LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Assistant General Freight Agent Will Attend to all Freight Business as Heretofore.

There will be no change in the freight department of the Oregon Short Line for the present. Shippers and merchants will as heretofore transact all their freight business with Assistant General Freight Agent J. A. Reeves. Such is the information which was imparted by J. A. Munroe, freight traffic manager of the Union Pacific, ere he boarded the train for Omaha at 12:30 this afternoon. Mr. Munroe stated that he had thought that everything was running along smoothly at the general offices of the Oregon Short Line. He said that if there were any change under contemplation, such as the appointment of a traffic manager to take the place of S. W. Eccles, who recent-ly resigned to accept a similar position with the American Smelting & Refining company, or the naming of general freight agent to take charge of aaffirs, that it was all news to him. He stated emphatically that he had heard nothing said in regard to the matter during the meeting, which was held in this city at the early part of this

There is a practically unanimous sen timent among the business men of this city that a better selection than Mr. Reeves could not be made to look after their traffic business. He has lived in this city for a number of years, is thoroughly conversant with the idio-syncrasies of some of the shippers and is liked generally in all business cir-cles. Under the present order of things Mr. Reeves is to all intents and purposes the general freight agent of the Dregon Short Line Up to the last minute this morning

Mr. Munroe was closeted with Mr. Reeves and D. R. Gray, the local agent of the Southern Pacific, outlining the policy for business and attending to traffic affairs generally.

ORDER OF THE BATH.

John Burleigh Installed ere He Left for New York on Wednesday.

John Burleigh, the newly appointed claim agent for the American Smelting & Refining company, ere he resigned from his position with the Oregon Short Line was installed with due eclat as a member of the Order of the Bath. The trysting place of the conspirators was out at White Lake, and the principals in the function were Messrs. Safford, McPherson and John Burleigh.

As soon as the new claim agent received the news of his appointment in New York he determined to celebrate agent of the Michigan Central railway, is a man whose ambtion in life was been ruthlessly blasted by the simoon breath of adverse fate, but so it is. Many years ago he was working in a subordinate position whose duties in cluded sweeping floors in the ticket of fice at Michigan City. He swept those floors with the spirit of Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., and was happy in the consciousness of a daily task well done but he was more happy in the contem-plation of the beautiful yellow cars of the line as they rushed through. To him those cars were the perfection of loveliness. Others might adopt the pro-verbial "little red, wasar, in the proverbial "little red wagon' as their standard of prettiness, but his was a big yellow railroad car. He often sala to the ticket agent that it was his am bitton in life to be general passenger agent of the yellow cars, and he kept that sweet saffron prospect ever before "Time passed, as time has a way of general passenger agent-and two months after his appointment the president of the road gave orders that the cars were to be painted olive green." SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

Some Important Changes in Board of Directors Expected in a Few Days.

New York, March 7 .- The Commercial Advertiser today has the following: There is good reason to expect some importtant changes in the board of directors of the Southern Pacific railroad within the next few days. When the board meets to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Director John D. Probst it is likely that other vacancies created by resignations in order to make places for Unon Pacific representatives. It is expected that E. H. Harriman, who is chairman of the Union Pacific board, will have an influence voice in reorganizing the Southern Paelfle board. President Chas. M. Hays has been asked by the nwe owners of the Southern Pacific to remain as the executive head of the system and there is no pectation of any material change in the executive staff of the road. Considerable guessing has been done regarding the probable successor of H. E. Huntington as vice president, but nothing definite has bene known on that point There is a special significance in the control of the Pacific Mail Steamship company. Soon after Collis P. Runtingtotn died George J. Gould and his friends undertook to make E. H. Harriman president of the Pacific Mail company. In order to prevent this the Speyer and Huntington interests then in control of the Southern Pacific system, induced Southern Pacific directors to buy the control of the steamship company outright. Now that both companies are controlled by the Harriman syndicate the question arises whether Mr. Gould's plan of making Mr. Harri-man president will be carried out.

epidemic than had ever been experi-enced in this State; an1 to meet such a condition, the board was unanimous in the expression that its power should be increased rather than diminished. The medicos said the belief in the efficacy of vaccination, and a correct knowledge of its preventive merits, were being more generally appreciated by the public.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that all people who fail to report new cases of smallpox to the local health officers and boards, and the latter in turn to the State board, would be prose-cuted. The board was of the firm opinon that there were many cases disease throughout the State that never have been reported.

The biennial report of the board was which states that the various lo cal boards in the State had placed their organizations in good working order, and from this on reliable records will be kept, so that from the begin-ning of 1902, statistics will be forthcoming according to law

The statement that the board had not been meeting often enough was broached, and it was claimed that five meetings had been held. Some meetings were called, but on account of no quorum being present, they were never held; and as an excuse for this, it was said that some of the members live a long way from Salt Lake and could no always come. This point will be brought to the Governor's attention when he reorganizes the new board, as it is thought best to appoint members who live near the capital. Those in attendance at yesterday's meeting were: Dr. Beatty, Dr. Wilcox of Nepbi, Dr. Cannon and Mr. Doremus. The term of Dr. Taylor, who lives at Dinchem has while and Dr. Bika of Bingham, has expired, and Dr. Pike of Provo has resigned because of ill health. Dr. Bascom, the president of the board, is in Europe.

NEW SMALLPOX CASES.

The record shows but one case of smallpox was reported to the health board yesterday, which is that of Catherine Rich, aged 73, of 544 south Fourth East street. The State board were yesterday afternoon notified of the following cases: Provo, 3; Brig-ham City 2, Cache Junction 2, and Pleasant View and vicinity 25 cases,

SCHOOL TAX MEETINGS.

One Held at the Webster and Another at the Franklin.

Two meetings of persons interested in the continuance of the schools were held last evening to consider the present measure before the Legislature which proposes to increase the school taxes of the State four mills. About 150 parents and pupils of the Webster school gathered in one of the school rooms of that building, and after the unveiling of a beautiful statute of Hebe, which the pupils had purchased, and an appropriate address for the occasion was delivered by Mrs. Elliott, and the responding thereto by Principal Keeler, the meeting took up the special object of the gathering and discussed the question stated above. Superintendent Cooper, President Newman and Mr Glauque, of the board of education, addressed those present, favoring the proposition. Quite a number in agtendance asked questions concerning the proposed law and its workings, were evidently satisfactorily anwhich swered by the speakers. A resolution was adopted, asking the Legislature to pass House bill No. 167, now pending before it, and Judge George M. Goodwin was designated to present the mat-ter to that body.

A similar meeting, addressed by the same parties, was held in the Franklin chool, and a comm James Hegney, J. W. Ashton and J. A.

just one last duck hunt ere proceeding to Gotham and settling down to hard work at the desk. Accordingly the three employes of the Oregon Short Line named shouldered their guns and hied themselves even unto White Lake on the west side in search of the festive duck. All the afternoon they tramped through the mud without securing feather and at length late in the day they halted on the brink of a canal to figure out the best way to get across dry shod. As McPherson was the only member of the party who was the bla-tant possessor of a pair of hip boots, he volunteered to carry the other two across. Spafford made the trip in safety and then it became Burleigh's turn. The doughty little Englishman proceeded triumphantly until the center of the canal was reached when McPherson in advertantly stepped into a rat hole and then Burleigh disappeared from view " coame up smiling, first, wearing Ma. his luxuriant locks gaily festooned with aquatic botanical specimens. By the time Burleigh's frame had fairly tled down in the mud under two feet of water, Mac was addressing broad Scottish idioms to the horrizon in general. The life-saving corps was hastly organized and the claim agent rescued. to be stretched out on the bank and energetically groomed down with sprays of sagebrush, while Spafford built a fire out of a couple of old bar-rels that some duck hunters had throughtfully left behind.

It is said that the subsequent walk home under the hays of the moon was a most distant and uncomfortable affair, and that some of the remarks in dulged in by all concerned were candid and to the point.

NEW GEYSER.

Birth of New Big Spouter in Yellowstone Park Announced.

The following circular letter to general and district passenger agents an-nouncing the birth of a new and siu-pendous geyser at Lower Geyser Basin, Yellowstone Park, has been received in this city:

At 5 o'clock on the morning of Feb. 19, James King, the winter hotel-keeper at Fountain hotel, situated in Lower Geyser Basin, forty miles south from ummoth hot springs, was awakened by a noise similar to the explosion of a powder magazine. The shock was so severe that during its continuance the dishes and kitchen utensils in the Fountain hotel kept up a constant rattle, although about a half mile distant. Upon rushing to the window Mr. King beheld the first eruption of a new geyer. The thermonieter registered 10 be-ow zero, and the hot water and steam thrown into the clear, cold atmospher. made a most spectacular sight."

The new geyser is about 200 yards, outh from the well known Fountain cyser, which in 1899 broke forth in a iew place and in splend'd cruption. states that upon its first erup. STOP THIS "HAZING"!

Shameful Conduct Permitted in One of Our City Schools,

To the Editor: There is danger lurking to some pupil or pupils at least in one of the city schools, even worse than the smallpox contagion and to which even vaccination is no preventive at all. It has been the practice for some time past in the school alluded to for the larger boys-in which pastime it is reported the principal is taking part-to single out some smaller boy, during recess, take hold of him and "heave" him six or ten feet into the air, and on his descending catching him in their clasped hands, but sometimes missing, and the victim is dropped to the ground. Yes terday (Thursday) a canvass had been procured, and a boy was caught in it; but the canvass ripped, and the boy went to the ground with a thud from which he was picked up more dead than alive, more scared than hurt, perhaps. The writer has boys attending this particular school, and is therefore some-what concerned about it: they are not what concerned about it; they are hot big enough to take part in and ap-preciate the "pleasure," but big enough to be the victims thereof. The principal is well thought of, both by parents and children, and is neither a snoh nor too proud to come down and take part in the boys' plays during recess. Proper healthful exercises are good for the children: that no one objects to and such should be encouraged. But in and such should be encouraged. The plays where the life and limbs of the pupils are in jeopardy, these should be discouraged. Principal C-, please stop this kind of "hazing." PARENT. this kind of "hazing."

HEALTH BOARD MEETS.

The State health board met yesterday afternoon in the office of its secretary, Dr. Beatty. After disposing of considerable business, routine in its character, the board passed some resolutions expressing its thanks and appreciation for what they term the man-ly stand Governor Wells took in resard to the McMillian bill.
