AT HOME AND ABROAD.

"H—, it is," he roared. "Show me your way bills for it."

I started to get the bill, and he said: "Keep your hands up. Show me the paper, I'll get it."

He looked at the bill and was satisfied that the second safe contained nothing, which was true. The man was very cool all the time. He had seven or eight through express pouches, each containing packages of money; how much I cannot guess. The man cut a small slit in each pouch and took every package.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 13.—Three policemen left here today for the scene of the train robbery near Quantico. Twenty thousand dollars was the amount sent from this city by the train and most of it was in bonds. Governor O'Ferrel has offered $1,000 reward and telegraphed governor of Maryland asking co-operation.

KEOKUK, Ia., Oct. 13.—The Keokuk Anzeiger, the leading German paper of southeastern Iowa, today renounced Democracy and comes out square for the Republican ticket. George Henzel, the editor, charges the Democratic party with failure to perform its pledges.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—The grand jury which has been investigating the robbery of the county by Justice Ross W. Lathshaw and Justice W. H. Browne, reported this afternoon, returning indictments against both men. Lathshaw failed to account for several thousand dollars of fines collected from dissolute women.

Browne, whose court has long been notorious for fee grabbing, was also indicted for failure to report fines.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Minister Thurston, of Hawaii, will leave for Europe on Wednesday, sailing on the steamer Paris, and during his absence Hawaiian matters in Washington will be under the supervision of Charge d'Affaires Hastings.

"There is no limit as to the length of time that I will remain abroad," said Minister Thurston today.

"My government has given me quite a task to perform. It is the desire of the republic of Hawaii to off-set as much as possible the Asiatic influence in our islands, caused by the presence of Chinese and Japanese, by encouraging European immigration.

"What we want is to induce families to go to the islands and settle plantations and cultivate the land. For this purpose I shall go first to London, where I propose to make inquiries as to the status of cheap farm labor with a view to receiving as many of them as possible as immigrants to Hawaii.

"There are no particular inducements being held out to laborers of the U. S. to go to Hawaii, because no better wages can be offered than those now prevailing in this country, but I am informed that the scale is far in advance of what is paid in England. Should the English farm laborers and their families not evince a desire to avail themselves of the opportunities which I will throw in their way, it is more than probable that I will continue my journey to Portugal in quest of laborers.

"This labor problem is a very perplexing one to our people and we are willing to resort to almost any measures to root out the Chinese and Japanese now on the islands. Incidentally, I have learned, too, that the royalist commissioners will be on the continent the same time that I am, but their destination is Germany, I am informed."

ANTWERP, Oct. 13.—The French vessel Alice was sunk during a fog early today by the Swedish ship Balder, on the river Schelde. Six of the crew were drowned.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 13.—As a result of a drunken riot at Mallby, a small Hungarian settlement near this city, one person was instantly killed, two fatally wounded and two others seriously injured. The killed and injured are:

George Siooski, aged 17, head blown to pieces; Lizzie Fosky, 15, shot in the abdomen, cannot recover; John Jenkins, 28, shot in the abdomen, cannot live; Maggie Moore, 14, shot in the arm and both legs, will recover; Thos. Moore, 23, shot in both legs, will recover.

Michael Paloski, became intoxicated and John Moore ordered him from his saloon. He went home and procured a shotgun. On his way back to the saloon he encountered Dan Ryan sitting on the porch with Lizzie Fosky and Maggie Moore. Ryan advised Paloski to go home. Paloski fired. The two girls fell to the porch, the blood spurting from their wounds. John Moore attracted by the shooting, picked up his sister while Ryan took the Fosky girl. Before they could get inside the door, the drunken fiend emptied the second barrel into the girls, Moore receiving part of the load in his knees. Paloski was joined by two countrymen, also armed. John Jenkins attempted to arrest Paloski and was shot. He then escaped to a boarding house, barricaded the door and thrust his head through the window and threatened to kill the first person attempting to enter. People living on the opposite side of the street had their heads out of the window.

One of the Slavs seeing the head of Gio Siooski took deliberate aim and fired, tearing half the boy's head and face away. The horrorstricken neighbors closed their windows and barricaded the doors. The murderers then turned the guns on the lighted windows, posts and trees. After all became quiet several armed men went to the house to arrest the murderers. The door of the house was open and the men gone. Two men were arrested at Kingston this morning on suspicion. The two guns carried by the murderer were found in a pond.

PARIS, Ky., Oct. 13.—Col. W. P. C. Breckinridge has been suspended from the communion of Mount Horeb church in Lafayette county. The pastor, Rev. Charles L. Thompson, says: "Colonel Breckinridge made a confession of his guilt, and asked the prayers and love of his brethren in leading a Christian life. It was the unanimous decision of the officers that while accepting his repentance as sincere and heartfelt, the great publicity of the sin demanded some public action, so he was suspended from the sacrament till February 1, 1895."

LOGANSPOUT, Ind., Oct. 13.—Charles Marvin has added further luster to his crown by the manner in which he has won a bride. For several years he has courted Ida Rich, but he has been bitterly opposed by the girl's parents. It was very natural therefore, that the young couple, whose love was mutual, should elope. This they did on Thursday. They returned to beg forgiveness, but the bride's father locked her in the cella and drove his son-in-law from the premises with a shotgun. All night the bridegroom sat awake pondering over a plan of rescue. When morning dawned he sent word to his mother-in-law to come and get her daughter's effects, as he was ready to relinquish all claims. When the old lady came she found herself entrapped in her own net. Marvin locked her in the house and refused to let her return. She was held as a hostage until last night, when Old Man Rich appeared upon the scene with a flag of truce. Prisoners of war were exchanged and Marvin and his bride were once more re-united. The girl's mother is also said to be so favorably impressed with her son-in-law during her detention at his home that she is anxious to kiss and make up and the old gentleman will doubtless soon be persuaded to go and do likewise.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—General T. J. Morgan, Indian commissioner under Harrison, in an address before the state Baptist convention, on the question of Rome in politics, bitterly attacked the Catholic church, which he declared was a political organization. The pope, he said, would soon try to have his ablegate recognized at Washington as an ambassador from a political sovereignty. He charged the Catholics with securing the defeat of Harrison on account of his administration of Indian affairs. He asserted that ninety-nine of every hundred Catholics were Democrats. He referred to Archbishop Ireland as a man who carries a United States senator in his vest pocket for convenient use, and added that the archbishops of America were at this moment behind closed doors plotting against the free schools and free institutions of America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—One thousand women, all members of leading social circles, gathered yesterday afternoon to hear the Rev. Dr. C. H. Parkhurst speak of "The condition of our city and woman's relation to it." Immediately after the conclusion of Dr. Parkhurst's speech a woman unknown to those who heard her, elbowed her way to the front of the hall and denounced Dr. Parkhurst, saying that his crusade against immorality was "considerable of a humbug." She disappeared before any one could ascertain her identity.

Dr. Parkhurst, after portraying the existing municipal evils, said:

"It is your sphere, your duty, to aid in retarding and extirpating the corruption, vice, and wickedness which are damning our young men and their possibilities. It has been said that the developments of the past year and a half have done much to abate this. But this is not so. With all the fighting that has been done and all the efforts that have been put forth, it remains patent that the police department today is in precisely the same condition as it was two years ago—in league with vice and with those who foster and promote vice and crime.

"You must help in rubbing out for.
