KILLED BY DRINK.

Former Salt Lake Woman Comes to Sad Ending in Denver.

Word comes from ' Denver of the death there of Mrs. Nettie Todd, once a resident of Utah. She was the wife a resident of Utan. She was the will of Thomas S. Todd, who served a term in the Itah penitentiary for the killing of Patrick Desmond, a Denver officer, who was visiting in Ogden, where he was shot by Todd. After the latter was librated from prison, he went from bad to worse. The wife became dis-couraged by the misdoings of her hus-band, and she took to drink, with the avowed determination of drowning her avowed determination of drowning he troubles and eventually ending own life. Whether she succeeded her the former is not known, but the lat-ter result came a few days ago when she died. The unfortunate woman was buried in a pauper's grave at the Colorado metropolis.
