EDITORIAL NOTES.

Farmers in some parts of Ohio report that a worm is at work about the first joint of the wheat stalk, and serious damage is feared.

The Supreme Court of Nebraska has ruled that a non-transferable ticket, if sold to a third party, cannot be seized by a conductor from the holder on the ground of breach of contract, the holder being entitled to possession in order that he may recover the amount paid for it from the vendor.

Richard A. Proctor, forsaking the elevated pursuits of astronomy, is now writing letters to the London press on the subject of woman's dress. He married an American woman a few years ago, and probably his experience with dress-makers' bills has convinced the eminent scientist that he had previously underrated the importance of the problems connected the ewith.

The number of suicides in the German army has of late been increasing at an alarming rate. In 1879 there were 195, in 1880 the number rose to 250, and in 1881 to 262. During the two years last named the total number was divided among the different ranks as follow.: Eighteen sergeant-majors, forty sergeants, sixty-nine corporals and 356 privates. The majority of the cases of suicide occurred in the Eleventh Army Corps (Hesse Nassau).

Mexico is seeking prominence in the silk manufacturing industry among her other enterprises. The Mexican Industrial Society has been organized to cultivate the mulberry tree and to promote the raising of silk worms in different localities. Twenty establishments for providing raw material are to be started, and a silk mill built "with all the latest improvements." The subsidy amounts to $1,200 for ten years to each of the twenty establishments, and $600, besides the land, "to all colonies established to assist in this industry."

The British House of Lords has at last passed the bill to permit a man to marry his deceased wife's sister. This measure has given rise to more controversy, perhaps, than any that has been before Parliament for many years. It has been chiefly opposed by the clergy of the Established Church, and has therefore been attacked with a pig-headedness and absence of good sense characteristic of the cloth. Neither reason nor Scripture can be successfully urged against such a marriage, and it is probable that the foolish obstacles placed in its way in England will now be removed.

SOME QUEER OBJECTIONS.

THE Bishop of Gibraltar writes to the London Times a strange letter about Monte Carlo, the great gambling place. There was a scheme on foot for the erection of an English church at this headquarters of bad morals. The Bishop says that the place contains the very scum of all Europe, and that its morals are so bad that there is no use of trying to plant a church there. Therefore he declines to give his sanction to the proposed enterprise. It is suggested that in this the Bishop takes curious ground. It is generally held by promulgators of the gospel that the worse a community is the greater is the reason for planting a church there. But the dignitary of Gibraltar is not more inconsistent than some of the religious leaders in this country. We notice an article in the New York Independent about "Mormon" missionary work, in which one of the complaints urged is that our Elders go among the most ignorant people in the Southern States; that they make converts among the poor and degraded of Europe; and that the people seen in the "Mormon" tabernacle at Conference were "born into low plebeian estate and have lived at the bottom of the social scale."

These are singular remarks coming from persons professing to be followers of the Nazarene. Did He come from the top of "the social scale." Did He select men of aristocratic estate for His disciples? Is it not written that "the common people heard Him gladly." And the Apostles declared that it was "the weak things of the earth" whom God had called "to confound the mighty."

We acknowledge that the masses of the "Mormon" people are of "plebeian origin;" that they are of the industrial classes, whether of the old world or the new; that they are sons and daughters of toil; that the kid-gloved and daintily raised dudes and dudelets of society are not likely to take very kindly to an unpopular faith, and so remain to ornament the churches of modern apostate Christendom; and that now as of old; not many mighty, not many learned after this world hath God called to His great work on earth.

And yet it is "a marvellous work and a wonder." "The wisdom of the wise," when directed against it, "perishes," and before it "the understanding of the prudent is hid." It accomplishes grand results and moves onward in spite of all opposition. Why? Because its people and leaders are so highborn, shrewd and powerful? No. But because God is in it. "The poor" again "have the Gospel preached to them," they rejoice in the Holy One of Israel, and the great cause will accomplish that which is designed, and triumph over all opposition from the wise, the learned, the rich, the mighty and the proud, and Jehovah will have all the glory of the grand consummation. "It is His work and it is marvellous in our eyes!"

THE LATEST COMMISSIONERS' JUDICIAL RULING.

OUR readers are aware that the Utah Commissioners have rendered an Opinion—taking the position of a Court, that certain Territorial officers are not to be elected by the people and that the laws providing for their election are void. The People's Territorial Central Committee desired to know what would be the action of the Commissioners if the names of the Territorial officers to be elected under the Utah law were placed on the ticket at the general election in August, and therefore addressed the following:

OFFICE OF PEOPLE'S TERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
SALT LAKE CITY, June, 29, '83.

To the Honorable Utah Commission:

Gentlemen:—The undersigned on behalf of the People's Territorial Central Committee, respectfully request an answer from your honorable body, to the following questions: Will voting for, at next general election in this Territory, candidates for the offices of Territorial Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Superintendent of District Schools and Commissioners to Locate University Lands, upon the same ballots with candidates for members of the Legislative Assembly and county and precinct officers invalidate such ballots entirely; or will such ballots be counted for members of the Legislative Assembly, and for county and precinct officers, and the voting for candidates for Territorial officers, be treated as surplusage. Awaiting your reply I have the honor to be

Very respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
JOHN SHARP,
Chairman People's Territorial Central Committee.

The following reply has been received:

SALT LAKE CITY.
July 2d, 1883.

Hon. John Sharp, Chairman People's Territorial Committee, Salt Lake City, Utah:

SIR—In reply to your communication of June 29th, 1883, I am directed by the Utah Commission to state that ballots voted at the coming election (August 6th, 1883,) containing the names of candidates for other offices than those designated to be filled by the Commission will be rejected and not counted for any purpose.

I am, very respectfully;
ARTHUR L. THOMAS,
Secretary of Utah Territory.

In this the Commission have not only set themselves against the Territorial laws under which they are required to have the elections conducted, but have gone back on their ruling of last October in regard to the unexpired term for Delegate. They did not then recognize the validity of the election for that term, but announced that if the name of the candidate was placed on the ballots, although no counting would take place for such candidate, yet it would not invalidate the regular tickets. This is a peculiar freak, but it is not without an ulterior object. However, we do not think that object will be achieved.

A POOR GUESS.

THE Chicago Inter-Ocean informs its readers that

"There has been for several years a compact existing between the Mormon Church and the Democratic leaders, by the terms of which a Democratic Congress is to admit Utah, the Church to return the favor by permitting the election of a Democrat as one of the United States Senators from Utah."

"Go from home to hear the news." We know nothing of any such compact, and we are of the opinion that this is but a guess made by the Inter-Ocean. It is not a very shrewd one either. There is no bottom to it. Besides why should the "Mormons" promise "the election of one Democrat as a Senator, when there would be sure to be two returned if Utah were admitted as a Democratic State? Republican organs may keep cool on this question. There is no need to worry about Utah's Statehood. We don't believe there is courage enough to face the tide of sectarian wrath, and meet the fury of the priests who have dictated to Congress on this question, to give Utah the political position to which she is fully entitled.

Apply the same tests and principles to Utah's admission that have ruled in regard to other States, and she would go into the Union no matter whether the Republicans or the Democrats happened to be in the majority. But the preachers will not allow it, and Congressmen are so influenced by the interference of the Church with the State that they dare not act on their convictions. Every well informed member of either House knows full well that there is not a legal or constitution barrier in the way of Utah's statehood, and that no argument has been presented against it which, will stand the light of five minutes sound reasoning. It is only prejudice—religious prejudice, that keeps her out of her rightful position, and we believe this will be almost as potent in paralysing the action of the Democrats as it has been in forcing the Republicans to measures that cannot be defended on rightful and constitutional grounds.

The Inter-Ocean need not fear. While Church conventions and conferences and assemblies can dictate to Congress, as they did in the matters of the Edmunds bill and the exclusion of Delegate Cannon, there is no danger that either political party will have the temerity to run against the tide of religious intolerance by admitting Utah into the Union. "Church and State" must be entirely divorced in Congress before there will be independence enough in that body to deal out evenhanded justice and stand firm on constitutional principles. The Inter-Ocean's guess is a poor and groundless one.

INTOLERANCE IN NORWAY.

WE learn from Elder H. A. Hansen, President of the Christiana Conference, in Norway, that the liberty and toleration which Norwegian papers a short time ago stated had been extended to the Latter-day Saints, are not yet enjoyed in that country. A petition was introduced in the Norwegan Parliament, by Messrs. Berner and Sparre, members of the church committee of the lower House, with this object in view, but it proceeded no further. A preacher by the name of Jacob Sverdrup, who was chairman of that committee, opposed the petition, told some abominable untruths about the Saints and their doctrines, and declared that the "Mormons could never have religious toleration in Norway." Mr. E. N. Berner did all that lay in his power to press the petition, and was the only member who dared to stand up for religious freedom for the Latter-day Saints in common with other believers in the Christian faith. Notwithstanding this, the Saints in Norway are holding meetings, and the Elders are preaching the Gospel with good success.

Lynched.

LOUISIANA, Mo., 2.—Bill McDowell, the negro arrested on Thursday charged with outrage upon Miss Kate Murray, of this city, was taken to jail at Bowling Green. Early this morning a party of masked men from this vicinity went to Bowling Green, broke into the jail, secured the prisoner, and after extorting a full confession, hung him. The negro also confessed having fled from Southern Missouri on account of a similar crime there. Subsequently the body was taken to Louisiana where it was again hung up and photographed, then taken down and its head cut off. McDowell confessed the crime and said he had served a term in the penitentiary.

He Tries Poison.

CINCINNATI, 2.—A special from Brazil, Ind., says: Sanders who was convicted of murdering his wife, was sentenced to imprisonment for life on Saturday. He tried to kill himself by poison after his sentence, but failed.

Critical Condition of Elam.

RICHMOND, Va., 2.—Information this morning from Stephen Lewis' residence in Rockhampton County, where Mr. Elam was taken after being wounded, is that the wound is much more aggravated than at first reported and that Elam's condition is critical. The ball struck near the right hip, passed inward and downward through the body and lodged in the left thigh, passing in its course very near the bladder. The ball was extracted last evening.

Killed with a Revolver.

Auburn, N. Y., 2.—Abram Coppernoll, a farmer of the town of Victory, was shot three times with a large navy revolver yesterday, by Lew French, a young farm laborer. Suspected intimacy with Coppernoll's wife caused the trouble. The wife was present at the shooting and ordered French to fire, both are under arrest. The victim will die, all three shots took effect in the body.

Large Fire in London.

LONDON, 2.—The establishment of Proctor & Bevington, glue and size makers at 124 Grange Road, Bermondsey, suburb of London, is on fire. The tenants of a large number of small houses in the neighborhood have hastily removed their effects. The fire is one of the largest in that vicinity for many years.

The Dying Count.

Paris, 2.—The Monarchists assembled this morning at the house of Marquis De Dœux Brezé to consider their course in the event of the death of the Count de Chambord. A consultation of physicians was to be held at the Frolvisdorff Court residence, and if there was any hope a telegram was to be sent to Paris. As no news has been received up to noon the worst is feared.

It is stated that the relapse of the Count de Chambord is due to the bursting out of an internal tumor. Clarens, says: The case of the Count is not quite hopeless. News of the Count's illness caused great excitement in Paris yesterday. Many persons presumed he was actually dead.

Ravages of the Cholera in Egypt.

Alexandria, 2.—The number of deaths from cholera at Damietta yesterday was 141. There were also 14 deaths at Mansunah and 5 at Port Said on Sunday from the same disease.
