

ALBERT T. PATRICK IS CONVICTED.
Jury Finds Him Guilty of Murdering Millionaire Rice.
DELIBERATED THREE HOURS

New York, March 26.—Albert T. Patrick, lawyer, was this evening convicted of the murder of the aged Texan, William Rice, the wealthy millionaire, who was shot to death in the electric chair. A seat three hours of deliberation at the close of a trial prolonged for nine weeks and replete with sensational interest sufficed to enable the jury to reach their verdict.

The issue of the trial established the charge that Patrick conspired with Mr. Rice's valet, Charles P. Jones, to obtain possession of the aged Texan's estate, estimated at $7,000,000, and that Jones killed his employer by the administration of chloroform at the district instigation of Patrick.

The jury retired at 1:30 p. m. At 5:55 they notified the officer in charge that they were ready to return to court, having agreed upon a verdict.

In anticipation of a scene of excitement in the event of a verdict of guilty, the unusual step was taken of ordering all women to leave the courtroom. Among them were the friends of the two sisters and Mrs. Francis, with whom he boarded.

Calm as ever, and with confidence seemingly unshaken, the prisoner was escorted into the courtroom. He sat rapidly and took his stand facing the jury with head erect and hands loosely clasped behind his back. At the word "guilty," pronounced by Foreman MacCall in a tone low but distinct enough to be heard throughout the court, not the slightest change passed over Patrick's face, and he remained standing in an attitude of defiance while the customary roll of the jury was being taken.

His aged father, Capt. Patrick, sitting near him and straining to catch the statement of the foreman, started for an instant as his import reached him and then sat calmly awaiting the further proceedings.

The verdict was known almost immediately in the corridor, where the women relatives and friends of the prisoner were waiting, and a scene of great excitement ensued. Scarcely a moment had elapsed when the prisoner's eldest sister, Mrs. Francis, rushed into the courtroom, begging to be allowed to see her brother. Mrs. Francis, faint and, on recovering, broke from the crowd and rushed into the courtroom, from which Patrick had just been removed. There she again swooned. Both women were removed to an anteroom and were sent home in a carriage.

Capt. Patrick, after taking leave of his son, who was led back to the Tombs, would only say, "It is hard; we will have to try again."

Note of the jurors could be induced to reveal how the verdict had been reached, an agreement having been made to tell nothing.

A motion will be made for a new trial when the prisoner is arraigned for sentence one week from Monday next.

COLOGNE'S REVOLVER.
It is Turned Over to the Buffalo Historical Society.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 26.—The revolver from which was fired the bullet that killed President McKinley, the hands of which the assassin covered the hand which held the revolver as he thrust it toward the president, and the cartridges contained in the revolver have been turned over to the Buffalo Historical society and will be placed in the museum of the society.

For a McKinley Monument.

Albany, N. Y., March 26.—A bill appropriating $100,000 for the erection of a monument in Buffalo in memory of President McKinley was passed by the state senate today. Gov. Odell sent an emergency message to the legislature during the immediate passage of the bill.

World's Gold Supply Short.

London, March 26.—At a meeting held today of the shareholders of the Bank of Africa, the chairman said it was calculated that owing to the closing of the South African mines during the last two and a half years the world's gold supply was short to the extent of $40,000,000.

Republic Life Ins. Co. Affairs.

Chicago, March 27.—After having been in the courts of Cook county since 197, the affairs of the Republic Life Insurance company, in the hands of a receiver nearly 25 years, have been ordered wound up by Judge Tracy. The report of the Equitable Trust company, receiver, has been filed, showing that the assets amount to $4,725,377. When a receiver was appointed there were nearly $1,200,000 of its assets and nearly $100,000. There were over 2,300 claimants, and the creditors so far have received about 50 cents on the dollar. Samuel Ward was appointed receiver at first, and he was succeeded by the Equitable Trust company.

Five Hundred Students Vaccinated.

Berkeley, Cal., March 26.—Five hundred of the students of the state university were vaccinated today free of charge. After tomorrow night a similar notice not filing a vaccination certificate will be subject to expulsion.

Boys Indicted for Horse Killing.

Mayfield, Ky., March 27.—Two boys, aged about 14 years, were indicted by the grand jury for killing a horse by beating, skinning it, and selling the hide for $1.50. At this time the boys were in the school of reform. There being no more there for them, the court ordered the boys whipped until they shed tears. Sheriff Harris was ordered to do the whipping with a new cowhide. Their parents paid for the horse.

FUNSTON GETS MAD.

He Goes for His Eastern Newspaper Critics.
Tupelo, Kan., March 26.—Gen. Fredrick Funston was in this city today on his way to California. Gen. Funston delivered himself of a scathing denunciation of the eastern newspapers which criticized his speech before the Senate in New York. He said: "I have been maligned by that class of papers until I am tired. Editorially, and I am glad to express my independence of their opinions and their talk, and that of their kind, about my military and military means in the Stand by the Standard!

Price's Cream Baking Powder is everywhere the acknowledged standard, the powder of the highest reputation, greatest strength, and absolutely pure. It renders the food more healthful and palatable, and using it exclusively you are assured against alum and other dangerous chemicals from which the low-grade powders are made.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder is sold on its merits only—never by the aid of lotteries, gifts, commissions or other schemes. The entire value of your money comes back to you in baking powder—the purest, most economical made.

NOTE.—Alum baking powders are low priced, as they cost but three cents a pound to make. But alum leaves in the bread or cake glaucous salts, sulphuric acid and hydrate of alumina—all injurious, the last two poisonous.

ESTIMATES OF RHODES.

London, March 27.—In estimating the career of Cecil Rhodes and its effect on the history of the British empire, newspaper editors are largely influenced by their political views. But the opinion is unanimous in the press here that in spite of the defects and the limitations of his forceful character few men have more profoundly impressed the imagination of their contemporaries or played a larger part in the world's affairs than Cecil Rhodes, and that the empire is poorer because of his death. With the expressions of admiration for his great services are mingled kindly regrets for the disastrous estimates made in the Jameson raid.

The Standard says: "There was a certain largeness and magnanimity even in his failings. He remains an impressive and inspiring figure and a real hero of his country, who sacrificed much to make England great and powerful."

The Daily Mail describes him as the successor of Lord Clive and Warren Hastings, and says: "The violence with which he was hated abroad is the measure of his service to England."

The Daily Chronicle says: "There is nothing in the career of Cecil Rhodes to support the charge that he was a vulgar money grabber. There was nothing about him; even his blunders were colossal."

The Daily News, which bitterly attacks Mr. Rhodes on account of the Jameson raid, declares that not even Randolph Churchill shattered a more brilliant career by a more conspicuous act of folly, and defends him from the charge of money-grabbing.

The Daily Telegraph says: "If Cecil Rhodes was guilty of a great blunder in 1895 he paid as dearly for it as his most bitter foe could wish. Now that he has passed beyond the reach of malignity of censure, only the magnificent services he rendered the empire are remembered."

The Times says: "With all his undeniable faults and the errors which marred his noblest work, Cecil Rhodes stands a heroic figure which the traditions of imperial history will cling to."

The newspapers all devote much space to sketches of the career of Mr. Rhodes, to reminiscences of the man and the expressions of foreign opinion concerning him.

Much curiosity is evinced as to the probable disposal of his property and interests. The general notion is that the bulk of his property will be bequeathed not to an individual, but to public interests in South Africa, and that Dr. Jameson will be designated to succeed, so far as any one can succeed, to the charge of his Rhodesian interests.

Matopos Hills, where Mr. Rhodes wished to be buried, is the scene of his historic conference with the Matabele chiefs.

A dispatch from Capetown in this morning's Daily Express says that Jameson is authority for the statement that Cecil Rhodes left Groote Schuur, his residence near Capetown, to the people of that city, as well as large sums of money to charities.

Niles' Bank Creditors.

Niles, Mich., March 27.—A decision just handed down in Bay county, the creditors of the defunct First National Bank of Niles, will profit to the extent of $100,000. Several years ago, a local company sold to farmers goods to be delivered by Chicago banks, taking the purchasers' notes. When the goods arrived it was claimed they were inferior. Many of the farmers refused to receive them and, instead, their notes to go to protect. These notes were discounted by Chas. A. Johnson, former cashier of the bank, now serving a prison sentence. Suits were begun against the delinquent farmers before the bank's failure, and the latter combined to fight them. A test case was made of the one decided in Bay county against John Ryland for $135.

Severe Blow to Texas Cattlemen.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 27.—The order issued by the Texas State Revenue Inspector Cobb at Vinita, I. T., which prevents the importation of Texas cattle into the Cherokee Nation, will be a severe blow to many cattlemen of this state, who have already begun to take thousands of cattle into that nation for grazing. It is estimated that more than half a million heads were to go to that country beginning next month. The Santa Fe was to handle nearly 200,000 head alone.

The stockmen of Texas will be heavily losers because of this ruling as it will necessitate their taking cattle to feed pastures, provided they can be had, which is a mooted question, as most available lease lands have already been taken.

CELL MATE CHANGED.

Charles Kelly Will Now Be With Peter Mortensen.

The only change that has taken place in the daily life of Peter Mortensen is in giving him a new cell mate, John Kelly, the man who has been confined with him ever since his preliminary hearing, has been released at the instance of the county attorney and Charles Kelly, the alleged burglar, has been put in his place.

Mortensen has made no comment on the change, but as usual, bends over his books and quietly works away or picks up something to read. His confinement seems to be having no deleterious effect upon him as he is fleshier than he has been for years. When his brothers-in-law called on him Sunday they were very much astonished as they expected to see him fading under the imprisonment, but instead of that he is getting fat. His mind seems to be free from anxiety, at least great anxiety.

He continues to protest his innocence and the insinuation of an accomplice causes him to wail very indignantly.

His name is seldom mentioned now but he is always the center of the greatest interest, of those who visit the prison, except where relatives are concerned and just a few days ago he received a bouquet of cut flowers from some sympathizing ladies.

WOOD WANTS MAINE RAISED.

Governor General Says the Hulk is A Menace to Navigation.

COST WILL BE ENORMOUS.

He Declares It Is Duty We Owe the Cubans to Remove It—Nothing Definite Yet.

Washington, March 27.—Gen. Wood has brought to the attention of the war department, through the medium of a formal letter, the propriety of making some arrangement for raising the wreck of the Maine from the ooze and mud in which she lies embedded in Havana harbor.

It is stated by him that not only are there sentimental reasons for this, owing to the fact that, according to common belief, the remains of 40 or 50 American sailors lie within the sunken hulk, but this heavy steel structure is also a menace and obstruction to navigation in the harbor of Havana, and it is our duty to the Cubans to remove it.

The expense attached to the undertaking is very heavy, the bids ranging anywhere from $400,000 to $700,000. Several tentative arrangements were made with enterprising contractors who wished to use the material of the wrecked ship to make souvenirs, but they have all failed, and Secy. Root, upon securing a more detailed statement of the facts from Gen. Wood, will submit the question to Congress, probably without recommendation as to whether the Maine shall be raised.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

An event which was in the nature of a great surprise to the many friends of the participants was the announcement yesterday of the marriage of Miss Edith Parker and Dr. William D. Donohoe, the wedding having been consummated on Saturday afternoon without the knowledge of their relatives or friends. The ceremony was performed at the home of Right Reverend Bishop Scanlan, by Father Kiely, and afterward the bride returned to her home, and the groom to Park City, where he resides. The young people have been engaged for some time, and both have a host of friends who will extend congratulations and good wishes.

The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Parker of this city, and the groom is a prominent physician of Park City. The young couple will make their home in the latter place.

Miss W. H. Dunn of Bingham is the guest of Mrs. E. J. Center.

Miss Breeden will entertain informally on next Monday night.

The Opal club will give their social at the Ladies' Literary club house tonight.

Miss Biville Foreman will be the guest of Miss Virginia Breeden next week.

The pupils of Prof. Anton Pederson will give a recital at his studio tonight.

An Easter entertainment will be given tomorrow by the children of the Free kindergarten at the Thirteenth ward meeting house at 10 a. m.

Mrs. S. L. Boggs entertained the Sewing club at the home of Mrs. Plummer yesterday.

Mrs. Kister entertained informally this afternoon.

Last Saturday evening Miss Annie Hansen was happily surprised by the members of the Bachelor Hen club. Miss Hansen was the guest of Mrs. Miller. An elaborate supper was served and the evening was spent in games and pleasant chat. Among the guests were Mrs. Rhoda Miller, Clara Madden, Anna Taylor, Ellen Peterson and others.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.
Dr. Kingsbury Appears on Behalf of Small Ice Dealers.

The new ice ordinance was the subject under discussion at the meeting of the municipal laws and sanitary committees at the council rooms last evening. A hearing was given the small ice dealers, and they were represented by Dr. J. T. Kingsbury of the University of Utah, who acted in the capacity of expert testimony. He quoted authorities to back up his statement that the ice of the dealers is not injurious to the health of the community and offered many amendments to the new ordinance, which practically amounted to a different ordinance. The committees finally took the matter under consideration and will meet again tonight and take further action on the same.

English Golfers Coming.
New York, March 27.—There is now a prospect of a team of representative amateur golfers of Great Britain will visit the United States this year. The Foxhill golf club, one of the most progressive in the United States, has decided to invite a team of six of the most expert amateurs in England and Scotland to come over as the guests of the club. The visitors will cross the ocean at their own expense, but upon their arrival they will receive a hearty welcome and be taken care of by the club while they remain here. Mortimer M. Singer, former captain of the club, will sail for Europe early in June, and will spend six or eight weeks visiting leading golf courses in England and Scotland.

He is one of a committee of five who have the matter in hand.

Now, the Race is "On."
New York, March 27.—Fears that the Paris-Vienna race will be abandoned are evidently unfounded, as no intimation has been made here to that effect, says a Paris dispatch to the Herald.

Preparations for the race are being continued.

NASTURTIUM HAS BUT SLIM CHANCES.

Whitney Says He Has One in Ten Thousand

FOR THE ENGLISH DERBY.

The $50,000 Colt Is Slowly Improving in Health—Famous Horse
May Not Start at All.

New York, March 27.—"If you were to ask my opinion of Nasturtium's chances of winning the English derby I would say I do not believe he has one in ten thousand."

This was W. C. Whitney's reply to a query about his $50,000 colt's physical condition, says the World.

"I have not decided on any action at present," he said, when asked if he had decided to withdraw the entry. "The race is too far off to say just what I will do. My last letter from Mr. Huggins stated that Nasturtium was slowly improving in health. That was some time ago. Mr. Huggins is not much of a letter writer. He is a much better trainer."

"The colt, I believe, has been exercising lately, but nothing fast or long has been asked of him. From all I have heard he was quite ill and wasted away considerably. The interval of time is so short before the race—about two months—that I hardly believe he will be able to start. It will take all that time, it seems to me, to get his health back again."

Asked if he is in favor of the "No race" system, Mr. Whitney said: "Yes, I am. The old style of starting horses was injurious. Rushing a horse away from the post at top speed, and then turning him up suddenly was too harmful to him than the race. All this is obliterated under the new system. The horse runs as fast as he is capable and the best horse invariably wins."

"PUGS" WHO GO TO ENGLAND.

List Includes Ruhl, Sharkey, McCoy, Walcott, Gardner and Others.

New York, March 27.—G. C. Lea, founder of the National Sporting club of London and W. A. Gavin, chairman of the directorate, who, as a committee, arrived here March 3, to secure professional and amateur athletic talent to compete with European athletes in London during coronation week, have sailed for home.

The following pugilists have signed contracts with them: Gus Ruhl, Kid McCoy, George Gardner, Tommy Ryan, Tom Sharkey, Joe Walcott, Frank Erne, Harry Harris and Johnny Gorman, and negotiations are under way to secure Harvey Parker, the wrestler.

"We have to leave for home sooner than we expected, as we have entire charge of the coronation tournaments, and we must be back to judge of talent which has been procured on the continent and in the Orient by other agents."

"The matches that have been so far arranged between professional pugilists are those between Joe Walcott and Tommy Ryan, between Ruhl and Andrew Fokell, English bantam weights and Johnny Gorman, against Dido Plumb."

FOUGHT TO A DRAW.

Donovan and Thurston Mix Things
For Twenty Rounds.

Portland, Ore., March 26.—Mike Donovan of Rochester and Charles "Dutch" Thurston of San Francisco fought twenty rounds to a draw before a good-sized audience at the Pastime club this evening. The fight was pretty even up to the twentieth round, when the advantage was with Thurston. He was lively on his feet and the most of Donovan's leads fell short. In the last round both men went at hammer and tongs, trying for a knock-out. Thurston was the stronger of the two, however, and Donovan was getting a bad punning, when, just at the end of the round, Donovan struck Thurston a very low blow. The referee did not consider the foul blow an intentional one, and called the bout a draw.

Mike Donovan of Thurston's seconds, jumped into the ring and began to remonstrate with Donovan for striking Thurston a foul blow. Donovan promptly struck Donovan, and the lively mix-up was only averted by the police entering the ring and putting an end to the row.

THE AGE OF BRAINS.
The late Philip D. Armour once told me that he did not give his sons a dollar's worth of stock in his insurance business until they had satisfied him that they could "make money." This was the great puzzle of his life, and he did not take his sons into the firm until they had shown business capacity and industry. But not many rich men in this country follow the example set by the founder of the great house of Armour.

The young man with nothing but brains has nothing to lose. What to do with a patrimony of $100,000 does not bother him or his family at night. The young man with $100,000 will soon realize that this is too small a sum to risk in business in an age of combines, when all productive and mercantile enterprises are conducted upon a scale of great magnitude. Manufacturing is certainly out of the question; and if he wants to embark in a mercantile pursuit he must go to a small town that is not yet invaded by a mammoth department store selling everything from a tack hammer to "store teeth," says a writer in the Nation.

But the young man with nothing but brains is not confronted by such perplexities. There is no "trust" in brains. It may be possible to corner the wheat crop or control the output of corn-starch; but you cannot corner the crop of ideas. If the young man looks about him and studies the situation he will quickly learn that the age of combines is also the age of brains.

LOCAL EVENTS.

BOXERS FAILED TO SIGN.

Bean and Flynn Holding Off for Some Unknown Reason.

It was expected that Bean and Flynn would meet last night and sign for their proposed 20-round boxing match to take place on the 17th of April, but for some reason, the match failed to attach their names to a contract, and it may be two or three days before they reach an agreement. It is believed, however, that the match will take place and the public will not be disappointed. Both men are in training for the contest, and the bout will in all probability come off on scheduled time. Flynn said today that if a new club was to be launched it could not secure him as a drawing card, but to win back the honor.

OFF FOR KANSAS CITY.

Callison Leaves for the Grand American Handicap Shoot.

Col. Callison, and J. P. Cowan of Butte, left Butte today for Kansas City to take part in the Grand American Handicap shoot which begins Monday morning and continues until Saturday.

The former is in splendid form for the great event, and his friends here expect much of him. He had his last practice shoot yesterday afternoon and expressed himself as being satisfied with his form. If he does not come pretty close to winning the big prize, he will give the eastern crowd something to go to keep pace with him.

Rifle Club Shoot.

Only five members of the Rifle club took part in the shoot yesterday afternoon. Five scores of 10 shots to the score was the program, with three extra scores between three shooters. Following are the scores:

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

An audience that filled the Third ward meeting house to overflowing was convulsed with laughter over the presentation of the clever farce, "The Spinsters' Convention." Thirteen of the young ladies of the ward were the principals and the audience was intensely amused from beginning to end. The cast of characters and the roles assumed, which were all well sustained, were as follows: Aunt Plenty (chairman), Amy Hall; Gust Gushing (secretary), Ruby Irvine; Beauty Bixter (treasurer), Rachel Hodgson; Presca Patience (chorus), Florence; Boto Spinsters (chorus), Pearl Wells; Polly Pokeynouse (pianist), Emmeline Michelson; Charity Longfellow, Grace Irvine; Genevieve (chorus), Fannie Stuckup; Samantha Spooner, Mabel Bolt; Aunt Caddy, Bertha Irvine; Peggy Pettigrew, Marge McKeever; Priscilla Proctor, Alice Irvine; Fannie Stuckup, Mame McKeever. The evening's entertainment closed with a series of attractive tableaux, in ten scenes, of "Mr. and Mrs. Jones's New Year's Eve Cook." This evening "Mrs. Jarvis' Waxworks" will be presented, and tomorrow evening "The Spinsters' Convention" will be repeated.
