DR. HUNTINGTON CONVINCED

President of American Geographical Society Has No Doubt but That Cook Discovered North Pole.

New York, Sept. 24 .- Dr. Frederick A. Cook contemplates bringing a sull against Commander Peary to recover damages for slander and defamation, according to statements tonight by friends of the former

Dr. Cook himself had nothing to say regarding the proposed suit, but his secretary, Walter Lonsdale, admitted that the idea was seriously entertained both by Dr. Cook and by John R. Bradley, Cook's backer. He said that affidavits had already been prepared in case it was definitely decided to bring this sult.

"But certainly nothing will be done at present in the imatter," said Nor Lonsdale: "and as a matter of fact it ts' doubtful if anything will ever be done unless it is retaliation.'

CONVINCES DR. HUNTINGTON.

New York, Sept. 34 .- For the first time since his arrival here. Frederick A. Cook took into his confidence today one of the leading American geographfeal authorities, Archer M. Huntington president of the American Geopraphical modely, with whom he had an hour's private conference.

Whather Dr. Cook submitted some of his data to Dr. Huntington, could not be ascertained, for upon leaving Dr. Huntington refused to comment on the meeting. Dr. Cook's friends, how-ever, manounced that Dr. Huntington had expressed perfect confidence, that Conk had discovered the twole

Most of Dr. Cook's time was devoted to preparing the literary steps which lead to the lecture platform, which he will moust next Monday at the Car-negic institute. So carofully is he as-sembling the material for his first pub-lic apprearance that he declined many lic appearance that he declined many invitations for the Hudson-Fulton cele-brations during the next week.

INSURANCE AGAINST BEING OUT OF WORK

Washington. Sept. 75.-Insurance against unemployment is, according to Consul General John T. Griffiths of London, attracting a great deal of at-tention in England. The passage of some law governing such insurance is being discussed from every point of view continu racing. vior

Whether or not the effort to make this insurance compulsory by parstill a matter of doubt, but a streau-ous effort, Mr. Griffiths says, will be made to obtain the passage of such a law. The president of the British board of trade has recently outlined the proposed legislation. He desires to have it compulsory, contributory and specialized as to different groups of

GENERAL ELECTION IN ENGLAND IN DECEMBER

London, Sept. 24 .- Agents of both political parties are convinced, it was said today, that a general election will take place either in December or Janu-ary, the date depending on whether the house of lords shall reject the budget outright or take a more temporizing course. The house of commons will conclude its consideration of the budget about Oct. 22. Should the house of lords reject the
