

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

What Might Have Been Heard.
Almost any day during the winter, a knot of physicians might have been seen, standing in the Main Building, in the corner of the Capitol, discussing the merits and demerits of the various remedies for the cure of the common cold, influenza, and other ailments of the respiratory system. The discussion would have been a very interesting one, and the physicians would have been very much interested in the results of the discussion. The discussion would have been a very interesting one, and the physicians would have been very much interested in the results of the discussion.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
Fireman's Ball.—The last dance of the series, for the benefit of the Fireman's Library, will take place in the Fireman's Hall, to-morrow night, at 7 o'clock.

Another Lay-Out.—Excavations were made yesterday, and water pipes laid down, connecting the main on East Temple Street with a restaurant that is about to open just north of the Deseret Bakery.

Another Lecture.—To-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. J. H. Ward will lecture in the 10th Ward Meeting House, under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. Admission free.

"Equinox" Items.—Work on the American Fork narrow gauge is progressing vigorously.

It is reported that Brother Aiza Hinkley, of Fillmore, had two of his ribs broken, several days ago, through the caressing of a loaded wagon.

Now is the time to plant mulberry trees. Brother D. Graves says, in all probability, the market for silk worm eggs will soon be open, and favorable answers having been received from the Department at Washington.

Neglected, Not Lost.—Yesterday afternoon, a small boy, with a tear-stained face, was seated on the corner of one of the principal blocks of the Twelfth Ward, audibly bewailing his forlorn condition. He was old enough to give his name, and on being asked if he was lost said "No. I ain't lost. I can't find my mother." She was out washing, he said, and had not been home since morning.

It would be well for mothers, engaged, to see their children in good hands before leaving them for the day, as they are apt to wander away into dangerous places, and, if not accidentally injured, cause great anxiety by their disappearance.

Stayer's Lecture.—A goodly number attended Mr. Stayer's lecture last evening in the 12th Ward, and we believe were well pleased with the manner in which the enchantments and realities of life were portrayed. Mr. Stayer is an agreeable speaker, and his lecture well prepared, a judicious sprinkling of humor and anecdote, rendering the more sober portions, interesting and instructive. The characteristics of fact, integrity, industry and economy form the ground work of the lecture, the speaker's effort going to show the benefits to be derived from a rigid adherence to these sterling principles, and the inevitable injury resulting from their neglect and perversion. A vote of thanks was tendered at the close, in which we join in acknowledgment of our evening's enjoyment.

Third District Court.—Proceedings of the Third District Court on Wednesday, March 26th, 1879. M. Schaefer, Chief Justice, presiding. Homer Thompson vs. J. B. Meredith; dismissed at plaintiff's cost, without prejudice. T. Morris & Co. vs. John Shipley; judgment for plaintiff. James Burns vs. George Chandler et al.; referred to H. G. McMillan, Esq., to make computation and report the amount due with findings of fact. Samuel Robinson vs. Richard Flint; in accordance with stipulations, suit dismissed. James Burns vs. George Chandler et al.; judgment on report of referee and decree for plaintiff for foreclosure.

D. A. Hawkins et al. vs. J. V. Kerr et al.; continued. J. B. Dille et al. vs. Joseph Marion; continued. Marion Edwards vs. Samuel McIntyre et al.; appeal dismissed on plaintiff's motion and proceedings to issue; motion and proceedings to issue, dismissed.

Samuel Robinson vs. Richard Hunt; dismissed at plaintiff's cost. Dr. O. D. Cass vs. N. C. Boatman; submitted and taken under advisement. F. M. Lyman vs. E. F. Martin et al.; defendants given till Wednesday, April 2nd, to make returns. Adjourned till 9:30 o'clock this morning.

The Board of Trade.—The meeting of the recently organized Board of Trade was held last evening, when by-laws were read and adopted. In these the duties of the various officers were defined, some instructions and reports were presented, and the meeting adjourned to the 9th day of April.

A meeting of the Board of Directors was immediately held and committees were appointed as follows: On Finance—L. S. Hills, H. W. Lawrence and J. T. Lynch. Mines and Mining of the Precious Metals—Prof. L. E. Holden, chairman.

Metalurgy, Milling and Smelting—Mr. R. C. Chambers. Publication—Col. O. J. Hollister. Agricultural and Stock Raising—Wm. Jennings. Trade and Commerce—Mr. J. R. Walker.

Manufacturing—Mr. Henry Dinwoodey. Transportation—Mr. James Sharp. Sanitary Influences—Dr. J. F. Hamilton. Attractions and Pleasure Resorts—Mr. J. T. Lynch. Educational Facilities—Professor Riggs.

Coal, Building Materials, Iron and other Minerals—Mr. Alex. Majors. The directors meeting then adjourned until March 31st.

Missapprehension.—An amusing scene occurred at the police court the other day. A drunken fellow was arraigned on the charge of assaulting and threatening a peace officer. True nature wanting to withdraw the charge out of regard for the man's family, intimidated his desire to do so, and also to pay the costs of withdrawal, $5. The Justice stated this to the prisoner, who, still under the influence of liquor, did not comprehend what was said, when the latter, anticipating a sentence for his offense, and thinking it had come, jumped to his feet and yelled in tones of thunder, "I appeal." The complainant, after the laughter had subsided, further remarked, "He has abused me repeatedly, but now all I ask of him is to let me alone." The prisoner, rising to the full sublimity of eloquence and power, then said, "I know I have spoke rough to him at the shops—I know that. But if he says I have on the street, or done anything I am ashamed of—which I did not do," and sat down with all the satisfaction of a Patrick Henry, imagining he had fully vindicated his good name and finished one of the finest sentences on record.

A Welcome Shower.—As an agreeable supplement to the uncomfortable warmth and dust of his robe, the wind on last night to a higher pitch, the bank of clouds hanging over the west came up and poured out a generous shower of rain and hail upon the bosom of the thirsty earth, to the great delight of the farmer, and the infinite disgust of the confiding housewife, who, placing a firm reliance on the "dry moon," left her washing out over night.

Spring Openings.—There are holes worn in the dippers of some of our water fountains, and the thirsty pedestrian who stops to cool his burning lips on a warm day, and does not see the aperture in the vessel which, as he carries the cup to his mouth, carries the water into his shirt bosom, departs with the idea that an agent for the prevention of cruelty to animals has been around punching holes in the dipper, in order that over-drinking may not prosper.

Entertainment.—This evening a pleasing performance will be given in the Seventh Ward School-house, the proceeds of which are to be used for the benefit of the Sunday School. Parts first and second consist of songs, recitations, and instrumental music, and the roaring fairs which conclude the entertainment will send everybody home in a good humor. Admission 25 cents.

Tea and Persimmon Trees, etc.—A communication from Brother Daniel Graves, Provo, states that he has received from the Department at Washington and set out 200 China tea trees and four Japan Persimmon trees. Later he received two quarts of the Minnesota amber sugar cane seed, with the Agricultural Report for 1877 and other pamphlets.

Found.—A gold earring button. The owner can have it by identifying the same at this Office.

Emigrants for Colorado.—A company of emigrants from the southern States passed through Topoka, Kansas, yesterday, under charge of Elder John Morgan, on their way to strengthen the settlement of Conejos, Colorado. Elder Morgan, after seeing the company safe to its destination, will return home to this city via Denver.

Fruit Tree Borer.—A writer in the Englewood gives the following simple remedy for the destructive fruit tree borer: "The borer worm works only in the stump of the tree, just under the ground; hence all trees should be set as to get well flooded every time irrigation is performed." The inference is that water is death to the insect.

Y. M. M. I. A.—These associations who have not yet sent in their half yearly reports as requested, will please do so, without delay, otherwise they will not be represented at the Y. M. M. I. A. State conference, to be held in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, April 5th, 1879, at 7:30 p. m., to which all the officers and members are requested to attend.

Land Surveys.—The township plat with descriptive lists of additional survey, by Joseph Gorlinski, U. S. Department Surveyor, in fractional township No. 7 south, range 2 east and township No. 8 south, ranges 1 and 2 east; containing all the land formerly embraced in the Spanish Fork Indian Reservation, were to-day filed in the local Land Office in this city.

Regatta Prizes.—In Ellason's window may be seen two beautifully chased, gold lined, silver cups, which are to be contested for at the yacht regatta during the coming season. The boat making the best showing in five trials will be entitled to the larger cup, the next best to the smaller one. They are both very handsome, the larger one having a cover, surmounted by a couple of paddles crossing an upright boat hook while the bowl is supported by two crossed oars bound with a chain, with an anchor hanging in front. On the face of the bowl is a yacht under full sail, and on the opposite side the words, "Salt Lake Yacht Club, 1879. Won by—." The smaller cup is plainer, the two sides being ornamented with a boat containing a fisherman. The contest will be participated in by about half a dozen boats and crews.
