

DARK LANTERN SESSION.

The Charges Against President Louie hour Being Secretly Ventilated.

Quietly and secretly the special committee appointed by the City Council a little more than a week ago to investigate the charges made against President Louie, gathered in the council chamber at the city hall last night and went into executive session. The committee, however, did not take his seat at his desk but found the door locked and watched by a stalwart policeman. An effort was made to obtain to detail an account of the inquisition resulting in a failure, and the committee, after a short time, adjourned until the particular will not be made public until the findings of the investigation are reported to the Council. It was learned, however, that City Auditor Bayard, City Treasurer, George C. Chapman, Ewing and George T. Pentland were placed on the witness stand and closely questioned.

The committee failed to complete its labors and adjourned until midnight, when the hearing will be resumed.

Brownell Held.

E. H. Brownell, the would-be suicide, opium and morphine contractor, was held by Justice Goe to $40 bonds to await the action of the grand jury for forcing the name of Business Manager George Blair of the Advertiser. Brownell was unable to retain bondsmen and was sent to the county jail.

THE UNION MEETING.

The Theater Cannot be Secured Before the 19th Inst.

Heber M. Wells, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee appointed to confer with the Bisbee's Men's committee in relation to holding a Union meeting of the two organizations in the Theater at an early date last evening sent the following to President Dousenberry of the Chamber of Commerce:

"I beg to inform you that the committee appointed by the Business Men's association and the Chamber of Commerce to arrange for a meeting to be held under the joint auspices of the two organizations at Salt Lake Theater, met last evening and dismissed the matter."

"While it was the sense of the meeting that the joint affair would be beneficial, the chamber of commerce portion of the committee came to the conclusion that the joint meeting of officers of the chamber and committee would occur on Thursday evening of this week, that it was scarcely consistent for them to be engaged in arranging an event which would post itself at least three days before the theater became available before the 19th inst. The committee, therefore, adjourned without action, but with the understanding that the matter be brought to the attention of the new business men's committee not later than Friday the 20th inst. Your committee therefore recommend that the subject of the appointment of a committee to enter with the business men's committee be brought to the attention of the new board as soon as possible."

It Has Been Served.

An attachment has been issued and served from the Third District court in the case of the Driver Mercantile company vs. Thomas McCoy, the livery stable keeper, for the sum of $460.00, on account of goods sold and delivered between October 21st and December 19th, 1862.

A confession of judgment was entered just before noon in the suit of the First Merchants' company (Dr. E. Rich) vs. Tom. McCoy, for the sum of $165.21 and costs.

A CALIFORNIAN ROMANCE.

How a Young Lady Graduated from the Cook's Kitchen to a Higher Plane.

Miss Cora Coombs, who during the days of her girlish rambles through the forests of Calaveras county as free as any one could wish to be, but who since reaching maturity has devoted several years of her life to the less poetic occupation of preparing free lunch and washing dishes in Charles Engle's saloon, at San Francisco, has been doing more in law of late than the ordinary woman is wont to.

Miss Coombs first met Engle in Stockton several years ago, according to the Chronicle's statement, and after some sort of a mock marriage ceremony had been gone through with, came to this city and lived with him, supposing that she was his wife.

Three months ago the appearance of another wife with a larger and stronger claim to the stockholder's affections completely upset Miss Coombs in her calculations, and while she was desperately engaged in attempting to dislodge just wife No. 2, in the meantime, she again sought the services of those described here. Of course, this treatment was more than any woman could stand, and it immediately created in Miss Coombs a desire to vengeance, so she sought out an attorney, and Justice Goe, who, after his assiduous preparation to see her reconstructive lover for $50,000, an amount which would be the compensation for the case, reluctantly agreed to let the anguish which she had suffered through Engle's failure to marry her.

The suit has not as yet been heard, but in the meantime Cora seems to have concluded that, even if she did win it, many years would pass before Engle would have accumulated enough money through the sale of liquor to the inhabitants of Far West to permit of his paying the amount sued for, so she naturally announced that the sum of $50,000 was all she wanted in the way of damages, and that she would accept no less than $2000 less as wages for work for Engle for one year. The case was heard before Justice Goe, and resulted in a verdict for the defendant, who when placed upon the stand told the court of what a bad girl Cora had been, and of how she had, at different times while laboring under the influences of part of life such as taste, stolen his watch, chain and money, broken his furniture, killed a policeman, and done numerous other naughty things. In his verdict the defendant stated that while Engle might have been at one time inclined to some extent to Miss Coombs, he felt that she had in the end fully balanced the account.

Engle is a man of mind and in every, but not with this one, Engle, not satisfied with winning the suit from Miss Coombs, has presented charges before the police commissioners against Officer Gosselin, whom now Miss Coombs is trying to learn just where she falls in the master.

Engle seems in the justice's court that he selected her, her conduct as a cook, and yet he petitioned the police commissioners to discharge an officer for winning her love from him. The charge against the officer was dismissed.

EX-SALT LAKE REPORTERS.

Three of Them Now Writing for Divers Papers.

Mr. Barley, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, stated to a New York representative today that while in Denver he met and chatted pleasantly with several ex-Salt Lake newspaper men.

Mr. H. J. Jessup, who served in different capacities as writer and editor for the Standard for many years, is now engaged on the editorial staff of the Denver Evening Times.

Richard Wiles, formerly a member of the local press of the Salt Lake Evening Times and Herald, is now writing for the Standard "Advertiser." Edward, one time mining reporter on the Times, is also in Denver and is doing "special" work but is not steadily employed.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.

The Advertiser says in Friday.

Advertsing for a children doctor, and offered a good salary. Not a single application was received, although the place swarms with medical students. Hildingers advertised in a similar way and had two applicants. Whoever you turn your back to, risk to me.

One assures you that your next news is available; another that you can't afford to wait; another that you can't afford to wait.

John Jenkins, the sensational story writer of the Standard Times, is at present at the office of H. Clark Whetstone at Aspen, Colorado.