Uncertainty of the Issue

Negotiations regarding the con-gress and the withdrawal of the British fleet and Russian troops from near Constantinople have not yet led to any result, and it is con-sidered unfortunate that Bismarck and Gortschakoff have fallen ill at this critical luncture. In the un-BY this critical juncture. In the un-certainty of the issue of the your parters the Russians are strength-ening their positions, and advices from various points say there is considerable movements of troops toward Constantinople and Galli-poil.

Completing the Lines.

A Vienna correspondent says: At Tchabdja, 30 miles northeast of Constantinople, 2,000 sappers and 8,000 infantry are at work turning and completing the lines thrown up, by the Turks along the whole line from Hademhol and Derkoson, Black Sea. A good many of the slege guns belouging to the Turks remain there and 100 heavy guns and 80 mortans are expected from Odessa.
