The Correo does not anticipate that President Roosevelt will initiate any change in the American policy.

SECRET OF HIS INFLUENCE.

Senator Depew Tells How to Suppress Anarchism—Special and Memorial Services Held.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 15.—An audience of 3,000 people gathered in University hall last night to hold exercises in memory of President McKinley. Rev. E. S. Nide, Col. H. S. Dean, Dr. Mary Wood-Allen and D. A. Hammond spoke. The chief address was by Dr. James B. Angell, president of the university.

"The title that is most likely to come to our martyred President," said Dr. Angell, "is that of 'The Well Beloved.' Washington had a dignified severity that left a space between himself and the people. Lincoln was loved by only half the nation when he died. The old animosities between the North and South had not expired when Garfield passed away. But since McKinley came into office the blue and the gray have been united. He won the hearts of the southern people and cemented a nation."

"He was the average American life in a glorified form. He was pure, simple, genial and kind. So long as he dominated our affairs he could be dealt with by foreign powers with sincerity, and this is the secret of the great influence of this nation in the administration of foreign affairs."

DEPEW ON ANARCHISM.

New York, Sept. 15.—Senator Depew, discussing the problem of what is to be done to suppress the growth of anarchy is quoted as saying: "We must begin at the fountain head and stop the reservoirs of European anarchy pouring into our country. Such certification of immigrants must be had as will establish a proper environment and association abroad before they night that a number of anarchists were to hold a meeting there. The officials not being able to locate the meeting, went over the line into Bergen county, and called on Mrs. Bressi, wife of the slayer of King Humbert. She was told they suspected the meeting was to be held at her house and she was warned that if it was, she and her visitors would land in jail. Mrs. Bressi was loud in protestations that she was suspected unjustly.

While the officials were talking to Mrs. Bressi five Italians came to the house and later eight more. They generally declared they were not anarchists and invited the mayor to remain. He did so and firmly believes he broke up an anarchist meeting.

Newark, N. J., Anarchists Arrested

New York, Sept. 15.—Charged with making anarchistic harangues, the police of Newark, N. J., arrested last night Victor Gasscoe and August Britton. Gasscoe will also be charged with assault and battery. In his harangue to the crowd he mentioned the name of the murdered President in a manner which caused Mrs. John Solosky to cry "Shame." Gasscoe struck her in the face. Later, when he proposed the health of Czolgosz, the woman reproached him and he struck her again. He defied the police; they seized him by the neck and dragged him to the station. A crowd tried to take Gasscoe from his cell and would have succeeded had not the reserves been called out. The prisoners are held in separate cells.

Mitchell Expected in New York.

New York, Sept. 15.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, is expected in New York this week to arrange for a joint conference between the big coal operators and the Union.

There are two big demands to be made at the joint conference if arranged, or to be fought for if recognition is refused: Eight hours a day for wage workers and an adjustment of the prices paid to piece workers, and the union is resolved to carry these through as soon as the present agreement expires, which is in April, 1902.

ROOSEVELT'S PROCLAMATION.

Appoints Sept. 19 as a Day of National Mourning.

PEOPLE ASKED TO ASSEMBLE

Thursday in Their Respective Places of Worship to Bow Down to Will of God.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt tonight issued the following proclamation:

"By the President of the United States, a Proclamation:

"A terrible bereavement has befallen our people. The President of the United States has been struck down; a crime committed, not only against the chief magistrate, but against every law-abiding and liberty-loving citizen."

"President McKinley crowned a life of largest love for his fellowmen, of most earnest endeavor for their welfare, by a death of Christian fortitude; and both the way in which he devoted his life and the way in which, in the supreme hour of trial, he met his death, will remain forever a precious heritage to our people.

"It is meet that we, as a nation, express our abiding love and reverence for his life, our deep sorrow for his untimely death."

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do appoint Thursday next, Sept. 19, the day on which the body of the dead President will be laid in its last earthly resting place, as a day of mourning and prayer throughout the United States. I earnestly recommend that all the people assemble on that day in their respective places of divine worship, there to bow down in submission to the will of Almighty God, and to pay out of full hearts their homage of love and reverence to the great and good President whose death his smitten nation with bitter grief."

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, the 14th day of September, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-sixth.

(Seal) THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President,"

"JOHN HAY, 'Secretary of State.'"

Forest Fires in Colorado.

Eldorado, Colo., Sept. 14.—A forest fire which started west of here about noon yesterday has already burned over a large territory and destroyed much valuable timber. The families of all the miners employed at Owley & Company's camp were sent to the place and the men set to fighting the flames to prevent their spreading to the company's mills.

pass our immigrant inspectors. Supplanting this, there should be under proper safeguards the power lodged somewhere to expel known enemies of our laws and country. Legislation should also be adopted that will take attempts upon the life of the President which fall out of the category of mere assaults and make such crimes adequately punished."

SERVICES IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—With the exception of fixed church festivals Philadelphia houses of worship of all denominations have rarely been so well attended as they were Sunday. There were comparatively few churches that did not give up their entire services to the memory of the martyred President. In all the Roman Catholic churches special services, under the instruction of Archbishop Ryan, were held. The litany of the holy name of Jesus was recited in all these churches and will be repeated on the next two Sundays after the last mass.

Sermons that were devoted to the great tragedy, heroic, earnest tribute to the dead President as a Christian. In many instances the beautiful farewell utterance of the President was taken as the text and many lessons were drawn from it. The scenes at Buffalo were compared with that on Calvary by some clergymen, while others compared it with many biblical incidents. Anarchy also was generally referred to, and the consensus of thought was that the shot that rang out in the Temple of Music should sound the death knell of that creed.

In a large number of churches and Sunday schools the President's favorite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," and the hymn he murmured in his dying moments, "Nearer My God to Thee," were sung by either the choir or the whole congregation.

In the secular world, the President's memory was honored in many ways. Numerous societies, organizations and other bodies, composed of various English and foreign speaking members, held meetings and adopted appropriate sion of business. The proclamation of President Roosevelt will be generally observed by the churches, announcement of services on Thursday having been made in most churches yesterday.

Bishop Whittaker of the Protestant Episcopal church has already issued his letter of instructions for services on that day. All the theaters in the city will be closed.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 15.—Flags all over the city are flying at half mast and many business places and offices are draped in mourning as a mark of respect to the late President McKinley. At Esquimaux the headquarters of the British navy on the Pacific the American flag is flying at half mast from the cruiser War Sprite and the flagship of Admiral Bick.

CANADA EXPRESSES GRIEF.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 15.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, has sent the following to Mr. Lowther, first secretary of the British embassy at Newport: "I have the command of his excellency, the governor general of Canada, to ask you to convey the secretary of state, the expression of grief and horror which has been caused through the whole country by the death of the President of the United States, under circumstances so tragic and so heart-rending. The uncontrollable sorrow of the American nation will be almost as keenly felt by the people of Canada, who, being so close neighbors of the United States, have had many an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the noble qualities which characterized Mr. McKinley in his private as well as in his public life."

MOURNING IN BOSTON.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Sorrow and mourning for the nation's illustrious dead were everywhere apparent in Boston Sunday. The weather, dark and gloomy, the somber drapings on public buildings and mercantile establishments and resolutions of sympathy. The draping of the city went steadily ahead today notwithstanding that it was Sunday. Decorators are laboring day and night, and are in great demand. Large crowds visited the League island navy yard yesterday. Owing to the regulation prohibiting the firing of salutes on Sunday, except in certain instances the order of the secretary of the navy calling for salutes will be carried out today.

The national guard of Pennsylvania will fire half-hour guns from sunrise to sunset.

The indications are that on the funeral day there will be a complete suspension of national colors at every and was thoroughly in keeping with the spirits of the people. The calamity brought out appropriate references and prayers from pew, pulpit and altar.

The church authorities of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal communions had requested that churches in their jurisdictions offer up prayers for the nation in its great grief. The instructions were faithfully carried out.

At the Catholic churches a prayer for President, government and country written by Archbishop Carroll, Baltimore, 100 years ago, was said.

At Trinity church (Episcopal) an announcement was made that a memorial service will be held there simultaneously with the burial services at Canton. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Lawrence.

LOYAL LEGION FLAGS DRAPE

Washington, Sept. 15.—The colors of the commanderies of the Loyal Legion of the United States were ordered draped for a period of ninety days in an order issued today by Lieut. Gen. John M. Schofield, U. S. A., commander-in-chief of the society.

TO DRAPE BANNERS.

Bryan, Texas, Sept. 15.—Grand Master Stoddard, of the Knights Templar has issued an order on the death of McKinley to all subordinate commanderies in the United States instructing that the banners of the order be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ARGENTINE PEOPLE MOVED.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 15.—President Roca has sent the following dispatch to President Roosevelt: "The Argentine people and government are profoundly moved by the death of President McKinley and condemn the infamy of the deed which bereft a sister republic of her first magistrate."

All American business houses and many of the British have flags at half mast.

Pontiac Carriage Works Burned.

Pontiac, Mich., Sept. 15.—Fire yesterday destroyed the largest portion of O. J. Beauchamp & Company's carriage body works located here. Loss $50,000 insured for $47,000. About 250 men were employed.

Bitter Tirade Against Cartoonists.

West Superior, Wis., September 15.—At a special memorial service held by the Methodists in conference at the Cummings Avenue Methodist church, Bishop Earl Cranston of Portland, Ore., the presiding bishop, delivered a bitter tirade against cartoonists. He denounced them as portraying things in a wholly wrong and improper light and asserted that they brought much bitterness through this improper portrayal.

John W. Mackay on Anarchy.

New York, Sept. 15.—"Anarchists should be dealt with severely," said John W. Mackay, in an interview last night. "We never had so good a government in San Francisco had Virginia City as during those years when the vigilance committees were in control. Every offender was tried by a jury of twelve good men, and a swift must executed on the spot. Bad characters left the country instantly on receiving warning from the committee. It did not have to be repeated."

"I hope the newspapers and public officials will urge immediate action. This shooting down of good men like President McKinley is a serious matter. It makes no difference how brave a man may be some cowardly assassin, with a needless gun, may shoot him from a roof at some unexpected moment. Guards amount to nothing. Men have been assassinated in the midst of their soldiers."

"Summary justice properly executed will do the work. Drive the anarchists out of America. Hang every one of them caught in these crimes without delay. Let the movement begin with vigorous action on the part of the community and they will disappear when they find we mean business. Every anarchist arriving in this country should be sent back by the next steamer. The European police will attend to them. They are shadowed every where and they should be kept over there—hunted down and promptly exterminated."

"The time has come for business men to take hold of this matter and settle it in good shape. There should be no half way measures. Let the papers help the movement along. Force Congress to make a proper law at the earliest moment and have officials see that it is executed. Public sentiment will do the rest. The country will sustain such a movement and make anarchy a thing of the past."
