RESOLUTIONS.

We, the Democrats of Provo City, in convention assembled, reaffirm our allegiance and fidelity to the cardinal principles of Democracy as enunciated by Thomas Jefferson, and promulgated and applied by Andrew Jackson, and the illustrious line of men, who, as Democrats, have succeeded to the leadership of the great party of the com-mon people in our country. We most heartly endorse the dignified and progressive four years admin-istration of our Democratic mayor, Hon. Thomas N. Taylor, in every de-tail. Every position he has taken has been in the interests of all the people. been in the interests of all the people, and he has at all times been alive to his every duty, and safeguarded the rights of the whole people, and has always had before him and has acted upon the Democratic motto of "equal rights to all, special privileges to none." While checkmating Republican city extravagances, he has at all times urged and insisted upon every public improvement consistent with the resource of our city, and in all his positions upon taxation has been consistent, progressive and considerate of the circumstances of the humble taxpayer. We regret his fixed determination to circumstances of the humble taxpayer. We regret his fixed determination to surrender his trust, and take this opportunity of expressing to him our high esteem and fullest confidence, and wish for him the same success in private life that he has attained as the servant of the people and honored mayor of Provo City.

The streets of the city belong to the public, and when the same are to be used by individuals or corporations for private benefits, the city is entitled to remuneration for the same. The peo-ple have been taxed for years to build the streets, and it is unjust to them to give away the same for the private benefit of any corporation or individual. Every city that has given away franchises has lived to regret the same the franchises of our city are properly guarded they will become a great source of revenue, thus lightening the source of revenue, thus lightening the burden of taxation that we are groaning under. When we are elected to serve the people we hold that they had e no right to give away that which they have been made stewards over. The wise steward will not only return to the master that which was entrusted to him, but will increase the same as many fold as lies within his power to

We are confident of the destined greatness of our city and are in favor all public improvements which will advance the value of property and conduce to the comfort and convenience of our citizens. We realize that the inhabitants of a progressive city must e taxed, and are therefore entitled to demand value received for such taxa-tion. Public improvement should be commensurate with the rate of taxa tion and we charge the present Repub-lican city council with having pitifully failed in living up to this civic maxim. They have needlessly, extravagantly and even foolishly wasted and dissipatand even foolishly wasted and dissipated the city's funds, with the expenditure of which they have been entrusted by the people. We pledge our candidates to not only a progressive, but further to a strictly business and economical administration of city affairs, and promise our citizens under a Democratic council full components. and promise our citizens under a Democratic council full compensation in public improvements and benefits for every doilar of taxation. We are fully satisfied that the public improvements demanded by the advancement and growth of Provo City can be successfully made, and at the same time the empressive and exceptional rate of tax-

Realizing that an ample sup-ply of water is a paramount necessity for the growth and perpetual develop-ment of any city, we pledge the Demo-cratic party to the ever watchful care and protection of the city's water rights, to the end that no such difficul-ties shall ever come upon Provo as ties shall ever come upon Provo as Salt Lake City, and other cities of our state are now confronted with. We believe in a fair and fearless ad-
