At this point Judge King, who, with Mr. Truman, so ably defended the young man, entered the court room and reshed up to his client. The boy threw his arms around him and thanked him over and over again for what he and Mr. Truman had done. Clyde was too overjoyed to say much about his plans for the future. He stated that he would probably take a trip to Caliwould probably take a trip to Cal-fornia or lowa before settling down here to live. He said that he would never again speak to his wife. His mother said that he was going home with her for the present. She made the statement that she would rather see her son dead and in his grave than to have him go back to his wife. Judge King and Mr. Truman refored.

Judge King and Mr. Truman refused o discuss the verdict, but desired to thank Judge Morse and the Jury for their fair and courteous treatment of the defendant. Dist Atty, Eichnor had nothing to say for publication concern ing the verdict.

Strength and Endurance Are factors of the greatest success. No person can do full justice to himself without them. In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the apring. We need not discuss the reason for this here. It's enough to say there is one, and that Hood' Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.

Cures When Doctors Fail.

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1991: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bot-tie of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which com-pletely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will sure-ly cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Z. C. M. I.
