The First Regiment band is in a comatose condition, and the outcome of the same is uncertain. An inspection is due inside of two weeks, when some step, one way or the other, will be taken. The band has not been in good financial health for some time.

Mrs. Barker, who conducts the Warm Springs bathing establishment, desires it distinctly understood that there was not the slightest truth in the report that Miss Larson met her runaway convict lover at that place. Mrs. Barker declares that she caters only to the best elements of the city.

The residence of E. O. Knowlton, 534 Canyon road, was set afire at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a spark from a defective fuse. The fire department

The J. H. McKean Post No. 1, G. A. R., of this city, has passed suitable resolutions on the recent death of Col. C. M. Hammond in the Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica. Mike Cantlon of Butte, formerly a Salt Lake police sergeant, is in town from the north. He says the situation up north is anything but encouraging. He has closed up his grocery, and says merchants pretty generally will have to do the same. Everything seems to be in the air, and no one knows what is coming next.

The directors of the Y. M. C. A. will meet tomorrow to award contracts for the masonry, floors, roof and interior work on the new association building. Construction will be hurried forward as soon as the contracts are signed. The plans are so arranged that the building can be carried up three stories higher when desired.

A heedless youth in North Ogden thought it would be fun to run to a wire over the main wires of the Light & Power company the other day, and accordingly tried his hand at it. The attempt was so eminently successful. In fact it was so successful that the entire power system was stopped, and now the management is after that youth, and the end is not yet.

Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., stepped on a needle on the street on Friday, and as she felt the pain, she investigated and, as she thought, pulled out the intruding bit of steel. But it seemed the needle broke off, and the pain became so acute afterwards that Dr. Behle was called in. He located the piece of needle with the X-rays, and extracted it without trouble, so that the sufferer is now doing nicely.

Dr. E. W. Whitney has filed with the clerk of the city board of health the certificate of the birth of the child, whose father, Mrs. Bradley says, is former Senator Arthur H. Brown. Dr. Whitney left the blank intended for the name of the male parent, unfilled. He takes the position that it is not his business to determine the question of parentage.

The scheme of a Produce Exchange building for the grain, flour and feed men of this part of the country, is meeting with favor in the trade, and members of the Salt Lake association express themselves as having strong hopes that means may be found for the erection of a suitable building. In eastern cities a produce exchange building is considered an essential feature of a well conducted business center.

Mrs. Jennie Robinson of West Weber, aged 56, was taken seriously ill at the Miller hotel at 8 p. m., Thursday, and Dr. Bower was sent for. Three visits were necessary the next day and on Friday night she died. The trouble was a sudden and fatal attack of appendicitis. The deceased was a native of Scotland and daughter of James R. and Ann Robb. The remains were shipped to West Weber yesterday by Joseph W. Taylor, for interment.

Judge Lewis on Saturday released Clarence Houghton upon his own recognizance, after admonishing him to reform in his conduct. The boy is 11 years old and was charged with incorrigibility. For some time past he has had somewhat of a desire for buggy riding and on Wednesday he was taken to a store and buggy to satisfy his desire. Majewski, violinist; Miss Edna Dwyer, contralto; Mrs. Agnes Osborne, pianist; Mr. Curtis, baritone, and a male quartet. The working plans for a roof detail were missing some time from a local architect's office, and could not be found. In two weeks they were returned as mysteriously as they were taken, and the owner was much concerned to know where they had been. An idea struck him, and he watched the roofs going on at several new buildings. Presently, he caught on, and found where his plans had been, for he noticed a new roof whose details corresponded exactly to those of the extracted plans, and subsequent developments proved that his suspicions were correct.

A peculiar accident happened to the high tension system of the Light & Power company a few days ago at Myton. A Chinese peasant, who flew against the wires so that it touched each of the pair of wires with its two wings. This completed the circuit, and Mr. Phelan, a dead instant, however, the trouble did not end with the death of the bird, for the entire system was upset, and in this city, for the time being, the voltage was reduced to nothing. But the incident was not long. Manager Campbell has secured possession of the pheasant and is having it stuffed.

Funeral services over the remains of the late W. H. Donnell, general agent of the Colorado Midland, were held from the family residence, 187 P. Street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. H. Fish, Jr., of the Unitarian church of this city officiated and delivered an address of consolation. "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee" were sung by Miss Emily Larsen. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, a number of them being sent by railroad associates of the deceased. The casket bearers were Charles H. Post, Henry W. Nason, Percy T. Sadler, Howard H. Lawson and Clarence McCormick. The interment took place in the city cemetery.

President Emery of the D. A. & M. society expressed himself as heartily in favor of the suggestion for a permanent interment fair in this city. Utah is the oldest of the interment states, and many cemeteries located, and the large permanent buildings in this city for annual interment fair purposes would be the means of bringing in exhibitors from all of the country between the great plains on the east, and the Sierra Madres on the west; and it would bring together here as never before, farmers, ranchmen, stockmen, miners and business men from all over this region from the British border to the Mexican line. The competitive and comparative exhibits and interchange of views and ideas would prove of immense advantage for all concerned.

Miss Edith May entertained at a very delightful Halloween party on Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. May. A BONANZA IN ANY HOME. Hard Times Book.

In all parts of the world there always have been and still are found certain persons, many gifted by nature, who have discovered and learned how to use simple home remedies for all the ills of the flesh. Some of these persons become very expert in the cure of disease. These "experts" are generally nurses, doctors, or mothers of large families, who have acquired skill by long experience.

The fact had often been expressed that if some one would obtain and bring together from all over this and other countries all of these simple remedies and the method of applying them, he would confer upon mankind a boon equal to any invention of any age, one the value of which could hardly be estimated in dollars and cents.

To do this of course would involve immense labor and much expense, which naturally would deter almost anyone from making the attempt.

It however remained for the publishers of a book known as "Vitality" to undertake this herculean task, they bringing out a book under this title, in 1865 they began their labors. After gathering this country and Europe they found in Japan remedies that were regarded of extraordinary value, and the Japanese method of applying them made these simple remedies still more valuable. After more than 30 years of gathering they have finally given to the world in "Vitality" a volume whose practical value can hardly be measured by money. In fact it must prove a "bonanza" in any home.

"Hard Times Book" for there is scarcely a family in this land to whom it would not prove a saving of many dollars each year from the doctor's bills. The more needy a family is, or the harder the times are, the more valuable this book is to them.

The value of this book lies not alone in saving money, and saving lives, and often life itself; there is another consideration that is of no less importance, for it will be the means of preventing actual physical suffering and the system. As the Japanese would say, "taking an unknown medicine into an unknown stomach to produce an unknown effect."

Drugs generally leave a deposit in the body that weakens or injures it for the rest of life. We often take medicine and think that the medicine cures us. Yet we get well in spite of the medicine.

The following is a pertinent paragraph from the writings of the late Dr. B. F. Clayton: "No one can take medicine that is not capable of being practised on the people than to foist upon them the so-called Family Doctor books found in almost every home. Such books are full of remedies which a trained physician is capable of prescribing. If some one would bring out a book of Home Remedies, regular grandmothers' remedies, he would have something that would be a blessing in every home."

"The literary division of this book is too, of special importance, as every part of it is of actual monetary value to the reader."—Morning Chronicle.

CHOKED WOMAN. STOLE HUNDREDS.

Most Daring House Robbery Perpetrated in This City on Saturday Night.

Was the Work of Two Strangers Whom the Police Suspect—Their Victim an Aged Woman.

One of the most daring robberies in the history of this city, occurred on Saturday night in a rooming house at 164 south Second West. Mrs. Sarah Ventress, 61 years of age, was the victim. Two robbers entered her room, choked her into unconsciousness and then quietly made their escape, taking with them a purse containing several hundred dollars. As the robbers walked out, they passed three men who were in the place but they suspected nothing wrong and the assault and robbery was not discovered by them until Mrs. Ventress regained her senses and gave the alarm.

According to the woman's story two men came to her door about 11:30 o'clock and awakened her. They said they wanted a room for the night. Mrs. Ventress dressed herself, and opened the door. One of the men handed her $1 and she led them down the hall to show them a room. When they reached the darkest section of the hall, one of the men seized her by the throat and began choking her. She managed to scream and kicked a door in the hope of arousing her son, who was in the building. In a moment she lost consciousness and does not remember what happened after that, except she was dimly conscious of the fact that one of the men began to search her. He secured the pocket book and the two started out. By this time Mrs. Ventress' son was awakened and hurried into the hall. When he saw his mother he thought she had suddenly been taken ill. Two other roomers came out and they carried the woman into her room. They had seen the two men leaving the building but paid no attention to them. By the time the woman could relate her story the robbers had disappeared. The police were quickly notified and officers were detailed on the case. Mrs. Ventress gave a good description of the things and the police have hopes of locating them. It is not thought that Mrs. Ventress will suffer any serious effects from the assault. She was very nervous and her back was slightly sprained when the robbers threw her down.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

I CAN CONVINCE THOSE WHO THINK WITH WISDOM AND ACT WITH DECISION.

Don't put it off any longer! Rent day keeps rolling around, and you keep digging up for the landlord. Why make a human hopper of yourself, to grind out money for a rent-grabbing landlord?

I know how you love to give up for rent and get an inflammable receipt in return for crisp ten-dollar notes. There are no extra hops for you. No charges for plans or superintendence.

No commissions for securing the money to build the house.

No charge for papers. I simply build you an honest house of the very best of materials and furnish you a convenient and well-wearing home.

It is a fact before you are asked by dissatisfied owners for old and palatial houses.

Here in mind how satisfactory a new, bright, cozy, built-to-order home is, as compared with an old, ready-to-be-repaired, out-of-date home.
