

FRAGMENTS. First heavy frost of the season last night. Lead quotations, New York, per 100 lbs., 31 1/2.

Judge Emerson came down from Ogden last evening. BUCKER & SON advertised to-day a issue for two cent-makers.

Z. B. S. monthly meeting will be held on Thursday evening. Civil business is the order of the day for a while in the District Court.

W. C. A. BRYAN and wife, of Nephi, Juab County, went north yesterday. Robert Day, of this city, will leave for Riverdale to-morrow, via the U. P.

CHAS. F. BROWN paid a 25 cent fine for being drunk, this morning. BROTH. E. T. OWENS is a town and honor with a visit to the morning.

There will be a rehearsal of "The Mikado" at the Theatre this evening, at 7 30. WM. BERRY, of Payson, will leave over the Union Pacific to-morrow, for Toiyabe, Utah.

Information of a West of Ogden, is in the city, looking well and full of energy over. J. M. DAVIDSON was taken to the City Hall while drunk, this morning.

Stock quotations, corrected daily by Wells, Fargo & Co., New York 303 1/2, London, 47 1/2. J. D. L. McALLISTER, of St. George, was a passenger on yesterday's south-bound Utah central train.

OSCAR F. HENNER, American Fork's general manager, came up on the Utah Central train last evening. JAS. W. STEVENS, of this city, will leave for Portland, Maine, via the Union Pacific, to-morrow.

KASPAR HOFFMAN and Chas. Henry Horn, natives of Switzerland, were admitted to citizenship to-day. FRED HOLT will be sentenced to death for the fourth time to-morrow.

It is reported that he will again appear in the Theatre, for being drunk and using profane and obscene language, was fined $10 this morning. The Theatre ushers will probably want an increase of salary, the North Carolina peanut crop is the largest for years.

MR. JAMES DWYER left for the East yesterday morning. The object of the trip is to purchase a large stock of holiday goods. We understand that a young man in the 2nd Ward by the name of R. J. Kuglit is suffering from a serious attack of diptheria.

An interesting incident. Last night, in the eighteenth Ward Chapel, Elder John Nicholson, on the invitation of Bishop O. F. Whitney, associated with his Counselors—Elders Robert Patrick and Wm. B. Barton—accompanied the brethren named to the Bishop's residence. Quite a large number of the ladies and gentlemen—many personal and highly esteemed friends of the principal guest, also assembled at the same place.

Bishop Whitney announced to those present that the occasion of the little gathering was the presentation to Brother Nicholson of a spontaneous token of esteem from a number of his personal friends. It consisted of a handsome purse, and was accompanied with the best wishes of the donors.

The presentation of the little gift was the occasion of the little gathering, was the presentation to Brother Nicholson of a spontaneous token of esteem from a number of his personal friends. It consisted of a handsome purse, and was accompanied with the best wishes of the donors.

It was not only surprised but absolutely overwhelmed at the evidence of good feeling and sympathy exhibited toward him, and it was not only surprised but absolutely overwhelmed at the evidence of good feeling and sympathy exhibited toward him, and it was not only surprised but absolutely overwhelmed at the evidence of good feeling and sympathy exhibited toward him.

Under the circumstances, coming in the manner in which he could not do otherwise than accept of the token of esteem so delicately and affectionately tendered. To do otherwise would be to manifest a disregard of a disinterested feeling of friendship that is more precious to him than the wealth of a lord.

Again at Liberty.—Brother James C. Watson, having served the period of imprisonment in the Penitentiary imposed upon him for the crime (?) of cohabiting with his wives, (the disconcerting fact is that he could not do otherwise than accept of the token of esteem so delicately and affectionately tendered.)

Under the circumstances, coming in the manner in which he could not do otherwise than accept of the token of esteem so delicately and affectionately tendered. To do otherwise would be to manifest a disregard of a disinterested feeling of friendship that is more precious to him than the wealth of a lord.

District Court.—In the Third District, Court to-day, in the case of Geo. Grant & Co. vs. E. J. Friedlander, the sureties on the attachment bond were relieved and exonerated.

Ada Seddon Appeal vs. Charles Henry Appleby; a decree of divorce was granted. The people, etc., vs. Robert Weston; attempt to commit rape on a four-year old girl, on the 3d of June last; trial by jury; verdict of guilty; sentence to be passed on Thursday.

Fire in Fountain Green.—Brother Lewis Anderson, writing to us from Fountain Green, Sanpete County, Utah, October 9th, says: "Yesterday, about 11 o'clock a.m., a fire broke out in our street, and soon spread and consumed the premises of Brother Andrew J. Agard. A new barn, just completed, was destroyed, stacks of grain estimated to contain six hundred bushels, forty tons of hay, and one wagon, were consumed. The loss will reach fully one thousand dollars.

Information Wanted.—"Ubique" writes the News as follows: "If a merchant found guilty at our court of selling a pound of goods, or a yard of the same, can he be tried for every time he has used that weight or measure? This is the nearest parallel I can find for more indictments than one for collaboration."

A Farewell Discourse.—It being understood by a number of people that Elder John Nicholson would speak in the Eighteenth Ward Chapel last evening, that he was crowded to excess. A large number had to turn away, being unable to gain admittance.

The principal topic of Elder Nicholson's discourse was the present position of the Church, and the course that should be pursued by the Saints in connection with it. After the conclusion of the services, a considerable time was occupied before the congregation dispersed from the building, in friendly and affectionate leave-taking of the speaker by the people present, it being understood that he goes to the Penitentiary to-morrow, for the sake of religion, conscience and eternal family ties.

The Situation at Rock Springs.—We have been shown a private letter written by a gentleman at Rock Springs from which we learn that matters still remain in a very unsettled condition there. He thinks the C. P. Company are making preparations to shut down the mines at that point if they have to let the Chinamen go, and that they are determined to get the Knights of Labor element out of the camp. A notice was stuck up on Sunday morning last, requesting all the white men engaged in the mines to cease operations, but this was unheeded.
