

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Returned.—President Taylor and Cannon and party, who have been attending conference at Logan, returned to the city today.

From Mexico.—On Saturday last Elder August Wilken returned from his mission to Mexico well and hearty. He has gone to Logan to report to Brother Thatcher. We understand the prospects of the mission are brightening.

Broke Its Neck.—Last evening a horse with buggy attached, belonging to a gentleman named Riches, ran away. Near the residence of Dr. Anderson, in the Thirtieth Ward, the horse collided with a telephone pole. The poor brute broke its neck. The shock of the collision also broke the pole near the top.

Deacons' Quorum Organized.—Last night the first Deacons' Quorum of the Tenth Ward was organized by the Ward authorities. H. Earl was selected for President, with John Kirkman, Jr., and Thomas James as his counselors. There are two other Deacons' Quorums—second and third—in the Ward.

R. R.—The Chicago Herald says: Mr. Roland Reed's "Cheek," which was produced last Monday evening at Hootley's Theatre, has made a hit. There is a good deal of humor in the play, and an interesting story. Altogether, we think Mr. Reed has been very fortunate in securing such a piece.

Sentenced.—Sam Newton and Tom Lawson were tried by Justice Speers, this morning, on a charge of stealing nails from the premises of Mr. Elias Morris. The evidence was such as to nail their guilt upon them, and they were each fined $25 and sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment. Being imprudent, their incarceration will reach nearly 60 days.

The Journalistic Spirit.—In these times of rapid development, when new towns are created in a brief period by the construction of new railroads, a newspaper is one of the first features of every locality. The spirit of journalism now permeates every part of the United States, even to the most recently settled parts of the country. The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad has caused several new papers to leap into life. We have received one of these from Grand Junction, in the shape of a copy sheet called the Grand Junction News, which has reached its 25th issue.

A Daylight Robbery.—Yesterday a couple of men, moderately well dressed, called at the lumber yard of Brother James W. Eardley, on the State Road, stating that they wanted to make a purchase. The owner of the premises took one of them around the yard to examine several lots of lumber, which he appeared to scrutinize with more than ordinary care. He finally departed without making any purchase, and when Mr. Eardley entered his office he found that the other man had been there, forced the desk open and carried off all its cash contents, amounting to over a hundred dollars. The offer to purchase lumber was merely a ruse to get Mr. Eardley away from the office while the robbery was perpetrated.

Severe Accident.—On Sunday night as Mr. James McLaren was driving in his buggy in the neighborhood of his residence, in the Eleventh Ward, while crossing a ditch the king-bolt of the vehicle broke. The horse became frightened and he tried to hold on to the lines. The front part of the vehicle became separated from the rear portion, placing the driver at a decided disadvantage. While struggling to hold the animal back it kicked him on the shoulder and a wheel passed over his body.

Registration.—The registrars appointed by the Commission to attend to the registration in the several counties next June, for the autumn election, are as follows:

Beaver County, James McGarry; Big Horn County, William N. Ellis; Cache County, C. C. Goodwin; Davis County, Hector V. Haight; Emery County, Lafayette G. Agger; Garfield County, David Cameron; Iron County, E. M. Anderson; Juab County, W. A. C. Gray; Kane County, John Stewart; Morgan County, A. Peterson; Millard County, A. L. Robinson; Piute County, William Rex; Salt Lake County, Thomas C. Bailey; San Juan County, Charles E. Walton; Sanpete County, A. J. F. Beaumont; Sevier County, J. E. Johnson; Summit County, James E. Brown; Tooele County, David B. Stover; Utah County, A. G. Sutherland; Wasatch County, John Ducey; Uintah County, Isaac Barton; Washington County, James N. Louder; Weber County, L. B. Stephens.

The Roller Process.—It appears by a telegram in the News today that the rolling process of making flour by crushing wheat between rollers is not patented, being now open to all. A decision of the Supreme Court of the United States settles that question. The Court declares the patent on the process void on account of the want of novelty, the invention having been described in a pamphlet as early as 1847. We understand it is the old Hungarian style of milling, improved. The new Armstrong mill, at the mouth of City Creek will be operated on the roller principle. There has been some talk of other capitalists erecting another similar mill here, but if the intention is still entertained it has not, so far as we can learn, taken definite shape.

THE AWARDS.

THE POETICAL AND MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS WHICH WERE AWARDED BY THE UNION.

The following correspondence requires no explanation:

SALT LAKE CITY, May 7th, 1883.
 To Superintendent Geo. Q. Cannon and Officers of Sunday School Union:
 BROTHERS—Your committee respectfully present to you the result of their labors, after a careful and impartial criticism of the musical compositions committed to their trust for that purpose. We were unanimous in our decision, and have made the award according to our best judgment, and trust the decision will be in keeping with the confidence reposed in us (as judges) by your honorable body; and remain, your brethren in the gospel,
 C. J. THOMAS,
 GEO. CARLSON,
 E. BERRYLEY.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 6th, 1883.

To President George Q. Cannon and the General Superintendent of the Deseret Sunday School Union:
 Dear Brethren—Your committee have much pleasure in presenting the accompanying list of awards made in conformity with the published offer of the Union to give $200 in various specified sums for the best anthems, hymns, songs, etc., forwarded to the Union under the conditions therein prescribed.

Your committee would state that a number of meritorious pieces have not been considered or passed upon for the reason that they had been previously published, and according to the rules were thus barred from competition. Several hymns and poems were forwarded without music; but as Rule 5 states, "no separate pieces will be adjudged upon," they were not examined by the committee, but we trust composers will be found who will be willing to set the most worthy of these pieces to music.

In some cases your committee have found it impossible, consistent with justice, either to the author of the words or the composer of the music, to award the entire prize to one production. In such cases they have divided the award, giving half to the composer of the piece of music awarded the prize by the musical committee, and half to the author of the hymn or song, as the case might be, which the committee considered most meritorious. In some cases your committee recommended that the prize be divided among a number of very excellent productions found in one class.

Your committee have followed the awards of the Musical Committee in the classes devoted to the anthems, duets and quartets; first having satisfied themselves that there was nothing objectionable in the words which accompanied the music.

The members of your committee have used all diligence, and have endeavored to do the best of their ability to act with impartiality to all. In all cases the award was given without the committee being informed who was the author or composer, but with the names of pieces before it, and in the great majority of instances the decisions were unanimous.

Respectfully submitted,
 C. J. THOMAS, GEORGE CARLSON, E. BERRYLEY.

Bad Runaway.—Last night Dr. Newton and Mr. J. Taylor, the latter, had a runaway on the State road, both, we understand, having been thrown out of the buggy. The doctor held on to the lines and was dragged a considerable distance. His shin bone was fractured, one side of his face considerably out and a piece of his ear detached by the horse stepping upon it. Mr. Taylor escaped with a few bruises.

Fire Alarm.—The fire alarm was sounded again today. A small out-house and a quantity of brush took fire on the premises of Mrs. E. Taylor, in the Eleventh Ward. The firemen turned out promptly, but their services were not required, as the flames were extinguished before they reached the spot. The cause was the careless throwing out of hot ashes.
