PLAN FOR THE YAMPA MINE SMELTING PLANT, BINGHAM CANYON

The "News" presents to its readers today the first published picture of the proposed new smelter to be erected by the Tintic Mining & Development company for the treatment of the ores of its Yampa mine at Bingham. The plant will have the capacity for the treatment of and reducing to matte 250 tons of ore per day. It will be equipped with the Neill patent roasting furnaces; blast furnaces, coal bins ore bins, etc. The power plant will be operated by steam and boilers of the capacity of 200 horse-power will be installed, with an electric power plant for auxiliary purposes. The smelter was designed by J. M. Callow, who will serve the company as its mechanical engineer. George H. Robinson, is the general manager and James W. Neill, chief metallurgist of the company. The sketch from which the accompanying half tone picture was taken was drawn by Architect J. P. Hill.

The plant will be crected in Bingham canyon at a point easy of access from the mine

Granted an Increase in Wages

From 12 to 15 Per Cent,

While It Was Only Announced This Week the Schedule Dates From March 1.

TRAINMEN ON

Effective March 1 the trainmen an engineers of the Oregon Short Ling have been granted a substantial ad vance in their wages. The announce ment was made yesterday upon the return of General Superintendent E. E. Calvin of the Oregon Short Line from the north. It is understood that there were concessions on both sides and this the meeting between the grievance committees and the general superintendent was of a most amicable character, in fact the whole proceeding took but little time. It is quite a tribute to Mr. Calvin when it is stated that when all the different railroad systems who have and are about to raise the wages of their employes are taken into consideration, that the Short Line fixed the schedule in the shortest time and without a semblance of fric tion on either side The men asked for a 20 per cent in crease in wages and stated their rea-sons for the advance. Mr. Calvir realized that with the increased cos of living, heavier tonnage handled and other matters that the demand for a raise was not unreasonable. He then proceeded to set forth what the rallmad company was prepared to do fo its employes and after a short discus-sion the men agreed to a schedule that gave the engineers a substantial ad vance, passenger conductors brakemen an increase of about 12 pe cent and freight conductors and brake men an advance in wages of 15 per cent. The schedules were last night placed in the hands of the printer. An employe this morning stated to he "News" that the men were well atisfied with the concessions. "Mr. satisfied with the concessions. Calvin has the entire confidence of the men and he has never been unreason able, and the men felt satisfied when committee made the demands that they would receive recognition."
