TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the Liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Irregular and Sluggish action of the Bowels, Headache, Dizziness at the Stomach, Pain in the Back and Loins, etc., indicate that the Liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially compounded for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effective as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Costiptation, Diseased Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.

OPENING THE REICHSTAG—THE EMPEROR'S SPEECH.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE WAR.

THE CHOLERA.

GENERAL GORDON HEARD FROM.

SUNK IN COLLISION AT SEA.

DEVOURED BY HUNGARIAN WOLVES, ETC.

Opening the Reichstag—The Emperor's Speech Printed in Colossal Letters.

BERLIN, 20.—The Reichstag opened to-day with the usual formalities. The Imperial speech called attention to the satisfactory progress the work of social reform had made, and announced that bills would be introduced extending the system of the Workingmen's Accident Insurance and Savings Bank, and for another grant of subsidy to the Colonial Steamship Company. In connection with this a communication will be laid before the Reichstag concerning the settlements placed under Imperial protection, and concerning the negotiations which are now proceeding in regard to them. The speech further stated that it was necessary to create a new source of revenue. The great depression in the sugar industry rendered an increase of tax on beet sugar difficult. Emperor William, in the course of his speech, spoke of the continued accord between Germany and France. He said: "Germany has summoned a conference of powers to secure Africa from the disturbance arising from international friction. The universal acceptance of the conference proves that the friendliness of the various powers toward Germany is based on the fact that the success in war which God vouchsafed do not tempt us to tamper with the people's happiness by other means than cultivating peace. I rejoice at this recognition, and particularly that it was possible, at Skiernievice, to cement my friendship with the Russian and Austrian monarchies, who are so connected with me by ancient tradition, relationship and neighborhood that I may regard as certain the undisturbed duration of peace for a long time to come. I thank the Almighty for the certainly strong guarantee of peace thus afforded."

An unprecedented number of members of the Reichstag were present to hear the Emperor read his speech to-day. Among the spectators were the royal princes, Prince Bismarck and all the members of the Bundesrath. The space reserved for members of the diplomatic corps was well filled. Special accommodations were also provided for delegates to the Congo Conference. The Emperor's speech was printed in characters a quarter of an inch in length. The speech was received with loud and frequent applause, especially those passages alluding to Germany's colonial policy and the Congo Conference, and also the concluding portion. Upon the conclusion of the speech, Bismarck formally declared the session of the Reichstag open.

A Bavarian delegate called for three cheers for the Emperor, which were most heartily accorded.

The Emperor, upon descending the steps to the throne, caught his foot in the carpet and nearly fell, but recovered himself. The incident evoked murmurs of sympathy on all sides of the chamber.

Count Von Moltke, as the oldest member of the Reichstag, afterwards opened the ordinary sitting of the body. The election of president and vice-president was fixed for Saturday. The Conservatives will propose Baron Malzeahan Gueltz for president, and Frankenstein (center) and Hoffman (progressist) are expected to be elected vice-presidents.

The Emperor's speech created an excellent impression in parliamentary circles, excepting among the advanced Left.

Berlin, 21.—None of the Socialist members of the Reichstag were present at the opening of the session yesterday. Bismarck wore the uniform of the Cuirassiers. The Emperor looked wonderfully well, but once or twice, while reading his speech, was obliged to pause as if to collect his strength.

Operations in Tonquin.

PARIS, 20.—Le Paris says: General Briere De Lisle, commander of the French forces in Tonquin, Telegraphs that the Chinese made a vigorous attack on the French gunboats Eclat and Trombe, as they were proceeding along the river Claire, after revictualing the garrison at Tuyen Quan. One sailor was killed and eight wounded. Gen. De Lisle reports 8,000 Chinese coming down Red River, and is ready to meet them. He sent Col. Duchesne to relieve Tuyen Quan and clear that region of the enemy's forces. Le Paris adds: Three first class cruisers are going to China.

Devoured by Wolves.

VIENNA, 20.—A Hungarian clergyman named Arianis, while traveling on a sledge to Louis with his wife and child, was pursued by wolves. His wife, terror-stricken at the sight of the animals, let the child fall from the sledge. The husband jumped out to save the child and both were devoured, but not before the father killed two of the wolves. Meanwhile the horses attached to the sledge ran away, and the unfortunate mother, owing to the terrible trial to which she was subjected, was prematurely delivered of a dead child. The horses ran to Louis, and upon their arrival there the people found the woman herself dead in the sledge. The terrible tragedy occurred within the space of an hour.

Stagnation of Trade.

PARIS, 20.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day Tony Revillion, from the Department of Seine, called the attention of the Chamber to the present stagnation of trade in Paris, and moved a resolution that the government arrange for the construction of extensive public works. Revillion also moved the passage of the credit bill for the poor of the city.

Waldeck Rosseau, Minister of the Interior, replied that public works had already been commenced, and declined to recommend the passage of the credit bill.

The order of the day pure and simple was then adopted by the chamber.

Indignant Students.

MADRID, 20.—The students of the University are thoroughly incensed against the Bishops for censuring one of their professors for advocating liberty of education. The students made manifest their disapprobation of the Bishops' course by throwing the streets to-day and making tumultuous demonstrations. Large crowds collected about the publication offices of Carlist journals and threatened to loot them. The police dispersed the young men. Twenty were arrested. Besides the students, several journalists acting with them were arrested, on the charge of conspiracy. The students are deeply incensed at the action of the authorities, and the agitation continues. Precautions have been taken to prevent the renewal of disorders.

Cholera.

PARIS, 20.—Since midnight to 6 p.m., seven deaths by cholera have occurred in the city, and nineteen in the hospitals. Two deaths are reported to-day at Nantes.

Rio de Janeiro, 20, via Galveston.—It is reported that a number of bodies have been thrown into the sea from the steamer Matteo Bruzzo—infected with cholera. The people of Ilna Grande are greatly alarmed, fearing the Matteo Bruzzo may put in there.

Gordon Alive Again.

CAIRO, 20.—A MAN who arrived here last evening from Khartoum states that General Gordon has in his army 2,000 Turks and 6,000 Blacks, besides a large number of Arabs. He also has a plentiful supply of provisions and ammunition. El Mahdi's people are deserting and fleeing to the hills, having lost faith in the False Prophet.

London, 20.—A special dispatch from a correspondent in Egypt praises the Canadian boatmen. It states they are thoroughly equal to their work, and systematic and untiring in their labors. It would have been economy of boats, life and money if there had been 12,000 Canadian boatmen engaged instead of 400.

In the Commons to-day, Gladstone stated that the government was submitting its financial plans regarding Egypt to the powers, and was therefore unable to disclose them.

Sixty People Poisoned.

VIENNA, 20.—Sixty persons have been poisoned, many of them being in a dangerous condition, in the outlying village of Hernals, owing to the carelessness of a corn dealer in mixing rat poison with his flour.

Sunk in Collision.

LONDON, 20.—The Red Star Line steamship Pensland, Captain Weyer, which sailed from New York on the 8th inst., for Antwerp, was in collision with a Swedish bark off Goodwin Sands, and the bark sunk. No details of the disaster are yet received.

Later.—The steamship Pensland was unharmed by the collision and the crew of the bark was saved.

TALK WITHOUT WORDS.

THE MYSTERIOUS INVESTIGATIONS OF THE SOCIETY FOR PSYCHIC RESEARCH.

THE PHENOMENA OF THE OCCULT—A COMMON AND SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT—A PHILOSOPHER WHO WILL NOT BELIEVE.

Few persons who played with planchette a few years ago, when that conscious toy was the rage, or who have amused themselves with the rather mysterious divinations of the mind-reader, or have frequented the seance, or have joined hands to lift tables by the finger-tips, or have benumbed some delicate friend by amateur mesmerism, had any idea that they were doing anything so dignified as hovering on the borders of a Dark Continent of science. But such seems to be the case. Scientific men of high position here and in Europe are making these diversions of the curious and sports of the superstitious the subject of deep study and careful experiment. A society has been formed in England to prosecute these studies under the title of the Society for Psychic Research.

For president it has no less steady a head than Professor Sedgwick, of Cambridge, and its vice-president is Lord Rayleigh, who presided over the deliberations of the recent meeting at Montreal of the Association for the Advancement of Science.

For the most part the occurrences the investigators of these psychical phenomena are turning their attention to may be classed as instances of communication between mind and mind, near or far, without the use of words or any means that could be called physical according to the present nomenclature of science. There are committees to investigate the influence of mind on mind by other than the ordinary means of communication—the phenomena of mesmerism, trance, clairvoyance, the study of persons classed as "sensitives," apparitions at the moment of death, spiritualism on its physical side, etc.

One of the most common and successful experiments of the members of the society is to place behind one of the persons known as "sensitive," an individual whose mind is charged with some distinct image, as of a person, or coin, or picture, or other object, and whose only effort in the experiment is to stand behind the "sensitive" and think as hard as he can of the thing in his mind. The "sensitive" will then draw a representation of what is in the mind of the operator behind him. This experiment has been developed to such a point that objects selected at random by any one present and simply held up behind the "sensitive" have been portrayed by him. In the published proceedings of the society many fac-similes of the originals and the copies made by the "sensitives" under these circumstances are given. No "mediums" or professionals take part in these experiments.

The supernatural cast once given to occurrences of this kind—from the performances of planchette to the mysteries of Spiritualism—are dismissed by these scientific men as an accidental color, like the supernatural aspect which poetry, government, books, fire, everything took on when men first came to them. They believe that there is a field of fact there to be investigated; that these phenomena are glimpses of a force which men have not heretofore developed to the point of recognizing, but which it is no more scientific to reject than it would have been to refuse to examine the phenomena of combustion because the legends of mythology claimed that fire was brought down from heaven by Prometheus.

It is not easy to see how any scientific mind could find fault with such inquiry; but Helmholtz is quoted by The Nation as having lately told an English scientific acquaintance that if all his friends should assert that the phenomena reported by the Society for Psychical Research were true, and that if then he were to see them all with his own eyes, and with all the precautions he could devise, he would not believe them. This is more like the ignorant sort of talk which greeted the first hints of the wonders of electricity than the utterances of a true man of science always ready to open his eyes to "more light."—Chicago Tribune.
