

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, and no responsibility for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elders Jonathan C. Wright and L. C. Harrington addressed the congregation.

In the afternoon Elder Lorenzo Snow occupied the time. His remarks were reported.

THEATRICAL.—"Cinderella" was again produced to a large house on Saturday evening. This evening Tom Taylor's excellent and famous comedy, "Our American Cousin," will be presented with a strong cast. Madame Scheller plays Florence Trenchard; Mr. Margetts, Asa Trenchard; Mr. Graham, Lord Dundreary; Miss Adams, Mary, and Mr. Hardie, Abel Murcott. The rest of the characters are equally well distributed. This amusing comedy needs no recommendation on our part, its popularity is world-renowned and in this country it has become historical. The dialogue is exceedingly sparkling and witty.

"The Lottery of Life" is now underlined and will shortly be produced. This new sensation drama, written by John Brougham, created a tremendous sensation in New York last year. The cast will be a good one, and it will be placed upon the boards here with great care and new scenery. The drama follows in the track of "Cinderella's Castle." "A Flash of Lightning" and other sensational dramas of the same description.

In order to give time for a full and complete rehearsal of the great sensational play "The Lottery of Life," the Theatre will be closed to-morrow evening.

POLICE.—George Bond for committing an assault on Ezra Martin was fined $15.

There was one "drunk," who this morning enriched the city treasury with $10.

A couple, masculine and feminine, for attempting to introduce practically the "civilization" known throughout Christendom as "the social evil," were fined respectively $50 and $25, the masculine paying the larger amount.

The police made another raid last night on the gambling institution over the National Bank, and one member of the "sporting" fraternity was fined this morning in $100.

PROVO.—A correspondent informs us that Alderman E. F. Sheets has been engaged the past week in investigating charges presented against some individuals in Provo for selling whisky without license. Two have been found guilty, and fined one hundred dollars each. Good for Provo! We mean the vigilance and fining, not the selling of the whisky.

FROM GEORGIA.—Elder J. W. Crosby, writing to Elder Lorenzo Snow, from Rome, Ga., on the 30th ult., says he has been in the South about one year, traveling through Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. He has found friends, and met with kind treatment. His congregations are good, but few believe the testimonies of him and the brethren traveling in those regions.

Elder Crosby has had 1,000 copies of the tract "The only way to be saved," written by Elder L. Snow, struck off in Rome, for gratuitous distribution among the people.

SAN PETE CO.—By letter from Brother Rees R. Llewellyn, of Fountain Green, Sanpete Co., we are informed that considerable snow has fallen at that point, but between that place and Moroni the roads are bare; it rained at the latter place when it snowed at Moroni. At the date of this letter, Friday, the 15th, it was snowing very hard at Fountain Green. A co-operative mercantile society had been started at that place, and a brass band had been organized under the leadership of Mr. William Woodward.

DIED.—At Fountain Green, Sanpete county, Monday, January 11th, 1900, Mary, wife of the late Edward Colliard, of child birth. She was 39 years of age.

RETURNED.—J. P. Wright, one of the brethren who went on a mission to Sweden in 1893, called to see us this morning, having returned to this city recently. Brother Wright says that he had a pretty hard time in Sweden and was very glad to reach his home and friends in Utah again.

LITERATURE.—Mr. Dwyer, Railroad News Depot, has received Harper's Monthly for February, and No. 4 of Heath and Home. The present number of the railroad periodicals are worthy of their character.

MILITARY REUNION.—Major R. W. Allred writing from Springtown, on the 11th inst., says that the officers and men composing the military of that place had a good time together on the evening of the 8th inst. The room in which the party was held was decorated with portraits of the principal military men of the nation, past and present. Addresses were delivered, and peace, good order, harmony and hilarity were characteristic of the entire proceedings. It was decided that on the 8th of January 1870 a meeting of a like nature should again be held.

Day and evening schools are going along in Springtown, both old and young folk attending and supporting them.

NUT CULTURE.—The January number of Honey's Journal has a short article on nut growing which possesses interest for the people of Utah. The writer says it is surprising that with the national love of gain and the general appreciation of beautiful trees for shade and ornament, there are so few places where nut-bearing trees have been adopted for planting in place of the maple, elm or linden. The chestnut, butternut, black walnut and Madonia nut, where the climate will admit, are all beautiful as shade ornamental trees. They grow rapidly and come into bearing usually from the seventh to the tenth year from seed. He maintains that as a paying productive crop, and as a permanent investment, nut growing with little or no labor in the cultivation, pruning, etc., he knows of nothing more reliable than an orchard of nut-bearing trees. Figures are cited in support of the assertion, including fair quotations of the price of nuts and the average crop usually obtained from the various trees. The subject is worthy the attention of our citizens. We import considerable nuts, and should grow them, for we have the facilities not only for the home market, but for exportation as well.

INDIANS IN MONTANA.—The Helena Gazette, of the 5th inst., has a letter from a gentleman, one of twelve men who were attacked by some three hundred Sioux within seven miles of Fort Peck. They fought the Indians a running fight for half a mile when one of their men was killed and they had to make a stand. Four of the twelve were killed, scalped and horribly mutilated; the other eight contrived to get away. The Sioux said they would kill every white man from Fort Union to Benton, and then, and then, also, fighting the Crow and Gros Ventres.

NOTES.

Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each or either of the said trips, not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture.

Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a post office, for suffering it to be injured, destroyed, robbed or lost, or for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor routes, or is concerned in running, vehicles on the route.

The Postmaster General may cancel the contract for disobeying the post office laws, or the instructions of the Department. He may alter the schedule of departures and arrivals, and also order an increase of service, or allowing therefore a retainer on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at a pro rata decrease of the contract pay.

Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," supervised "Proposals, Utah Territory, and sent by MAIL.

For forms of proposal, etc., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices.

ALEX. W. RANDALL, Postmaster General.
