

SOCIETY

SOCIALS

A veritable mid-summer paralysis has hit the local social world. The intensity of the heat of the past few days has been such as to completely set aside all notion of entertaining beyond the giving of a few lake parties; which, by the way, have been more or less pretty and popular. A regular stampede to the mountains and water resorts has taken place and hundreds more are preparing to leave the city for the heated term. So the indications are that there will be little doing socially for the next several weeks.

A large party of Salt Laker left for Brighton yesterday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer and their family, who will occupy the Moyle cottage. Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper, Miss Pyper and Miss Hattie Whitney, who go to the Pyper bungalow, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney and their family, who will occupy their summer home. Major Richard W. Young has purchased the cottage built by Bishop Robert Brighton north of the hotel, and will move into it for several weeks during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates and their daughter, Miss Emma Lucy Gates, will camp out in the country near the hotel. Captain and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine have moved into their own home. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton and Mrs. H. M. Wells and their families went up this morning to stay over the 24th at the hotel. The Odell's will not visit Brighton this year, but have rented their two cottages to the Channing and Geary families.

Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert entertained a party of friends at Saltair on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Newhouse, who is visiting in this city. Among the guests who enjoyed the outing were Dr. and Mrs. I. E. Thorpe, Mrs. Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wither, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sawyer and Miss Elsie Dickert.

Creighton and Ross Brown gave a delightful lake party last evening for about 40 of their friends, in honor of Miss Grace Harrison and St. Hopkins. Mrs. S. S. Walker, Mrs. Simmons and Miss O. K. Lewis entertained about 25 of their friends at Walker's Farm on Thursday.

Mrs. George K. Hancock has issued invitations for a progressive luncheon to be given at her home next Thursday in honor of Miss Louise Walden, who is to be married Aug. 10.

Mrs. George Alris and Mrs. W. D. Donaher entertained yesterday at a large bridge tea at the Country club in honor of Mrs. P. Chester Thompson and Miss Minette Baer, who are visiting in the city.

The marriage of Miss Clella McCready and David A. Nelson, which took place on Wednesday at high noon, was the largest event of the week. The young couple left on the evening train for the Pacific coast to be gone about six weeks. On their return they will make their home in this city.

Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer, Mrs. Anna Jackson and Andrew B. Magnuson were married. Rev. Richard Wake officiating. About 25 guests witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Magnuson will reside in this city.

Miss May Price and Ernest Urein were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli L. Price, Apostle Whitney performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Urein will be at home to their friends at No. 1 Woodbine Place, after Aug. 10.

Many events are being planned in honor of Miss Louise Walden, who is to be married Aug. 1, to Mr. George James McLaughlin of Rochester, New York. Misses Alverda and Jessie Martin entertain in her honor on Monday, and Mrs. George W. Hancock gives a dinner party for her tonight. Senator and Mrs. C. D. Clark of Wyoming have announced the engagement of their daughter Laura to Charles Dixley Blyth of this city, the marriage to take place at Cheyenne, Wyoming, on Aug. 6. Miss Clark is well known in this city, having visited here many times. Mr. Blyth is a brother of Mrs. J. T. Keith.

Mrs. Isabella Pitts has been visiting with her niece, Mrs. A. E. Walker, at the latter's country home in Mill Creek.

Harold Lamb entertains a party of friends at dinner this evening at the Country club.

Miss Ethel Rogers entertain delightfully Thursday evening for Mr. Clyde Squires, who is home from New York for the summer. The guests numbering about 50, were asked to guess the artists of different well known sketches. Mrs. Irene S. Williams and Mr. George Barrett were the prize winners. In the hall the Misses Gladys Rogers and Corneal James served punch during the evening.

Miss Mayne Carter and Miss May Conroy have gone to Salt Lake City to spend a week visiting with friends.

William M. Hughes, of the Journal staff is visiting in Salt Lake with his parents and friends for a few days.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cross, 355 Twenty-ninth street Wednesday evening, their only daughter, Miss Mabel A. Cross, was married to Mr. Ira N. Williams, Bishop D. H. Ensign of the First ward officiating in the ceremony. A delightful reception was tendered the happy young couple which was largely attended by relatives and friends, and they received many beautiful presents. A bounteous wedding supper was served. The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The contracting parties are among Ogden's most popular young people. The bride is a charming young lady and the groom is a trusted employee of being white and green, which was carried out very artistically. From 10:30 a. m. until noon square was played, the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Allison, Mrs. H. C. Bigelow and Mrs. Rowe. After cards an elaborate breakfast was served. The place for each guest at the table was designated by a small bouquet of sweet peas tied with green ribbon, with the name of each guest. Mrs. and Miss Fitzgerald were assisted in entertaining by Miss Joyce, Miss Spencer, Miss Maloney and Miss Donaghy.
