THE CONSTITUTION IS DISMASTED BISHOP CUTLER HONORED.

Prominent Citizen of Lehi Given Party on Fifty-Seventh Birthday.

(Special to the "News.")

Lehi, June 4 .- Last evening about seventy-five of this city's most prominent citizens met at the beautiful home of Bishop T. R. Cutler in honor of his fifty-seventh birthday. Probably few men in the west have achieved so many distinctions in such varied callings as has Mr. Cutler. There were friends and has Mr. Cutler. There were friends and business associates present who under his guiding hand have made Utah fa-mous as a sugar producing state. Some who have been associated with him in mercantile pursuits years ago and have shared his success in this busi-ness and others who have been inti-mately connected with him in church capacities and probably in the relation-ship in which the Bishop is best loved. ship in which the Bishop is best loved.
