

FRAGMENTS.

A GOOD girl wanted, to do general housework. See advt.

THERE is a gold brick in town which was mined in Southern Utah.

THE Fourth Quorum of Elders will meet in the Sixth Ward school-room at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

RICHARD HAWKINS was admitted to citizenship in the Third District Court to-day.

GEORGE S. BAILEY, for disturbing the peace and quiet of Mrs. Walker, was fined $10 in the police court to-day.

THE case of the People vs. Alexander Herron, indicted for extortion; which was set for trial on Sunday, October 3d, will come up the next day, Oct. 4th.

THE races which begin at Agricultural Park are creating considerable interest. A gentleman to-day informed us that a Democratic horse would be entered, and on asking his name, was informed "Policy."

AN Indian woman with very white hair was picturesquely seated at the corner opposite the News office this morning, and was a centre of attraction for some time. She had a bag of "shutcup," a scrubby dog, and was as happy as the day is long. She declined being interviewed on the Bulgarian question or anything else but proverbs.

LOCAL NEWS.

Reports Wanted.—The State secretaries of the Primary Associations in the several States of Zion will please furnish their semi-annual reports as soon as possible to the office of the Women's Exponent, in this city, in order that a complete report may be prepared in time for the October Conference.

Death of an Upright Man.—Elder Andrew N. Macfarlane, Second Counselor to Bishop Allen, of the 21st Ward, died at his residence at 13 minutes to 12 o'clock to-day, from kidney and bowel complaints. The deceased was well known and greatly respected. He was for many years connected with the clothing department of Z. C. M. I.

The funeral will be conducted at the 21st Ward meeting house, at 3 o'clock on Friday, September 24th. Friends of the family are invited.

A Present to the Queen.—To-day we were shown a copy of Tullidge's History of Salt Lake City, bound in Turkish morocco, full gilt, bearing on the cover the following inscription: "History of Salt Lake City, To Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Presented by the Mayor and City Council of Salt Lake City."

A precisely similar copy will be sent to President Cleveland, each member of his Cabinet and the British Museum.

Interested Visitors.—This afternoon we received a call from Judge R. J. Morgan, of Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. W. H. Selden, of the proprietors of the Metropolitan Hotel, Washington, D. C. The former gentleman is deeply interested in all matters pertaining to the leading questions now agitating this community, and regarding the religious peculiarities of the "Mormon" people. He is making good use of his time in the penitentiary, and desired an immediate trial, as all the witnesses were present in the city.

The Court fixed Monday, October 4th, as the day on which that trial will be held.

Hand Amputated.—Yesterday several boys, among them Harry H. Whitaker, son of S. H. Whitaker, who lives near the Co-op Furniture store, were playing with a machine called a "devil," used for the purpose of tearing up masses of hair with which mattresses are stuffed. The machine contains a cylinder covered with sharp, hooked teeth. By some means the boy named had his hand drawn into it while it was running, and the member was frightfully torn. Every bone except one, in the palm of the hand, was broken, and the flesh was cut and lacerated in a dreadful manner. Dr. J. S. Richards was called, and he at once declared amputation necessary and performed the operation at the wrist joint. At 1:30 p. m. to-day the boy was resting comfortably under the influence of a sedative, and he seems to be doing very well.

Court Proceedings.—In the Third District Court to-day the following business was transacted: Thomas Rasevur vs. Mary J. Rasevur; demurrer overruled.

E. D. Egan vs. J. F. Clabby; demurrer overruled.

H. P. Mason et al. vs. Louis O. Isett; demurrer overruled; twenty days to answer.

M. Dusseldorf et al. vs. Ontario S. M. Co.; demurrer to complaint overruled; twenty days to answer.

United States vs. H. S. Eldredge and F. Armstrong; suit for bonds, demurrer overruled; 10 days to answer.

The People vs. Mrs. L. Madison, N. P. Gray, H. W. West and M. McLaughlin. Each a separate case, on motion to dismiss. Motion overruled.

The United States vs. Richard Warburton; unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn; defendant sentenced to imprisonment for six months and $300 fine and costs.

The United States vs. James Dunn; unlawful cohabitation, three counts; plea of guilty; sentence will be passed Thursday next, at 2 p. m.

The United States vs. Andrew Hansen; same; judgment suspended till Monday next at 2 p. m.

The United States vs. Jonas Lundborg; same; sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for 18 months and a fine of $300 and costs.

The People vs. F. M. Treseder; attempt to murder, two counts; pleas of not guilty, trial set for Oct. 4th.

The People vs. Alex. Herron, extortion; trial set for Oct. 4th.

The Grand Jury came into court and reported nine indictments under the laws of the United States.

The charge against Barber, of homicide, was ignored.

In the case of the United States vs. Butler, for cutting timber of the public lands, the indictment was returned and set for trial on October 10th.

THE CRUSADE.

Opening of Another Chapter in Persecuting the "Mormons."

Four Defendants Admit Living with their Wives—Two Sentences Imposed.

The first case called for trial in the Third District Court to-day was that of the United States vs.

RICHARD WARBURTON, of Tooele. The indictment in this case contained but one count, and charged the defendant with unlawful cohabitation in violation of section 2 of the Edmunds law.

The privilege having been refused the defendants in these cases of testifying against themselves, Mr. Warburton came forward and stated to the Court that he wished to withdraw his plea of not guilty, formerly made. This was allowed, and a plea of guilty was entered. In response to a question of the Court, the defendant said he was prepared for the judgment.

Court—Have you anything further to say why sentence should not be pronounced against you?

Mr. Warburton—Nothing further, sir.

Court—I give you an opportunity of making a statement, that you may say whether it is your intention to obey the laws against polygamy and unlawful cohabitation in the future. What have you to say to that?

Mr. Warburton—Without any disrespect to your honor, I will say that the future will have to take care of itself.

Court—You have no answer to give, then?

Mr. Warburton—No, sir, none.

Court—Well, you will be sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of six months, and to pay a fine of $300 and the costs of prosecution, and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid.

The case following this was that of the United States vs.

JAMES DUNN, also of Tooele County, came next. There were three counts in the indictment for unlawful cohabitation. Mr. Dunn withdrew his former plea of not guilty, and entered one of guilty.

By request of F. S. Richards, of counsel for the defense, the sentence in this case was deferred until Thursday, the 23d inst, at 2 p. m.

The case following this was that of the United States vs.

ANDREW HANSEN, of Salt Lake County. The indictment in this case was also "segregated" into three counts, charging the defendant with living with more than one wife, contrary to the Edmunds law. A plea of not guilty had been made when the defendant was arraigned on a former occasion. To-day this was changed to one of guilty, and judgment will be pronounced at 2 p. m. on Monday, the 27th inst.

The next case, and the last one set for to-day was that of the United States vs.

JONAS LUNDBERG. The indictment against this defendant, who also resides in Tooele County, contains three counts, alleging unlawful cohabitation. The plea of not guilty was changed to guilty, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon was the hour fixed for passing sentence.

At that time F. S. Richards arose and stated to the Court that the defendant was a man of excellent character. He had a family of nine small children to provide for, and was possessed of but limited means, his labor being their only support. He further had conscientious scruples against making any promise as to his future conduct. Under these circumstances Mr. Richards considered that the defendant was entitled to leniency, and asked that the Court inflict less than the full penalty incurred by his segregating of the offense into three counts.

District Attorney Dickson replied in a speech which displayed the BITTERNESS with which his heart is filled toward the "Mormons." He declared that Mr. Richards, notwithstanding his exemplary life, was not entitled to any leniency whatever unless he would promise obedience to the law as construed by the Court. Unless the defendant did this the District Attorney wanted the full penalty inflicted to see whether the much-declared promise could not be extorted in that way.

The Court took the same position as that occupied by the prosecutor, and of course, as Mr. Lundberg positively declined to violate his conscience, he was sentenced on each count to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $100 and costs, making in all eighteen months in the penitentiary and $300 and costs.

Both of those sentenced—Brothers Lundberg and Warburton—were taken to prison this afternoon.

THE SLUGGING MATCH. LAW, ORDER AND DECENCY SET ASIDE—MCDONALD WINS A BRUTAL CONTEST.

Another of those events, which are a disgrace to the civilization of the age and a reproach to the officers of the law, took place in the Opera House on Saturday evening. Duane McDonald and Herbert Slade met in a stic encounter for $100 a side and the door receipts, which latter must have been considerable, as there were fully 1,000 persons present. The fighters were stripped to the waist, the rest of their persons being covered with tight, tight. Those who officiated otherwise than as participants were Prof. Reckhart as referee, Dr. Benedict and T. J. Kelly as timekeepers, and Charles Lang and S. A. Haller seconds for McDonald, and J. Hicks and Harry Kendall seconds for Slade. The fight commenced shortly after 9 o'clock, and for a while was comparatively unobjectionable, being in the main a display of agility and skill, the blows interchanged here and there being light and of no consequence. But this kind of thing was not what the audience expected and had been promised; and serious, not to say criminal, business, soon began. It became evident from the hitting and general tactics that mischief was meant, that it was to be a fight with all the term implies, that it was in short to be a violation of the laws of the Territory and of humanity.

Slade, the Macri, is a powerful fellow, six feet in height and weighing something over 200 pounds, being very heavy; McDonald is the same height, about 25 pounds lighter, and quite lithe and active. The advantage gained were about even till the ninth and last round, when genuine "slugging" began, and the Macri, in guarding a low blow, exposed the upper part of his person, and McDonald, taking advantage of it, sent in a terrific blow on Slade's neck, which staggered him, and before he could recover, blows were rained upon him so thick and fast that he fell on his hands and knees, after making one or two ineffectual attempts to rise, he succumbed completely, and stretched out at full length on his back, being carried off the stage as limp and apparently as lifeless as a bag of meal.

This is "knocking out;" it is also fighting for a prize, and being conducted in a spirit of rivalry, and which the law of the Territory strictly forbids. Yet this exhibition was advertised to be exactly what it was; there were a number of officers in the building, yet not a move was made toward either preventing or stopping it. If one class of crimes is to be winked at, the other class is to be winked at; immunity should not be extended to others.

THE PETIT JURY.

"MADE TO ORDER" BY THE OPEN VENUE PROCESS.

In the Third District Court this morning, U. S. Marshal Dyer made his return on the open venire issued for petit jurors to serve on the September term of the court. All but two of those summoned—R. C. Gunn and E. M. Bynon—were present in court and answered to their names. M. Kloppenstein, E. A. Whitaker and James McGregor were excused. J. P. Wilson, R. P. Martin, S. C. Underhill, C. B. Tabbot, Wade Moseley and J. W. Crane were not taxpayers, but as they possessed personal property in excess of $100 in value they were accepted. The trial jurors for the terms are as follows:

Albert Fischer, J. P. Wilson, R. P. Martin, S. C. Pancake, George Thompson, S. C. Underhill, George Mallett, Louis Hanssler, Wade Moseley, George Morrison, W. H. Roy, E. Cannon, Joseph Foster, M. Dusseldorf, George Shell, J. M. Harvey, Joseph Foreman, W. E. Crane, Thomas S. Berry, Edward Berry, Frank McLaughlin, L. L. Osborn.

As the defendant in each of the United States cases set for trial to-day entered a plea of guilty, the necessity for a jury was dispensed with, and the jurors were excused until to-morrow at 10 a. m.

DROWNS HIMSELF.

AN EX-SOLDIER COMMITS SUICIDE IN THE CANAL.

An ex-soldier named Med Kenyon left his room over Manning's trunk factory on Second South Street, last Tuesday morning and started, in company with a man named Ball, for Jordan River. He fell in the vicinity of what is called the second canal, west of the D. & R. G. shops, Kenyon remarking that he would stop there and take a wash. He made the remark to Ball: "Here you had better take this money; I've

NO FURTHER USE FOR IT," at the same time offering him some money, which, however, Ball refused to take. This is the last seen of Kenyon alive.

Yesterday, at about one o'clock, two boys in a very small boat, were trying to push themselves up the canal. They had started from First South Street, and when they had reached a point a little north of Second South Street, they saw the object in the water which they at first supposed to be a hog. On approaching and examining it, they discovered that it was the NAKED BODY OF A MAN, lying face downward in the water. They left their boat and ran to the house of Wm. Yates, near the D. & R. G. depot, he being the father of one of the boys. Officer Wm. Calder, just at this juncture, happened to be passing Mr. Yates' house, when he was hailed, and a statement of the discovery made by the boys was given to him. In company with several other officers he proceeded to the spot where the body was. It was entirely nude, and was covered with a coating of mud. Some of those present began to wash the mud from the body, but a process of corrosion had taken place to such an extent that the skin came off in the effort to wash it clean, and the attempt to remove the mud was abandoned.

About two and a half rods from where the body was found, on the bank of the canal, lay

THE DEAD MAN'S CLOTHES. His socks had been stuffed into his shoes, which lay close together, and all the other articles of his clothing were placed neatly together, giving evidence that deceased was sober when he undressed himself. When the body was found the hands and feet were stuck in the mud, thus anchoring it. It had moved but a short distance from where deceased must have stepped into the water.

Undoubtedly it is a case of DELIBERATE AND DETERMINED SUICIDE.

The water is so shallow that deceased must have laid down upon his face in it, and thus have suffocated himself.

When the attempt to wash the body was abandoned, a wagon was procured, into which the remains were placed; they were then conveyed to the office of City Sexton Taylor.

After parting with Kenyon as above stated, Mr. Ball saw deputy marshal Gleason, to whom he narrated the circumstance. Mr. Gleason scouted the idea that Kenyon would commit suicide, although he knew the latter had been for a long time

SOMEWHAT DEMENTED. Deceased had been in the employ of the D. & R. G. W., working with the bridge gang, and at Lake Park, but latterly he had worked at Pease's saloon cleaning up, etc. Officer Calder found in his clothing $1.10. Peacock gave him the dollar and it is known that besides this, on the morning of the day on which he died, he had had $30 had thirty cents. Deceased was aged about 33 or 34 years.

An inquest was held this afternoon before Justice Pepper, resulting in a verdict of suicide.

Bill Nye's Experience.

Bill Nye, writing from his winter resort in the mild climate of Wisconsin, says: "My little daughter recently burnt the palm of her hand with a remedy which I had never before used, and put my hands on it, she did not even cry. So I tried it again the other day on the frozen cheek of a little child two years old. It worked like magic. The remedy is JACOBI'S GINGER ROOTS."

The sale at the residence of Bishop Tuttle will be on Tuesday, Sept. 31, at 10 a. m. The house is completely furnished and will go to the highest bidder; house open for inspection on morning of sale.

Excitement in Texas. Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. R. E. Coley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head, every body said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding recovery, he ordered a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. At this time he had taken two boxes of Pills declared himself cured, and was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

We have also secured the agency for the celebrated Vaseline Standard Kerosene and Carriage Grease. This condensed and strictly Pure Petroleum Jelly possesses all the Lubricating, Softening, Preservative and healing properties of the other well known and famous grades, differing from them only in being purer as it is many degrees higher.

For Carriage and Light Wagon Axles, the high melting point guaranteed by the Studenbaker's Grease prevents waste from dripping by the action of heat, and will not travel like Castor or other light oils, thus preventing injury to the underside of the axle arm from dust or grit.

For all kinds of Agricultural Implements it is the most practical and satisfactory lubricant known.

For Leather and Enamelled goods, it is softening and preservative, resisting water, and will keep cold, or animal salts when applied upon a clean and dry surface.

For Sores, Burns, Scalds and Chapped Hands it is cooling and curative.

As a Hoof Ointment it has a widely established reputation.

For tick in sheep it is a perfect remedy for killing the grub without injuring the fleece.

Put up in 1 lb. tins only, each bearing our trade mark and signature of the inventor. Manufactured only by the Studenbaker's Grease Co., Y. for Studenbaker Bros. Manufacturing Co., wholesale agents, Salt Lake City, Utah.
