thought that the unfortunate lad must have mounted one of the animals, as only a short time afterwards one horse was found lying in a mud-hole with the boy under him. The lad was taken out but he was quite dead, never showing any signs of life, notwithstanding that all known means for resuscitation were applied. This accident has excited great sympathy to be felt by the community for the bereaved family.

That Mill Incident.—The Mining Record has the following regarding an affair mentioned in the News of Saturday, and which occurred at Park City:

A man by the name of Wm. White, a native of Ireland, aged about 45 years, was severely injured on the 11th inst., by being carried over Timms & Son's over-hoist water wheel. Fortunately for the man he was seen just as he was passing over the wheel, and by great exertion on the part of the Timms boys he was taken out of the water below in time to save his life. White received quite a severe scalp wound and some other injuries, but from present appearance he will recover. There is some mystery about the action of the man White, and whether it was for the purpose of committing suicide under a temporary aberration of mind or not is not known. He had recently been robbed of some $80, and this together with drink, and the fact that he was out of employment, may have caused him to seek self-destruction in the way above described.

Tabernacle Services.—At the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon the congregation was addressed by Elder C. W. Penrose. He opened his remarks by a statement of some of the leading events foreseen and foretold by prophetic power, by many of the ancient men of God, called and inspired by the Almighty. Among these were a universal apostasy from the order of the kingdom of God. He gave some details of the process and progress of this predicted "falling away," and next referred to the encouraging promise from the same source of a restoration of the true order of the kingdom in the latter days, and the entering in of the dispensation of the fulness of times. The system to be returned to and established on the earth was the ancient order of heavenly truth taught to Abraham, and to Isaac before the order of carnal commandments was given, and by Christ and his inspired and commissioned Apostles. "This Gospel of the kingdom" had been revealed through the instrumentality of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the speaker explaining that the principles he taught were similar to those proclaimed by the Savior, while the effects of obedience to them were also the same, resulting in the bestowal of the Holy Ghost and its gifts and power. This restoration had been instituted and the Gospel in this day was to be proclaimed first among the Gentiles and then to the House of Israel. The speaker gave an explanation of the objects and uses of Temples built to the name of the Most High by the Latter-day Saints, being for the administration of sacred ordinances for the benefit of the living and the dead, that the work of human redemption might be conducted on a broad and effective plane. He concluded with an exhortation to the Saints to shun every species of evil and cleave to everything good, noble and exalted.

THE PROVO GRIEVANCE.

A BETTER UNDERSTANDING ESTABLISHED.

Our sister city of Provo has been considerably exercised during the last few days over an action of the U. P. and U. C. railroads in reference to freight. The new arrangement complained of was stated in the News a few days ago. It is in this way. The railroads established a uniform rate for freight from the East and West to Ogden, Salt Lake and Provo, goods being delivered at each of the three points for precisely the same rate. To counterbalance this discrimination in favor of Provo against Salt Lake, the Utah Central so fixed their tariff that the Capital is enabled to lay goods down at all points south of Provo at the same rates as Provo can. This makes the matter precisely even, placing Provo on an equal footing with Salt Lake.

An indignation meeting was held by Provo merchants and other prominent gentlemen, and resolutions were read expressive of a determination to withdraw patronage from the U. P. and U. C. roads, and from the Salt Lake merchants, on the ground that the railroads had been indicted to take the step by pressure from Salt Lake business men. Co-ordination prevailed, and it was decided, before taking such an extreme action, to first have a consultation with the railroad officials on the matter.

Accordingly Messrs James Sharp, Francis Cole and John Russell visited Provo and met with the business men of that place, when, by mutual explanation, it appeared to be the prevailing sentiment that there was no disposition to discriminate against Provo, and with the exception of the possibilities in regard to local produce, the arrangement was quite proper and just as between that city and Salt Lake. The railroad officials stated that the tariff was made up with a view of doing justice to all parties concerned, and as soon as the matter pertaining to local products, such as lumber and mill feed was brought to their attention they assured the meeting that a change in that regard would be made.

"We are pleased to learn that the company has reached a better understanding has been reached. It is desirable that the most cordial relations in every respect should be maintained between this city and her growing southern neighbor, and there should be no disposition toward discrimination in favor of or against either, and there certainly, to our way of thinking, does not appear to be any inclination of that sort on the part of the railroads on the subject now considered. We desire to see our southern sister flourish and grow, and we believe her business men have the intelligence, enterprise and ability to keep her steadily on the road of progress without any undue advantages other than those of which a bountiful Providence has given her a goodly share."

Obsequies of Sister Needham.—The funeral services of the late Alice W. Needham, wife of Elder James Needham, were held in the seventh Ward meeting-house yesterday morning, conducted by Elder Wm. McLachlan, Bishop's Counselor. The hall was densely crowded, numbers having to stand during the proceedings, while others were unable to gain an entrance into the building.

The opening prayer was offered by Elder J. Nicholson. Brother McLachlan, speaking for Bishop Thorn, who was absent on account of sickness, as well as himself, paid a well merited tribute to the character and disposition of the deceased, making special reference to her labors as President of the Relief Society, a position she held from 1874 until her demise, her open-handed generosity and benevolence exhibited to the needy having been one of her marked traits. The speaker was deeply affected while giving utterance to his sentiments and views.

The congregation was next addressed by Pres. Angus M. Cannon, who delivered a discourse on the nature and ordinance of the Gospel and the power of the Priesthood, showing now, by these means, the family of man would be ultimately linked together in the perfection of the heavenly order. He also spoke of the virtues of the deceased. President Joseph F. Smith was the next speaker. He delivered a discourse on the purposes and designs of the Almighty in the creation and development of man in the several spheres through which he had to pass, and the nature of his final destiny. He also spoke on the resurrection, stating, in that connection, that Sister Needham would take up the body she now laid down in a purified and immortal state, and live forever in her glorified and redeemed condition.

The benediction was pronounced by Elder C. W. Penrose. The singing exercises were conducted by the Ward choir, led by Brother W. H. Foster.

A Narrow Escape.—Bro. Elliott Wilder, one of Beaver's substantial citizens, is in town. He had the misfortune to hurt his arm by an accident while traveling from Beaver to Milford to take the case at the latter point. Besides himself Brothers W. Ashworth and W. Bates and a young lady named E. Westerman, of the 19th Ward of this city, were in the carriage. The tongue of the vehicle dropped, causing the team to run away. One of the horses jumped and the buckle of the line caught in the ring, so that it was impossible to control the team. Matters looked rather unpromising for a while, and to add to the difficulties of the situation the young lady member of the party fainted and had to be held up. The tongue of the carriage struck into the ground and was splintered into a thousand pieces. Luckily the team stopped, and with the exception of Brother Wilder's bruised arm, the accident occurred about three miles from Milnersville.

Boy Lost.—Last Tuesday John Campbell, son of Sister Jane Campbell, of this city, and who was lately stopping with Mayor Robert Campbell, at Logan, left the latter city and no trace of him has since been found. He is 12 years old, of fair complexion, but sunburnt, brown hair and light grey eyes. He was dressed in a dark cloth suit and had on a red and black checked shirt and light home-made cloth overcoat. Any information concerning him will be gratefully received by his mother, who resides in the 14th Ward of this city, by whom all expenses incurred in his being restored to his family will be paid.
 Other Utah and Montana papers, please copy.

A Harsh Proceeding.—On Thursday last a lady named Belle Harris, who resides in Platte Co., was summoned before the grand jury at Beaver and questioned as to her domestic relations. On being asked whether she was married and if so to whom, she declined to answer. She was taken before the Second District Court, where the matter was reported by Asst. Prosecuting Attorney, Z. Snow. Judge Twiss decided the question was proper, but the witness still firmly declined to answer, when she was fined $25 for contempt and remanded to the custody of the Marshal until further order of the Court. Mr. S. A. Kenner appeared in court in behalf of the prisoner, but, up to Saturday, when our informant left Beaver, she was still in durance vile. There was talk of a commitment on one side and application for a writ of habeas corpus on the other.
