TREATING THE WRONG DISEASE.
 Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with trouble of the breast, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their surgeons and ignorant doctors, who are unable to distinguish between the various diseases, and who prescribe for them all the same medicine, and while they are thus only able to palliate for a time, they are ignorant of the cause, and therefore unable to remove it, thereby inflicting harm and discomfort instead of giving relief.

"Dr. Pierce."—I received the medicine you sent me and began using it immediately. As a result of the treatment I feel better than I have for three years."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 29 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. today. Dull, changeable.

Weather.—Beautiful, clear moonlight last night with omnisciently distinct ring around the lunar disk.
 Dull and cloudy this morning. Another snow-fall commenced slightly at eleven o'clock today.

That Caucus.—Do not forget that political caucus, at the Old Taberacle to-morrow afternoon, convened for the purpose of nominating candidates for the election of City officers, to be held on the second Monday in February.

Another.—Another member of the chain gang, which has been at work for some time reducing the grade of the street near Mr. H. W.
 Naisbitt's residence, made his escape on Wednesday, and has not been re-arrested.

A Novel Subject.—Mr. Charles W. Stayer will deliver a lecture at the 20th Ward school-house, under the auspices of the Institute of that ward. The subject of the lecture is somewhat novel, not to say peculiar, being "Bills, Beats, and Bummers." This opens up quite a large field, giving plenty of scope for the humorous proclivities of the lecturer.

Wanted to Use the Telegraph.— Last night a soldier, who was intoxicated, fell down the Theatre stairs, from the second to the first circle. Another private soldier, who was sober, took him to the City Hall and told Captain Burt that Captain McGinnis had sent him over with the inebriate with a request that the latter might be kept all night.

The befuddled soldier felt indignant at it being remarked that he was drunk. He staggered around and said he was quite sober, and says he "demand the hic—use —hic of the telegraph," at the same time groping around the wall, as if trying to find the keys of the battery. He was kept over night by the police and set at liberty this morning.

Go.—The departed Horace Greeley's advice to young men would be a good thing for some people to act upon just now. There is evidently a surplus of laboring men in this City at present. Now this is a big country. There is "room enough for all," and industrious people who cannot find employment in the City would, "then chances to one," do well in some parts of the country. It is pretty hard to make a start at first, but after the start is made people generally get along pretty well.

There is the Sevier Valley, for instance, just about as good a locality as "lies out of doors," and there is abundance of room for many settlers thereabout yet. Therefore, to those who are willing to work and are honest and who cannot get along in the City, we would say, go to the country and as soon as practicable, take up a farm, cultivate it, and reap the fruits thereof.

Iron City.—A. J. Stewart, Esq., General Business Agent of the Great Western Iron Works, Iron City, just in from that place, called this morning. He says there is a great deal of snow in that part of the country, and that it is an uncommonly cold winter. The snow is so deep that it has necessitated a temporary suspension of work at Iron City, but as soon as the weather will permit the manufacture of iron will commence in earnest, and that all the capital necessary for that purpose will be raised in the Territory. Mr. E. D. Wassel, Superintendent of Construction, is still at Pittsburgh, and is working on the drawings for rolling mill machinery. Mr. Stewart will proceed east shortly to contract for machinery. The company have very nearly completed a track and tunnel leading to an almost inexhaustible supply of hard coal, which can be used, without cooking, for the blast furnace and foundry.

That Letter.—Among other matters that have been stirred up for political effect to induce special legislation are numerous baseless charges against the police officers of this city, and it appears from an order, purporting to be issued by General Morrow, that strange to say, even that gentleman has been misled by the maligners of the city officers.

In an elaborate communication, published in yesterday's News, Captain Andrew Burt, chief of police, meets these allegations squarely in the face, challenges a fair and minute investigation, and agrees to offer every facility in having the truth or falsity of his assertions ascertained. This offer is a commendable one, and it is an alternative to parties making the charges but to resort to an "investigation," keep their consciences clear of the subject, or render themselves liable to the charge of being ungentlemanly and malignant cen-soral-mongers. A question that a man has been guilty of any crime or outrage does not render him admirable, but it does not justify those who are committed, let the charges be preferred, at proper time and place and in a proper manner, and let bona fide evidence show whether or not the suspicions are well grounded.

Fair and impartial investigation, however, is not what certain in-triguers want. They are turning every stone that they think will give any outside effect in inducing Congress to pass legislation infavorable to the interests of the great majority, and that would give a bitter grating set of political hacks the power to rob, plunder and wrong the better as well as the larger portion of the citizens.

To return to the question on hand, everybody who has got any good sense knows that the position of a policeman in a western city is a dangerous and unthankful office, and everybody knows also that an officer has to deport himself according to the known character of the offender. It is well understood that there are desperadoes hereabout who, before they would submit to arrest, would, if they were allowed the chance, pull out the knife or dagger and use either with deadly effect. Do some people think that an officer is under obligations to approach a character of this kind and in gentle and persuasive tones ask him to walk with him to the City Hall? It is probable that if the late Mr. Bowen, late Chief of Police of Reno, instead of approaching Harrison Carter (while the latter was swearing that no man would or could arrest him) and intimating that he was an officer and would do it, had treated that criminal as the exigencies of the case would have justified, that respected gentleman and officer would probably have been alive to-day. As it was, however, he was shot through the head by the ruffian, who set at defiance the officers of the law. It is very probable if Mr. Bowen had sprang upon Carter suddenly, killed him with a club and disarmed him, that a hue-and-cry would have been raised about another instance of the barbarity of "Mormon" policemen, yet everybody can see now that the officer would have been perfectly justified in so acting, and would thereby have probably saved his own life.

Men are frequently arrested with their hands in their pockets upon cocked pistols, and it is well known that when a policeman would pass certain parties on the street, click would go the hammer of the pistol in the coat pockets of those parties.

We would say that nobody is under any obligations to believe either side of the question, but seeing that the police appear to have been accused of unwarrant-ably abusing soldiers from the post, and as it appears as if the officers incline towards a belief in those accusations, thus basing an opinion on the assertions from one side only, instead of hearing both sides, it seems to us that it would be only fair and just that Captain Burt's proposition for an investigation be accepted. That one side of a question is a slim foundation on which to base a judgment or even an opinion, everybody knows, and there is no justice in either forming or holding such a conclusion, so incorrectly arrived at, especially when the opportunity of ascertaining the truth is within reach.

The evident purport and intent of much of the clap-trap, in the shape of allegations regarding the abuse of the soldiers by the police is to set the military and the mun-cipal officers at loggerheads with each other, in the hope, by this means, to bring about a collision—a most damnable design on the part of certain parties in this city.

Postponed Again.—Owing to the continued indisposition of Justice Clinton the case of W. F. Appleby and J. Gowan, charged with attacking Mr. F. Patrick with deadly weapons, was again postponed, this time till Monday at 2 o'clock.

St. George.—By private telegram from Presidents Brigham Young and George A. Smith we learn that yesterday they visited the Washington dam, on the Rio Virgin River, for the purpose of ascertaining the prospect for taking the water into St. George.

One corner of the Temple wall is within two feet of the city wall, and is in a very dangerous position.

The Ways of Escape.—The course of human events has very considerably and obligingly provided two peculiar ways of escape from the wrath to come in consequence of the offense of dignity of the law, one way for the military, the other for the military. If a civil offender wishes to escape the meshes of the law, he must think of Mr. Habes Corpus and "Judge" Bickel, in a military offender, he can telegraph.

Serious Accident.—A young man, son of Mr. George Halliday, of Pleasant Grove, met with a serious accident near that place yesterday. He was crossing the Utah Southern railroad track with a single team and wagon. Before he could get clear of the track, a gravel train backed up to where he was.
 The hind car collided with the wagon, making it a total wreck.
 Young Halliday was in the wagon, and sprang out at about the same instant that the vehicle was struck by the train. He was rendered insensible, and received a bad injury in the back and another on the back of the head, which latter was not open to the bone. It was thought at first that his injury was of a fatal character, the supposition being that his back was broken. We are glad to be able to state, however, that it is the opinion of the surgeon who went down from this city to examine the injured man, that should inflammation not set in, the young man is likely to recover.

Yesterday.—A very interesting and well attended assembly was assembled last evening at the Theatre. The play was "Money." It was well cast, excellently acted upon the stage, and admirably acted throughout, the audience desiring that the satisfaction by repeated applauses. There is a large amount of ability in the company now acting, which speaks much in favor of the enterprise of the management.

This evening Bulwer's great five-act drama of "Richelieu" will be presented, with Mr. McCullough in the title role, Miss A. Graham as "Julie de Mortimer," Miss Cogwell as "Fanny de la Page," Mrs.
 Crook as "Marion de Lorme," Mr.
 Crook as "The Duke de Bering-ton," Mr. Sawelle as "Chevalier de Mauprat," Mr. Lindsay as "Count de Barradas," Mr. Thorne as "Joseph."

To-morrow afternoon a grand matinee, with Mr. McCullough and Miss Graham in "Money." To-morrow evening Mr. McCullough and Miss Graham in Richard III.
