

SOCIETY

SOCIALS

BRIDGE

Mrs. Charles Cain Crismon was hostess at a delightful bridge tea on Thursday, given for Mrs. Edward Butcher and Mrs. W. A. McDaniels of Port Douglas, the former once a schoolmate of the hostess. The rooms were decorated in red, white and blue, flags, carnations and violets being used, and the three colors suggested in the decorations. Assisting were Mrs. Pauline Sands, Mrs. Jack Rich and Mrs. Isadore Mayer.

Rev. C. C. McIntyre performed the ceremony. Miss Christina Keanan and Mr. Riley M. Harmon on Thursday, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keenan.

Mrs. James Dinwoodey and Mrs. E. F. Hanna entertained at 500 on Thursday night, the rooms being prettily decorated in shamrock and white carnations and about 50 being present.

Mrs. Hanna and Mrs. Dinwoodey entertained at an afternoon card party yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Richards is hostess at a bridge party this afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur D. Lynn entertained her sewing club yesterday.

On Tuesday night Miss Carrie Stewart entertained about 25 friends at an informal musicale, the event being most enjoyable.

Mrs. Union Worthington entertained the bridge tournament this week.

Tonight Misses Eliza and Dorothy Bamberger gave a dancing party to a number of their friends.

Miss Edna Bailey entertained the W. Van musical society at her home on Thursday night, when a delightful program was enjoyed.

Thursday was the birthday anniversary of Mr. Augustus Reeves, and upon going home at the usual dinner hour on that evening he was surprised to find about 20 of his friends assembled through the kindness of Mrs. Reeves, to celebrate the occasion. The table was bright with daffodils and afterward a delightful evening was spent with music and cards.

Miss Irene Morrison entertained delightfully at a bridge tea yesterday, the rooms being bright with spring flowers and a number of friends assisting.

Mrs. W. D. Donohoe entertained the Cup and Sancer club yesterday.

The Plate card club met with Mrs. A. C. Smith on Friday.

Tonight the Gammas' society of the university will give a character ball in the museum hall, the guests to be members of the other societies and fraternities.

Misses Eliza McMillan and Marie Oberdorfer entertained about 50 of their young friends at a dancing party last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bamberger.

W. P. Cooper entertained at a second stag party on Thursday night, the decorations being in green and white, and a buffet supper served. About 25 were present.

On Monday night Miss Irene Poulton celebrated her eighteenth birthday anniversary in a pleasant party at her home, the rooms being decorated in roses and carnations, and the guests, with music and dancing, and refreshments were served and about 20 friends enjoyed the evening.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the musicale given on Wednesday by Mrs. W. H. Child in honor of her sister, Miss Bartch, about 75 guests being present during the evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in tulips and ferns, the hall and parlor in pink and white, and the dining room in red, the table having a cut glass bowl filled with the flowers and surrounded with ferns and vases of their being on sideboard and mantels. Miss Bartch and Mr. Brines were the soloists and Miss Edna Evans accompanied. The program was most delightful and the monogram of the hostess, done in gold. Assisting Mrs. Child were Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. Blain Leche, Mrs. Oliver Bartch, Beth Critchlow, Edith Stewart, Mary Copley, Grace Bettles and Mamie Sappington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth will entertain at a five hundred party at their home Tuesday evening.

Miss Mamie Sappington entertained her sewing club on Tuesday afternoon.

The Pan-Hellenic society was entertained by Mrs. Howard Lawson on Thursday.

On Monday Miss Edith Shearman was hostess at a delightful bridge tea given in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Gue and Mrs. Katz, ten tables being played. The rooms were decorated in yellow and green, daffodils being used with ferns, and the lights being shaded in yellow. Assisting were Mrs. James Wells, Miss Bancroft and Misses Hanauer. Prizes were given by Mrs. W. C. Jennings, Mrs. Sol Siegel, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. C. W. Field and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Allen Sanford, Mrs. H. J. Schultz, Mrs. J. E. Hanchett and Mrs. Barbee.

Mrs. Fred Hornung entertained the Century club this week, and prizes were won by Mrs. J. A. Earls and Mrs. A. J. Davis.

Miss Beth Critchlow entertained informally at bridge on Monday afternoon.

Mr. W. E. Cooper entertained at a stag party on Tuesday night at his home, the decorations being in white carnations and shamrock, and musical numbers being given by Will Sibley and H. H. Leipziger.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hoemer will entertain their card club next Saturday night.

Three well known local artists, Miss Olive Gray, Miss Frances Savage and Mr. M. J. Brines, are planning for an evening of music and readings to be given by the trio in the near future, to include a program of rare selections.

Mrs. James Dinwoodey and Mrs. E. F. Hanna entertained at 500 on Thursday night, the rooms being prettily decorated in shamrock and white carnations and about 50 being present.

Mrs. Hanna and Mrs. Dinwoodey entertained at an afternoon card party yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Richards is hostess at a bridge party this afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur D. Lynn entertained her sewing club yesterday.

On Tuesday night Miss Carrie Stewart entertained about 25 friends at an informal musicale, the event being most enjoyable.

Mrs. Union Worthington entertained the bridge tournament this week.

Tonight Misses Eliza and Dorothy Bamberger gave a dancing party to a number of their friends.

Miss Edna Bailey entertained the W. Van musical society at her home on Thursday night, when a delightful program was enjoyed.

Thursday was the birthday anniversary of Mr. Augustus Reeves, and upon going home at the usual dinner hour on that evening he was surprised to find about 20 of his friends assembled through the kindness of Mrs. Reeves, to celebrate the occasion. The table was bright with daffodils and afterward a delightful evening was spent with music and cards.

Miss Irene Morrison entertained delightfully at a bridge tea yesterday, the rooms being bright with spring flowers and a number of friends assisting.

Mrs. W. D. Donohoe entertained the Cup and Sancer club yesterday.

The Plate card club met with Mrs. A. C. Smith on Friday.

Tonight the Gammas' society of the university will give a character ball in the museum hall, the guests to be members of the other societies and fraternities.

Misses Eliza McMillan and Marie Oberdorfer entertained about 50 of their young friends at a dancing party last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bamberger.

W. P. Cooper entertained at a second stag party on Thursday night, the decorations being in green and white, and a buffet supper served. About 25 were present.

On Monday night Miss Irene Poulton celebrated her eighteenth birthday anniversary in a pleasant party at her home, the rooms being decorated in roses and carnations, and the guests, with music and dancing, and refreshments were served and about 20 friends enjoyed the evening.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the musicale given on Wednesday by Mrs. W. H. Child in honor of her sister, Miss Bartch, about 75 guests being present during the evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in tulips and ferns, the hall and parlor in pink and white, and the dining room in red, the table having a cut glass bowl filled with the flowers and surrounded with ferns and vases of their being on sideboard and mantels. Miss Bartch and Mr. Brines were the soloists and Miss Edna Evans accompanied. The program was most delightful and the monogram of the hostess, done in gold. Assisting Mrs. Child were Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. Blain Leche, Mrs. Oliver Bartch, Beth Critchlow, Edith Stewart, Mary Copley, Grace Bettles and Mamie Sappington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth will entertain at a five hundred party at their home Tuesday evening.

Miss Mamie Sappington entertained her sewing club on Tuesday afternoon.

The Pan-Hellenic society was entertained by Mrs. Howard Lawson on Thursday.

On Monday Miss Edith Shearman was hostess at a delightful bridge tea given in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Gue and Mrs. Katz, ten tables being played. The rooms were decorated in yellow and green, daffodils being used with ferns, and the lights being shaded in yellow. Assisting were Mrs. James Wells, Miss Bancroft and Misses Hanauer. Prizes were given by Mrs. W. C. Jennings, Mrs. Sol Siegel, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. C. W. Field and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mrs. W. T. Trimmer was another of the hostesses, her function being a bridge tea at which about 35 were entertained. The decorations were in green and white, the dining room being especially pretty with a basket of white carnations tied with ribbon for a centerpiece, green streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners, and the room being shaded in yellow. Mrs. Benson was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. W. Trimmer and Mrs. Donald Raxson. Mrs. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Miss Maud Thorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Savage returned the last of the week from an extended stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Reed are home after a two months' sojourn at Hotel del Coronado, Cal.

Miss Georgia Hartley returned Sunday after a month spent in Los Angeles.

Miss Florence Loughbridge left this week for her home in Denver after a delightful visit in the city at the Luman home on east Second South street.

P. L. Williams and his daughter, Miss Katherine Williams, are spending a short time at Coronado Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawther of Belfast, Ireland, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, have left for Los Angeles.

Miss Lella Fowler has returned from a month's trip to California.

Mrs. John Stuart Manley has returned to Indianapolis to visit with her family for a time.

Mrs. Richard Oglesby, who has been visiting her mother in Terre Haute, Ind., since the holidays, is home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wise and Mrs. Engler, who have been in Kansas City for several weeks, returned this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Snyder returned Tuesday from an extended trip in the east. They visited in New York, east, they visited in New York, east, they visited in New York, east.

Miss Mabel Burch and Oliver White, two well known young people of Ogden, were married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frisby entertained at their home Monday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Prilla, to Mr. Orson Shill, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday. The bride was attired in a white null gown with lace trimmings. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and ferns, and about 50 guests sat down to an elaborate supper. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Shill will reside for the present in this city where they have a host of friends who wish them joy and prosperity through the journey of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have returned to their home in Heaver after a pleasant visit in this city, the guests of Miss Edna Beck.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, formerly of this city but now residing in Salt Lake, is spending a couple of weeks here the guest of Mrs. Sam Schwab.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance entertained the Jolly Surprise Bunch at their home Thursday evening. Cards and music were the features and a good time enjoyed by all. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. Sam Jepperson entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Thursday afternoon. Social chat, sweet singing and a dainty lunch were the features.

Miss Sarah Giles was the recipient of a delightful surprise given in her honor Thursday evening at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giles in the form of a "bottle shower." A large number of friends and relatives were present and enjoyed an evening of games and music. Many beautiful presents were received by the guests.

Mrs. G. M. Bahrman and daughter of Cache county are visiting in Ogden with relatives and friends.

Sarah M. Carter and Henry T. Hawkins popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

A delightful dancing party was given Thursday evening at the Congress dancing academy.

About 200 guests were entertained Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple hall by the Temple craft committee. An excellent program of speeches, vocal and instrumental music was rendered. After which dainty refreshments were served. Judge Gideon was master of ceremonies.

The Daughters of Rebecca gave an enjoyable card party at the L. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening.

Wednesday evening a large number of the young friends of Lyles W. Larkin gave a jolly surprise party at the home of his grandfather, George W. Larkin on Twenty-seventh street, the occasion being his fourteenth birthday. The guests were enjoyably spent at music and games. A dainty repast was served in the dining room.

Mrs. A. A. Burt entertained the Ladies' Mission and Social circle of the Baptist church.

Mrs. M. E. Stewart of Salt Lake City, is spending a few days in Ogden with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. H. Henderson has returned home from a pleasant eastern trip.

Miss Mabel Burch and Oliver White, two well known young people of Ogden, were married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frisby entertained at their home Monday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Prilla, to Mr. Orson Shill, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday. The bride was attired in a white null gown with lace trimmings. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and ferns, and about 50 guests sat down to an elaborate supper. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Shill will reside for the present in this city where they have a host of friends who wish them joy and prosperity through the journey of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have returned to their home in Heaver after a pleasant visit in this city, the guests of Miss Edna Beck.

Cut glass, furniture, pianos, oil paintings, rugs, curtains.

It is for cleaning just such articles as these that Ivory Soap is admirably adapted.

It is so mild, so pure, so entirely free from "free" alkali that it can be used for hundreds of purposes for which ordinary soaps are unsafe and unsatisfactory.

Ivory Soap
99 1/2 Per Cent. Pure.

music and games. A dainty repast was served in the dining room.

Mrs. A. A. Burt entertained the Ladies' Mission and Social circle of the Baptist church.

Mrs. M. E. Stewart of Salt Lake City, is spending a few days in Ogden with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. H. Henderson has returned home from a pleasant eastern trip.

Miss Mabel Burch and Oliver White, two well known young people of Ogden, were married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frisby entertained at their home Monday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Prilla, to Mr. Orson Shill, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday. The bride was attired in a white null gown with lace trimmings. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and ferns, and about 50 guests sat down to an elaborate supper. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Shill will reside for the present in this city where they have a host of friends who wish them joy and prosperity through the journey of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have returned to their home in Heaver after a pleasant visit in this city, the guests of Miss Edna Beck.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, formerly of this city but now residing in Salt Lake, is spending a couple of weeks here the guest of Mrs. Sam Schwab.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance entertained the Jolly Surprise Bunch at their home Thursday evening. Cards and music were the features and a good time enjoyed by all. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. Sam Jepperson entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Thursday afternoon. Social chat, sweet singing and a dainty lunch were the features.

Miss Sarah Giles was the recipient of a delightful surprise given in her honor Thursday evening at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giles in the form of a "bottle shower." A large number of friends and relatives were present and enjoyed an evening of games and music. Many beautiful presents were received by the guests.

Mrs. G. M. Bahrman and daughter of Cache county are visiting in Ogden with relatives and friends.

Sarah M. Carter and Henry T. Hawkins popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

A delightful dancing party was given Thursday evening at the Congress dancing academy.

About 200 guests were entertained Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple hall by the Temple craft committee. An excellent program of speeches, vocal and instrumental music was rendered. After which dainty refreshments were served. Judge Gideon was master of ceremonies.

The Daughters of Rebecca gave an enjoyable card party at the L. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening.

Wednesday evening a large number of the young friends of Lyles W. Larkin gave a jolly surprise party at the home of his grandfather, George W. Larkin on Twenty-seventh street, the occasion being his fourteenth birthday. The guests were enjoyably spent at music and games. A dainty repast was served in the dining room.

Mrs. A. A. Burt entertained the Ladies' Mission and Social circle of the Baptist church.

Mrs. M. E. Stewart of Salt Lake City, is spending a few days in Ogden with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. H. Henderson has returned home from a pleasant eastern trip.

Miss Mabel Burch and Oliver White, two well known young people of Ogden, were married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frisby entertained at their home Monday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Prilla, to Mr. Orson Shill, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday. The bride was attired in a white null gown with lace trimmings. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and ferns, and about 50 guests sat down to an elaborate supper. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Shill will reside for the present in this city where they have a host of friends who wish them joy and prosperity through the journey of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have returned to their home in Heaver after a pleasant visit in this city, the guests of Miss Edna Beck.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, formerly of this city but now residing in Salt Lake, is spending a couple of weeks here the guest of Mrs. Sam Schwab.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance entertained the Jolly Surprise Bunch at their home Thursday evening. Cards and music were the features and a good time enjoyed by all. An elaborate lunch was served.

of honor, and delicious refreshments were served.

The I. O. O. F. members formed a very enjoyable skating party and enjoyed a few hours at the Eldred auditorium Tuesday evening. After which an elaborate lunch was served in their lodge rooms.

The officers of the Sixth ward Primary delightedly entertained the members of their association at a character ball at the ward house Wednesday afternoon. About 40 little folks ranging from 3 to 13 years of age, made the afternoon pass merrily in dancing and various amusements. Many excellent costumes were worn by the little ones and it was an event that will long be remembered by all who participated.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evans have returned home from a pleasant trip through California.

Mrs. Fawn Winters of Ogden is in this city visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelves.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gray entertained the members of the Sixth ward old folks' committee at their home Wednesday evening. About 50 guests enjoyed the hospitality of their genial host and hostess.

A very pretty home wedding took place Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCullough, when their daughter, Mary, was given in marriage to Mr. J. E. Pohlman of Salt Lake. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock by Justice A. A. Noon, and witnessed by the relatives and a few invited friends. The bride was attired in an elegant gown of cream voile over white tulle, and carried a shower bouquet. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Pohlman left on the evening train for Chicago where they will visit the groom's parents and friends. They were accompanied to the station by a number of their young friends, who showered them with rice and old shoes. Mrs. Pohlman is one of Provo's popular young ladies and a large circle of friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

The Merry Dozen entertained at a skating party Wednesday evening at the Eldred rink. About 80 young people enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. O. W. Bailey and Mrs. B. J. Vincent were the guests of Mrs. J. W. McAdam at dinner Thursday.

The Psychic society met Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. James Clove. Dr. J. N. Christensen gave a demonstration of hypnotism, and Prof.