

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Miss Helen Hartley, prominent in society circles here, is in Trinidad, Colo., the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Mary and William John. They entertained recently at a large card party in her honor. Miss Hartley is a talented amateur violinist.

Miss Chloe Nelson, the accomplished pianist, is visiting her father, Mr. Nelson, at his home in Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Philip E. Jones have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Winona, and Austin Pack Larabee to take place Wednesday, Aug. 21, at 3:30 in St. Mark's cathedral.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden will soon be located at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Cross on Thirteenth East street.

Last Sunday evening Mrs. William Shonert entertained at dinner for M. C. Cowley and son of Chicago.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. S. Lewis to Robert Livingston. The wedding takes place Aug. 22.

H. J. Fitzgerald has purchased the McClain residence on South Temple street. He expects Mrs. Fitzgerald and the children from Chicago soon.

Mrs. Charles Rookledge gave a delightful tea last Sunday evening for Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr who left this week for her home in Riverside, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Smith will make their home at 615 east Fifth South street.

Mrs. J. J. Buswell sailed from London for home yesterday. She has been traveling in Europe several months.

Mrs. W. W. Kiser entertained Wednesday at the Country club for Mrs. Samuel C. Adams of Denver. The invited guests were Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland, Mrs. W. B. Allen, Mrs. William H. Cunningham and Mrs. William P. Platt. The table was brilliant with tastefully arranged.

Mrs. J. E. Marshall entertained informally Wednesday afternoon in honor of two visiting young ladies, Miss Foote of Red Wing, Minn., and Miss Campbell of the Pacific northwest.

George T. Odell was one of a number who took motor parties up to Davis county last Sunday. Besides members of the family, Miss Pringle was one of the party. They visited Miss Lucy Grant, who is spending the summer at Farmington.

Miss Virginia Reilly, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, will enter school at Dana Hall, a preparatory school for Wellesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Cain entertained last Tuesday night at a dinner at the Commercial club for their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cain of Chicago, who have been visiting here. Covers were laid for 19.

The Sewing club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Estelle Clinton.

Mrs. William Niles of Laporte, Ind., formerly Mrs. George Loomis and well known in Salt Lake, spent a few days in the city lately visiting friends. She returned east on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence Townsend entertained at a lake party last Tuesday in honor of her sons, Lawrence and Reginald who are at home from school the one from Ann Arbor and the other from an English school. The party ate lunch on Antelope Island and upon their return to Saltair, dinner was served in the cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Smoot, Jr., gave a delightful reception on the evening of the 12th for Mr. and Mrs. Stanzas Atkin who were married that day at the Wilson hotel by deputy County Clerk David A. Smith. Mrs. J. E. Jensen, mother of the bride, attended.

Another pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Edith Mitchell and James Ralph Stuart which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver, cousins of the bride. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only a few friends and the relatives, was performed by Rev. Paden at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Edith Bracken, a cousin, attended the bride, the best man being George Chandler of Bingham. After a delicious luncheon the bride and groom left on a short wedding trip. They will be at home after Oct. 1 in Bingham.

The wedding of Miss Mary Searle to Albert Davis will take place in the early part of next month.

Salt Lake friends were delighted to greet this week the smiling face of D. R. Augsburg, one-time drawing supervisor in the city schools. He is now located in Oakland.

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Charles L. Smith, a foreman for the Rio Grande Western railway, and Miss Mabel Lemon, daughter of Mrs. Grace Lemon of 8 Boyd's court, who were married at the residence of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening. Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony. Following the service, a fine dinner was served, the bride and groom leaving on a honeymoon trip to Denver. On their return they will live at Fifth West and North Temple streets.

Miss Sarah Terrill has gone with a party of friends on a trip to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Forbes have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at the Oxford flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander McMillan entertained last Tuesday at Laguna on the occasion of the outing of the G. A. R. The luncheon was served in the grand stand and was in honor of Department Commander Alfred Kent and wife. The decorations were flags and red ribbons with centerpieces of carnations. The place cards were small silk flags, with the names of the guests printed thereon. Among those present were Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, Col. and Mrs. Squires and others.

Miss Margaret Walker will leave about the middle of September for New York where she will enter Miss Bennett's school on the Hudson.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Katherine Mellstrup and John D. Schied, which took place Wednesday morning, the 14th, at St. Paul's rectory, the Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. Only the families were present. The bride wore a pretty blue-gray broadcloth traveling dress with hat to match. After a short stay at the Hotel, the young couple will be at home at the Mellstrup residence on Second avenue while the family is abroad.

Mrs. A. C. Wherry entertained the Miss Kitties Harris left Friday for Portland and Seattle, to visit friends for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Second avenue, have as their guests, Mrs. A. B. Cain and daughter, Miss Mona, of Atchison, Kan.

Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey has returned from Brighton, where she was the guest of Mrs. Morris L. Richie.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown are visiting friends in Cleveland.

Miss Ellen Thomas of Ogden is visiting friends in Salt Lake, having recently returned from New York, where she has spent the past three years studying music.

Mrs. Harold Russell left Thursday for New York, after a visit of several weeks at the Dwyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker and family left on Wednesday for a camping trip on the Snake river, in Idaho.

Miss Florence Grant returned Monday evening from a visit of a few days in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brothers will shortly be at home in their new home, 1172 east First South street.

Mrs. W. S. Earis is expected shortly from a month spent in southern Utah.

Mrs. Sal Siegel and her son Alfred and her brother, Dr. William of Baltimore, left Sunday evening for Alaska to be away the rest of the summer.

Miss Helen Redall has gone to Los Angeles and will remain at the coast for the winter.

The Misses Lydia and Pearl Jones of Provo have been in Salt Lake this week visiting their sister, Mrs. W. C. A. Smoot, Jr. Miss Pearl has just returned from a seven months' tour of Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunker of Santa Ana, Cal., were here for two or three days last week visiting with old friends.

Miss Jean Odell has been visiting friends in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller and their friends the Meads of Chicago are touring the Scottish Highlands in an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., and sons have returned from a trip through Yellowstone park.

Mrs. John C. Daly and baby returned Sunday from a visit in Laramie, Wyoming.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood and her daughter Edgarda returned this week from a 10 days' stay in Brighton.

Miss Clara Colburne and Miss Martha Humphrey, who are now in Paris, sail Aug. 24, for New York.

Mrs. New Knight of Provo was in town this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. June Clark.

Miss Cora Snyder is visiting friends in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Nora Shookell has returned from a visit with friends in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley of California were in Salt Lake last Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bransford.

Fred C. Searff, a well known druggist formerly of Salt Lake, now of Chicago, was in town this week for a few days.

Mrs. H. A. Whitney and children, Virginia and Frank, with Mrs. Therman, have returned from a month's trip to Portland and other places of interest in the northwest.

Mrs. Dickert and son Gilbert returned Tuesday from a visit with Mrs. J. G. Sawyer at Hailay, Idaho.

Mrs. C. F. Miller and her daughter Florence are here from St. Louis, visiting Mr. Engler at 237 East First South street.

Miss Elsa Greene, a former teacher at Rowland Hall, is traveling in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eldredge, who have been the guests this summer of Mrs. Chloe Eldredge on First South street, will return to Munich next month.

Miss Jeannette Yundt left this week for Pacific Grove, Cal., for a short stay.

The Misses Jose and Marie Sorenson have returned from a trip along the Pacific coast, extending from Vancouver to Los Angeles.

Dr. H. P. Kirtley was the guest last Sunday of Dr. Robert R. Hampton in Brighton.

Miss Abbie Bishop left Monday to spend three weeks on a ranch near Laramie, Wyo.

Miss Geneva Snow returned this week from spending the summer on the Pacific coast.

Eugene Traugotter returned to Goldfield Saturday after spending a few days in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence and her two children are in Provo on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers left the first of the week for the east. They will tour New England, Canada and the St. Lawrence country and will be away some weeks.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith and daughter Margaret left the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. Mont Perry at Brighton.

Mrs. A. B. Irvine returned last week from Long Beach, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Cannon left for Wasatch, where they will occupy the Cannon cottage for a short time.

Miss Sybil Walker returned last week from a visit to San Francisco and Oakland.

Mrs. J. E. Kerwin left Wednesday for Kennett, Cal., where she will visit her son.

Mrs. W. K. Gartside, accompanied by her daughter Evelyn, lately returned from an eastern trip.

Miss Edith Bracken is here from her home in Ohio spending a part of the summer with her brother, Dr. Bracken.

Miss Annie Levy left for New York lately, whence she will sail for Europe, visiting England, Germany, France and Holland.

Colonel and Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood left Saturday morning for the east.

Mrs. E. B. Ellerbe left for Brighton Sunday to visit her daughters.

Mrs. Ernest A. Tripp, Miss Gwendoline Tripp and Lawrence Tripp left last Saturday night for Los Angeles and Long Beach to spend the next three weeks.

Mrs. Shepard A. Benson, who has been visiting Mrs. L. L. Downing for a few days, returned lately to her home in Denver.

Miss Mary C. May, who has been making the Yellowstone Park trip, ar-tended her daughter, while Rulon S. Smoot was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Atkin will reside in Milford where Mr. Atkin is in the mercantile business.

This new rule at the Country club limiting the number of invited guests at private dinner parties and luncheons, to six people, has caused some dissatisfaction among the patrons of that popular place of recreation.

Miss Helen Hartley, prominent in society circles here, is in Trinidad, Colo., the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Mary and William John. They entertained recently at a large card party in her honor. Miss Hartley is a talented amateur violinist.

Miss Chloe Nelson, the accomplished pianist, is visiting her father, Mr. Nelson, at his home in Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Philip E. Jones have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Winona, and Austin Pack Larabee to take place Wednesday, Aug. 21, at 3:30 in St. Mark's cathedral.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden will soon be located at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Cross on Thirteenth East street.

Last Sunday evening Mrs. William Shonert entertained at dinner for M. C. Cowley and son of Chicago.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. S. Lewis to Robert Livingston. The wedding takes place Aug. 22.

H. J. Fitzgerald has purchased the McClain residence on South Temple street. He expects Mrs. Fitzgerald and the children from Chicago soon.

Mrs. Charles Rookledge gave a delightful tea last Sunday evening for Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr who left this week for her home in Riverside, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Smith will make their home at 615 east Fifth South street.

Mrs. J. J. Buswell sailed from London for home yesterday. She has been traveling in Europe several months.

Mrs. W. W. Kiser entertained Wednesday at the Country club for Mrs. Samuel C. Adams of Denver. The invited guests were Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland, Mrs. W. B. Allen, Mrs. William H. Cunningham and Mrs. William P. Platt. The table was brilliant with tastefully arranged.

Mrs. J. E. Marshall entertained informally Wednesday afternoon in honor of two visiting young ladies, Miss Foote of Red Wing, Minn., and Miss Campbell of the Pacific northwest.

George T. Odell was one of a number who took motor parties up to Davis county last Sunday. Besides members of the family, Miss Pringle was one of the party. They visited Miss Lucy Grant, who is spending the summer at Farmington.

Miss Virginia Reilly, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, will enter school at Dana Hall, a preparatory school for Wellesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Cain entertained last Tuesday night at a dinner at the Commercial club for their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cain of Chicago, who have been visiting here. Covers were laid for 19.

The Sewing club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Estelle Clinton.

Mrs. William Niles of Laporte, Ind., formerly Mrs. George Loomis and well known in Salt Lake, spent a few days in the city lately visiting friends. She returned east on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence Townsend entertained at a lake party last Tuesday in honor of her sons, Lawrence and Reginald who are at home from school the one from Ann Arbor and the other from an English school. The party ate lunch on Antelope Island and upon their return to Saltair, dinner was served in the cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Smoot, Jr., gave a delightful reception on the evening of the 12th for Mr. and Mrs. Stanzas Atkin who were married that day at the Wilson hotel by deputy County Clerk David A. Smith. Mrs. J. E. Jensen, mother of the bride, attended.

Another pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Edith Mitchell and James Ralph Stuart which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver, cousins of the bride. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only a few friends and the relatives, was performed by Rev. Paden at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Edith Bracken, a cousin, attended the bride, the best man being George Chandler of Bingham. After a delicious luncheon the bride and groom left on a short wedding trip. They will be at home after Oct. 1 in Bingham.

The wedding of Miss Mary Searle to Albert Davis will take place in the early part of next month.

Salt Lake friends were delighted to greet this week the smiling face of D. R. Augsburg, one-time drawing supervisor in the city schools. He is now located in Oakland.

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Charles L. Smith, a foreman for the Rio Grande Western railway, and Miss Mabel Lemon, daughter of Mrs. Grace Lemon of 8 Boyd's court, who were married at the residence of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening. Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony. Following the service, a fine dinner was served, the bride and groom leaving on a honeymoon trip to Denver. On their return they will live at Fifth West and North Temple streets.

Miss Sarah Terrill has gone with a party of friends on a trip to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Forbes have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at the Oxford flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander McMillan entertained last Tuesday at Laguna on the occasion of the outing of the G. A. R. The luncheon was served in the grand stand and was in honor of Department Commander Alfred Kent and wife. The decorations were flags and red ribbons with centerpieces of carnations. The place cards were small silk flags, with the names of the guests printed thereon. Among those present were Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, Col. and Mrs. Squires and others.

Miss Margaret Walker will leave about the middle of September for New York where she will enter Miss Bennett's school on the Hudson.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Katherine Mellstrup and John D. Schied, which took place Wednesday morning, the 14th, at St. Paul's rectory, the Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. Only the families were present. The bride wore a pretty blue-gray broadcloth traveling dress with hat to match. After a short stay at the Hotel, the young couple will be at home at the Mellstrup residence on Second avenue while the family is abroad.

Mrs. A. C. Wherry entertained the

Miss Kitties Harris left Friday for Portland and Seattle, to visit friends for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Second avenue, have as their guests, Mrs. A. B. Cain and daughter, Miss Mona, of Atchison, Kan.

Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey has returned from Brighton, where she was the guest of Mrs. Morris L. Richie.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown are visiting friends in Cleveland.

Miss Ellen Thomas of Ogden is visiting friends in Salt Lake, having recently returned from New York, where she has spent the past three years studying music.

Mrs. Harold Russell left Thursday for New York, after a visit of several weeks at the Dwyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker and family left on Wednesday for a camping trip on the Snake river, in Idaho.

Miss Florence Grant returned Monday evening from a visit of a few days in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brothers will shortly be at home in their new home, 1172 east First South street.

Mrs. W. S. Earis is expected shortly from a month spent in southern Utah.

Mrs. Sal Siegel and her son Alfred and her brother, Dr. William of Baltimore, left Sunday evening for Alaska to be away the rest of the summer.

Miss Helen Redall has gone to Los Angeles and will remain at the coast for the winter.

have been traveling in the Philippines, China and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander McMillan entertained last Tuesday at Laguna on the occasion of the outing of the G. A. R. The luncheon was served in the grand stand and was in honor of Department Commander Alfred Kent and wife. The decorations were flags and red ribbons with centerpieces of carnations. The place cards were small silk flags, with the names of the guests printed thereon. Among those present were Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, Col. and Mrs. Squires and others.

Miss Margaret Walker will leave about the middle of September for New York where she will enter Miss Bennett's school on the Hudson.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Katherine Mellstrup and John D. Schied, which took place Wednesday morning, the 14th, at St. Paul's rectory, the Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. Only the families were present. The bride wore a pretty blue-gray broadcloth traveling dress with hat to match. After a short stay at the Hotel, the young couple will be at home at the Mellstrup residence on Second avenue while the family is abroad.

Mrs. A. C. Wherry entertained the

Miss Kitties Harris left Friday for Portland and Seattle, to visit friends for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Second avenue, have as their guests, Mrs. A. B. Cain and daughter, Miss Mona, of Atchison, Kan.

Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey has returned from Brighton, where she was the guest of Mrs. Morris L. Richie.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown are visiting friends in Cleveland.

Miss Ellen Thomas of Ogden is visiting friends in Salt Lake, having recently returned from New York, where she has spent the past three years studying music.

Mrs. Harold Russell left Thursday for New York, after a visit of several weeks at the Dwyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker and family left on Wednesday for a camping trip on the Snake river, in Idaho.

Miss Florence Grant returned Monday evening from a visit of a few days in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brothers will shortly be at home in their new home, 1172 east First South street.

Mrs. W. S. Earis is expected shortly from a month spent in southern Utah.

Mrs. Sal Siegel and her son Alfred and her brother, Dr. William of Baltimore, left Sunday evening for Alaska to be away the rest of the summer.

Miss Helen Redall has gone to Los Angeles and will remain at the coast for the winter.

The Misses Lydia and Pearl Jones of Provo have been in Salt Lake this week visiting their sister, Mrs. W. C. A. Smoot, Jr. Miss Pearl has just returned from a seven months' tour of Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunker of Santa Ana, Cal., were here for two or three days last week visiting with old friends.

Miss Jean Odell has been visiting friends in Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller and their friends the Meads of Chicago are touring the Scottish Highlands in an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., and sons have returned from a trip through Yellowstone park.

Mrs. John C. Daly and baby returned Sunday from a visit in Laramie, Wyoming.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood and her daughter Edgarda returned this week from a 10 days' stay in Brighton.

Miss Clara Colburne and Miss Martha Humphrey, who are now in Paris, sail Aug. 24, for New York.

Mrs. New Knight of Provo was in town this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. June Clark.

Miss Cora Snyder is visiting friends in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Nora Shookell has returned from a visit with friends in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley of California were in Salt Lake last Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bransford.

Fred C. Searff, a well known druggist formerly of Salt Lake, now of Chicago, was in town this week for a few days.

Mrs. H. A. Whitney and children, Virginia and Frank, with Mrs. Therman, have returned from a month's trip to Portland and other places of interest in the northwest.

Mrs. Dickert and son Gilbert returned Tuesday from a visit with Mrs. J. G. Sawyer at Hailay, Idaho.

Mrs. C. F. Miller and her daughter Florence are here from St. Louis, visiting Mr. Engler at 237 East First South street.

Miss Elsa Greene, a former teacher at Rowland Hall, is traveling in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eldredge, who have been the guests this summer of Mrs. Chloe Eldredge on First South street, will return to Munich next month.

Miss Jeannette Yundt left this week for Pacific Grove, Cal., for a short stay.

The Misses Jose and Marie Sorenson have returned from a trip along the Pacific coast, extending from Vancouver to Los Angeles.

Dr. H. P. Kirtley was the guest last Sunday of Dr. Robert R. Hampton in Brighton.

Miss Abbie Bishop left Monday to spend three weeks on a ranch near Laramie, Wyo.

Miss Geneva Snow returned this week from spending the summer on the Pacific coast.

Eugene Traugotter returned to Goldfield Saturday after spending a few days in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence and her two children are in Provo on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers left the first of the week for the east. They will tour New England, Canada and the St. Lawrence country and will be away some weeks.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith and daughter Margaret left the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. Mont Perry at Brighton.

Mrs. A. B. Irvine returned last week from Long Beach, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Cannon left for Wasatch, where they will occupy the Cannon cottage for a short time.

Miss Sybil Walker returned last week from a visit to San Francisco and Oakland.

Mrs. J. E. Kerwin left Wednesday for Kennett, Cal., where she will visit her son.

Mrs. W. K. Gartside, accompanied by her daughter Evelyn, lately returned from an eastern trip.

Miss Edith Bracken is here from her home in Ohio spending a part of the summer with her brother, Dr. Bracken.

Miss Annie Levy left for New York lately, whence she will sail for Europe, visiting England, Germany, France and Holland.

Colonel and Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood left Saturday morning for the east.

Mrs. E. B. Ellerbe left for Brighton Sunday to visit her daughters.

Mrs. Ernest A. Tripp, Miss Gwendoline Tripp and Lawrence Tripp left last Saturday night for Los Angeles and Long Beach to spend the next three weeks.

Mrs. Shepard A. Benson, who has been visiting Mrs. L. L. Downing for a few days, returned lately to her home in Denver.

Miss Mary C. May, who has been making the Yellowstone Park trip, ar-

have been traveling in the Philippines, China