

practice. The city council of Brigham City had donated land to the various branch societies, to be used for the planting of mulberry trees, which had been already set out and were growing nicely. They were thus doing all they could to help the silk industry. The societies that have money on hand should buy shares in the silk enterprise, and do all they can to forward it, for it was an important branch of our home manufactures, and like all others should be sustained and encouraged. If we did this, God would add his blessing, but we could not expect his favor if we disregarded the building up of his kingdom and at the same time helped to build up the power of his enemies. We should sustain our own industries, our own institutions with all our means and influence. The speaker then asked the mothers to attend the general meeting of the primaries, to-morrow morning, that they might see how their children were progressing in their respective ward societies. She was always pleased to see the faces of those who enjoyed the spirit of the Lord. They always looked happy. Mothers should look cheerful in the presence of their children, that the latter might reflect back their good nature, partake of the same good spirit, and so keep home perpetually happy and agreeable.

The hymn, "O say what is Truth" was sung, after which the meeting adjourned till 2 p. m. Benediction by Sister S. M. Kimball.

At 2 o'clock the conference resumed. During the forepart of the session, reports were read from those societies, whose accounts had not been read previously. The meeting is in progress as we go to press.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 19.

Our Agent.—Mr. R. G. Lambert, of this office, started south this morning on a business trip in the interests of the DESERET NEWS. He will be absent for a week or two, and will return, no doubt, well laden with the results of his enterprising efforts.

Home Made Silk Goods.—Father Graves, of Provo, called in this morning to exhibit some specimens of silk poplin manufactured by a lady of that place. One piece was twelve yards in length by 1 yard in width, and the other one yard long of like width. It is a very good looking fabric, and can be sold for $1.25 per yard. The imported costs 90c per yard and is but 22 inches wide. Brother Graves claims that the home made can be sold cheaper than that which comes from abroad. This is something worth thinking about.

New Organizations.—At the Ladies' Conference to-day, there were effected Territorial organizations of the Relief Societies and Y. L. M. I. Associations. Among others, President John Taylor was present and addressed the meeting. Sister Eliza R. Snow (Smith) was appointed president of all the Relief Societies of the Church, and named as her counsellors Zina D. Young and Elizabeth Ann Whitney. Sarah M. Kimball was chosen Secretary and M. I. Horne Treasurer. Sister A. Taylor was elected to preside over the Young Ladies' Territorial organization, with Maggie Taylor and Mattie Horne, as Counsellors, Louie Wells, Secretary, and Fanny Thatcher, Treasurer. We have no space, this afternoon, for a more extended notice, which we would otherwise be pleased to give.

Old Folks' Jubilee Excursion.—The fifth annual old folks' excursion will take place on Wednesday the 7th of July. The Black Rock grounds, with the bath houses and other appurtenances, have been secured for that day free of charge, and the company of aged pleasure-seekers will this time have an opportunity of going over the Utah Western and enjoying themselves by taking in the beauties of the Lake. Great credit is due the committee who have the matter in charge, for their repeated efforts in behalf of those who are advanced in years, and to all who have at heart the comfort and pleasure of the aged and infirm, including, of course, those who tender the gratuitous use of their gardens, groves and pleasure grounds for the use of the venerable excursionists. We wish the present movement every success, and trust the coming event will equal its predecessors in administering happiness to those who participate therein.

Attempted Jail-Breaking.—Another attempt to break jail was made yesterday by a number of the prisoners confined in the "stone jug" at the rear of the City Hall. The two colored boys who were committed the other day, Daley, the Davis County horse thief, and two others were temporarily occupying an upstairs room, pending the removal of some of them to the County Jail, and during the afternoon asked George Coulam, the assistant jailor, for a bucket of water. They had evidently planned an escape, for no sooner did he appear at the door with the water, than he was seized by one of the negroes and hauled into the room. He immediately called loudly for help, and the cry was taken up by a female prisoner in an adjoining cell. The shouting and screaming brought Captain Burt, Alex. Burt and Watermaster Wilken from the Hall, who at first supposed the prisoners were fighting among themselves. Arriving at the scene of action, the true situation was at once apprehended. The prisoners had gagged Coulam and were getting ready to make a break down stairs when the officers arrived. The former showed fight, and an encounter ensued, in which one of the police had a finger broken, but the would-be runaways were finally overpowered and secured.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 21.

SALT LAKE STAKE CONFERENCE.

The regular Semi-Annual Conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, on Saturday and Sunday, July 3rd and 4th, 1880, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of each day.

There will be a meeting of the presiding officers and others interested in Relief Societies, Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations, Sunday Schools and Primary Associations; in the Assembly Hall, on Saturday evening, July 3rd, at 7 p. m.

A general meeting of the Priesthood of the Stake, on Sunday evening, July 4th, at the same place, at seven o'clock.

ANGUS M. CANNON,
DAVID O. CALDER,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Presidency of the Stake.

Home on Wednesday.—A private dispatch from Pittsburg, from Hon. George Q. Cannon, states that himself and party will arrive in this city on Wednesday evening.

Rock-laying Re-commenced.—Rock-laying on the Temple resumed for the season this morning, at 11 o'clock. The first one laid was the southwest corner octagon, in course S, of the second alphabet from the foundation of the structure.

Home Next Month.—A private letter from President A. O. Smoot, of a recent date, states that himself and son will leave Honolulu for home on the 5th proximo, and reach this city about the 18th. This is much earlier than they expected to return at the time of leaving.

The Rival Railroads.—The rumor that the Union Pacific Company were building a railroad to rival the Utah Eastern from Echo to Park City, has developed into an established fact. Mr. E. R. Young of Wanship, was in town Saturday. From him we learn that cross-sectioning is going on, as reported. The Utah Eastern is progressing nicely. There will probably be difficulty between the two roads, before either is completed.

Scandinavian Excursion.—The Scandinavians of this city intend spending next Thursday in a picnic excursion at Calder's Farm. The day chosen is "Mid summer Day," generally celebrated in their native land. Teams will start from the Theatre for the place mentioned, at 7 and 9 a. m., on that day. The band and choir will be in attendance. Tickets can be had at the Scandinavian meeting to-morrow night, at Jacobsen's barber shop, First South Street, and Jensen's shoe shop, Commercial Street.

Ladies' Territorial and State Organizations.—At the Ladies' Conference in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, on Saturday, the Primary Conference convened, with Eliza R.

Snow Smith in the chair. The main part of the building was occupied by the children, several hundred being present. A central committee for the Primary Association was appointed and sustained by the Conference, consisting of Louie Felt, President; Matilda M. Barratt and Clara M. Cannon, Counsellors; also a Stake organization for Salt Lake County, consisting of Mrs. Ellen S. Clawson, President; Mrs. Camilla M. Cobb and Annie Davis, Counsellors. In the afternoon, the central organization was effected for the Y. L. M. I. A., Mrs. Elmina S. Taylor, President; Mrs. Maggie Y. Taylor and Mattie Horne, Counsellors; Louie Wells, Secretary, and Fannie Young Thatcher, Treasurer.

Woman's Exponent.—The June 15th issue of the Exponent, though necessarily delayed for several days, made its appearance on Saturday as welcome and interesting as ever. It is a very good number, containing a rich variety of reading matter—prose and poetry. On the first page are "Derford Dale," a poetical tribute to the author's childhood home, by Hannah T. King; "Alice and Phoebe Cary," prose, by the same writer, and an "Address to Man," by E. C. F. The second page has the third and final article on "Early Reminiscences," by Helen Mar Whitney; and the "Origin of the Y. L. M. I. A.," by A. J. Crocheron. The editorial is a "Visit to Brigham City," and is followed by "Letter Writing," by Aunt Em. "Woman's Convention," and other smaller pieces come next, followed by "A Storm in the Mediterranean," (in the very region of St. Paul's shipwreck), the personal experience of a sister of Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson, while on her way to Palestine. Correspondence from E. R. Shipp, M. D.; "Fault Finding," by Julia Spencer, a selected article on "Pronunciation of English Names," "An Open Letter," by Rex; "A True Story," by Tiney; a gem in verse, called "A Dark Cloud," by May Maple, and other pieces of prose, complete the table of contents.

Sunday Services.—There was a good attendance at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon, the congregation including a large number of strangers.

The speaker was Apostle Orson Pratt, who delivered an interesting discourse on the subject of the gathering of Israel in the latter days. He began by reading from the prophets, to show that such a gathering was to take place, and that it had not occurred in any previous age. True, the children of Israel had been commanded to gather, more than once, and had done so in ancient times, but those events did not correspond in character or magnitude with the great and universal gathering which it was predicted would occur in the dispensation of the fulness of times. Israel was then to be gathered from the four quarters of the earth. The Psalmist said, in the 107th Psalm, that God would gather them "from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south." This had never been fulfilled in any age before, so far as history had informed. The Psalmist also said, in relation to this important occurrence, "They wandered in a wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses."

This could not apply to the children of Israel in former days. When they were gathered from the land of Egypt, it is true they wandered for a while in a wilderness, but they were taken from there to the land of promise which was occupied by cities, such as Jericho and others, which were delivered into their hands. They, therefore found cities to dwell in, which was contrary to the case of those people the prophet saw in vision and sung about. In another place, it was prophesied that the Lord should comfort Zion, redeem her waste places and make her desert like the garden of the Lord, etc. The speaker, when a boy, and a member of one of the sectarian churches of the day, had often heard these things sung in anthems, but at that time knew very little of their true meaning. All these prophecies had been literally fulfilled in the history and experience of the Latter-day Saints. He then gave a description of the "Mormon" exodus from the States, where they were driven from their homes, compelled to cross the Mississippi River on the ice in the bleak month of February, and from those parts wandered into the great wilderness of the west, in a solitary way, and found no city to dwell in. He recounted the hardships and sufferings of the people at that early day, told how the crickets came and devoured the crops, and how in answer to the prayers of the saints, who cried to the Lord in their trouble, the gulls were sent to destroy the crickets and thus delivered the people from impending starvation. Some might deem this event common enough, but the Latter-day Saints recognized it as a miracle wrought by the hand of the Almighty for their deliverance. The speaker then related how this city was laid out to accommodate future emigration, how the soil became gradually fruitful, the elements more favorable, and how the Lord blessed the land and the people and literally comforted Zion, redeemed her waste places and made this desert like the garden of the Lord. None could realize how fully, how beautifully and precisely this had been fulfilled right here in Utah, excepting those who were here in earlier days and could look around and behold the wondrous transformation which had taken place since the year 1847. In the latter part of the 107th Psalm all this was predicted. It also said, "He bleaseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease." He setteth the poor on high from affliction and maketh him families like a flock." The righteous shall see it and rejoice, and all iniquity shall stop her mouth." The Saints' history, family relations and general prosperity all bore evidence to the truth of these sayings. There was but one of them which remained unfulfilled. Iniquity had not yet stopped her mouth. The speaker then quoted from Paul, St. Matthew, Daniel, and John the Revelator, to show still further the fulfillment of prophecy in relation to the gathering of Israel in the last days, when the Kingdom should be set up and sweep all others away, when it should be in the similitude of the ten virgins spoken of—five wise and five foolish—and how, as John had predicted, the gospel had been delivered by an angel and was now being preached to every nation with the call "Come out of her my people," etc. He then blessed the faithful among the Saints, entreated the unfaithful to repent and renew their covenants, and exhorted strangers to heed what they had heard, search the Scriptures, pray to God in sincerity of heart, and promised that they should then receive personal testimony that this was the work of God and not of man.

Various Causes.

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 3dsw

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N.-W. Pacae train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road.
