HOUSE.

Albert Before the House—Resolutions by Cox, &c.

Fields introduced a bill to increase import duties ten per cent. after March 25, '75, and an additional ten per cent. quarterly till the price of American gold shall not exceed the par of legal tender notes.

Dawes presented the case of Charles Albert, a recurrent witness in the Pacific Mail investigation, who, being brought to the bar of the house and asked by the Speaker to answer the committee's questions, to whom he paid the money, answered that he would if the house ordered him. He was then taken before the ways and means committee.

Cox offered a preamble setting forth the interference of the U. S. military forces in the organization of the Louisiana legislature, resulting in dispersing said legislature, and that such action had received the sanction and ratification of the Louisiana legislature, and that the principles upon which our system of government is founded and without a precedent in the history of this or any other free government, that they were defiant and insolent breaches of parliamentary privileges, illegal and revolutionary infractions of law, and that the committee on the subject of the Louisiana case, and not only unjustifiable outrages upon the State of Louisiana, but a menace to the rights, liberties, and dignity of every free state; that therefore, the representatives of the people of the United States demand the restoration of the Louisiana legislature, and the restoration of the Louisiana case, and not only unjustifiable outrages upon the State of Louisiana, but a menace to the rights, liberties, and dignity of every free state;
