THE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN.
M. M. Estee of California will undoubtedly, as every convention tonight has decided, be permanent chairman of the convention. The Pacific Coast were beaten in the matter of the temporary organization only by capturing the greater honor. Estee will have the distinction of supplanting no less a man than Warner Miller, probable republican nominee for governor of New York. By common consent, Miller was chosen tonight for the place. Republican leaders here were, from the start, determined to be not whipped, but to win. The delegate of Louis did in fact, in a good deal of the power and goodwill of the Pacific Coast it also seems certain tonight, could as requested even though his friends were opposing the friends of all the candidates with the exception of Blaine, had it not been for the friends of early gathering of the class from the state by state and the friends of these people to the Nebraska man Thurston who was on the ground.

THE STRUGGLE FOR THE CHAIR.
Late tonight it was rumored that an effort would be made on the floor of the convention tomorrow to prevent the election of Miller. The rumor was disputed. The anti-monopoly delegates
