Dead Heat in the Two Mile Tandem Professional Race Time 3:49.

THE FINISH WAS SENSATIONAL

Track Record Held by Eddie Smith Was Broken by Emil Agraz -Covered Mile in 1:29 2 5.

The bicycle tendem record was broken at last night's races on the Sait Palace when the figure was lowered to 3:49 in the two miles competition record It was a dead heat between Billy Samuelson and Saxon Williams, and George Collett with John Achorn. The record was formerly held by Kusel and Goodwin

There were five entries, the teams keeping up a hot pace hardly three lengths apart and amid much excitement among the spectators, A spill was expected, and the expected happened. As Hopper and Downing were making a great dash for the third place, Palmer and Stevens, who had been riding high up on the track, made a dive down the curve. There was a collision, the quartet sliding for 50 feet along the saucer before striking the cealong the saucer before striking the ce-ment, and then they all flew off in the grass Chapman and Staver were close be-hind, and barely missed the colliders, hind, and barely missed the colliders, Hopper and Downing got back on the track again immediately, and managed to scratch in at the fourth place. Fortunate-ly there were no serious results from the spill.

Emil Agraz gave an exhibition of one mile motor paced racing, covering the mile motor paced of 1:34 held by Eddie Smith. Agraz was paced by Teddy Samuelson, The final heat of the half-mile handleap, professional, was a great performance, and was won by Stevens in 541-5 seconds. His final great spurt carried him away from the bunch, and he held Hoffman half a length "at the wire."

The five-mile open amateur race was an interesting one. Ten finished out of the 25 that started. Heagren secured the lead in the last three laps, and was never overtaken. He won in 11:012-5, and narrowly missed several mix-ups. In the mile race Agraz beat Castro by the width of a tire for second money, with Tate a close fourth. S. J. Ongley made a flying dive in one of the mix-ups, and was cut and bruised so that he will he out of the swim for a couple of weeks. The final heat in the one-mile handleap amateur was captured after a warm struggle by Elwood. Tate and Castro finished second and third. Time—1:591-5.

REAL REDSKINS ARRIVE. Sloux Indian Baseball Team to Play Here This Afternoon.

We have some genuine Indian baseball players in the city, and they are hero to play ball this afternoon and evening. Green's Sloux ball team arrived here last evening. The team is matched to play the Cleveland Commission company team at Walker's field this afternoon. The nines will also play tonight. The Indians carry with them a complete electric light plant, and it is said they are wonders when it comes to playing the game by lamplight. The afternoon game begins at 3 o'clock. Dick Richards will umpire the games.

FIREMEN VS POLICEMEN.

spects for a "Wonderful" Gam-Of Baseball on Saturday.

Good Prospects for a "Wonderful" Game
Of Baschall on Saturday.

It is understood that Frank ones, the little fellow from Butte, who umpired
a game here some time ago, declines to hold the indicator for the Firemen and Policemen in their great game on Satursay next. But 'tis well. Mayor Richard P.
Morris and Judge Chris Diehl have kindly consented to act as umpires. One whi render decisions on balls and strikes, and the other on base plays. Efforts will be made to secure the promise of both
that they will not take their "decisions under advisement," because the long suffering and dear public will be anxious to know, dontcherknow. It is really the best thing that could be done, this getting the mayor and city judge to hold the Indicators. The men will not dare to dispute the mayor's decision, and if they question those rendered by Judge Diehl, they will be in danger of hearing him say: "The sentence of the court is, that you pay a fine of 30 simeleons. In default of payment you will be committed to the city juli at hard labor for and during a period
of 30 days."

Some of the firemen are in a state of complete mental exhaustion trying to learn some of the secret actions of the bluecoats. It was reported last night that the clubswingers had secured a pitcher who will make Cy Young's record
of no-hit-no-run game look like a cipher
with the rim removed. Who the nitcher is cannot be learned, It is said that the efficers will ring him in as one of the newly appointed "special officers," but how that the firemen are onto the scheme,
there is likely to be bloodshed if the beatwalkers attempt the trick. "Captin" Ed Davies was asked about the matter this morning, and he strenuously denied the charge. He declared that none but regularly appointed officers will be in the lineup. He hinted that the names of Bill Leary and Circus Dana. T. Smith were placed in the line-up merely to please them; that the persons named butted in,
and their names were placed on the list
merely to keep them quiet.

hand encounter before the game. When they line up at Walker's on Saturday they can fight it out.

Assistant Chief Wood of the firemen, "Capt." Davies of the policemen, each thinking he has it over the other, have established training tables for their men, and they are working them day and night. The line-up as announced yesterday will undergo several changes before the teams line up for battle. The official line-up will not be made public for a day or two.

NELSON AND HANLON. Two Little Scrappers Will Fight at San Francisco July 29.

Francisco July 29.

"Wally" Young, formerly a "News" reporter, now on the San Francisco Chronicle, has the following interesting gossip on the Battling Nelson-Eddie Handen match for July 23:

Next to the historiacl fight between Jimmy Britt and Young Corbett, the match between Eddle Handon and Battling Nelson on July 29 is the best-looking card of the year, if Morris Levy had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had gone over the country with a fine-tooth comb he could not have got day had be match that the apathetic foliowers of the same have been stirred already to a mild interest.

There is a reason for this smacking of his and the preliminary whetting of apetites. Both boys are well known here shall both are well liked. Eddie fought his way up from the amateur shows in the stury annex of the main events in the big pavillon. He was sent against a marvel before he was quite ready for such himself to be one of the gamest little fighters ever turned out in this premier of sell surels, and now he is coming home isco favorite.

care again to pass up the chance of seeing the whirlwind in action.

The Chicago lad will hie himself to Larkspur within the next 10 days and begin his training, under the direction of Ted Murphy. At present he is heavy, and will have to work hard to get down to the weight, 130 pounds at 8 o'clock. Eddie Hanlon will arrive some time during the week, and will put up his camp at the old stamping grounds, Croll's Gardens, in Alameda.

Releases of Elsie and McKivet-Wilmot

Gets New Man.

The Boise Capitol News says:

At a meeting of he directors of the Boise Baseball association held Saturday Manager McCloskey was instructed to release First Baseman Elsie and Center Fleider McKivett. Both were high priced men and the directors thought it advisable to dispense with their services. However, both played yesterday, but it is believed that the will of the directors will be obeyed.

Manager Wilmot, of the Butte team, has released Quick and Cook and they will not longer wear the uniform of the Miners. Mr. Wilmot has signed Pete Dowling, the famous slab deceiver, who will join the team when it reaches home. The Butte team is excruciatingly weak in the box and the addition of this war horse will materially strengthen it.
Speaking of Wilmot. There was a rumor current that when he left the team suddenly on Saturday that he had gone to secure new players. So he did. He is a fine, husky looking boy, (weight not given), which was added to the team on Sunday. He will spend some time in the nursery, however, before domining a Butte uniform, and by that time it is more than likely that genfal manager will be managing some other team. This makes two children in the home of Mr. Wilmot.

Columbia the "dark horse" whose mysterious doings up stream have led to a great deal of solicitude on the part of all her competitors, did well in the four-oar race in which she came in second, though she made but a feeble showing in the others, coming in last in the freshman race and fourth in the 'varsity.

No records were broken. Indeed, the time was slower than for three years. What might have been done in the 'varsity race had Cornell pushed Syracuse may be inferred from a statement of the Syracuse coxswain tonight, in which he is quoted as saying that his men were prepared for a surprise from Cornell in the last part of the race and were ready for it with reserve power, but they were not presed in any part of the race.

The weather on the whole was nearly perfect today for racing. Dashes of rain marred the enjoyment of the spectators somewhat and a rather brisk southerly breeze toward the close of the day made the water somewhat rough, to which the slow time may be attributed.

The presence in the Cornell 'varsity eight-oared boat of two men—the Foote cousins—who had previously rowed in the four-oared event, added greatly to the interest of the great race of the day and led to alowances for her crew in their defeat at the hands of Syracuse, though the two men saved themselves to a great extent for this event.

PARADE OF HORSES.

Animals Entered in Fourth of July Races, And Many Others.

And Many Others.

The biggest parade of harness horses ever given in Sait Lake, which will include every Sait Lake horse of any note, will be given on Saturday and will start from the city and county building at 3 p. m. The parade will be headed by a big brass band and all the starters in all the races to be run at Calder's park on July 4th will participate in the parade, which will probably have 160 horses in it.

All lovers of horse flesh should not miss this opportunity of seeing some of the finest race horses in the west, besides many fine driving horses.

"PENNY" GOSSIP.

At Missoula, Mont., yesterday after-noon, the Sait Lake team played a game with the Missoula aggregation, and won by a score of 9 to 2.

The fight between Eddie Hanion and Battling Nelson will unquestionably be one of the hercest battles ever witnessed in San Francisco. The little fellows are matched to crawl through the ropes on July 29 at 129 pounds. Both will have to work some to make the weight, but it is not feared that they will fall in this. It will likely be found that Hanion will prove the cleverer of the two, but Nelson will be the stronger and possesses the harder punch. It will be his game to wear Hanion down and beat him as he did Spider Weich and Martin Canole.

Managers Jones and Russell of Calder's Park race track have completed their program for the big race meet on July Fourth. They completed the program last evening and announced it. As stated in these columns several days ago there will be three harness events, and a running race. There will be a free-for-all trot and pace, with a purse of $400. There will be another for named pacers and trotters, which will be worth $200, and the third harnes event will be similar to the second, with a $200 purse. The running race will be for a purse of $100, and it will be for three-quarters of a mile. This is a good program, and is sure to bring out the fastest borses in the city, and it will also attract a big crowd of race fans.

but one more week, then we will have a week of the sport here. The boys are feeling pretty sore at losing the entire series to Spokane, and they say they have taken a brace and will more than make good for the heavy losses, it is queer that they should show championship form here, and then play like a lot of dubs on the road. To drop six straight games is enough to discourage them, but they are now determined to do better than they have ever done. Beginning July 6, Spokane will be here to play the home team six games.

Tommy Burns stated to the writer last evening that Eugene Thompson had not correctly stated his. Burns, challenge. He declares that he did not agree to give Thompson 40 per cent if Burns knocked him out. "If I knock him out I will take the entire purse," said Burns, "If I fall to knock him out he can have it, and he can have it if he puts me away. He says I am a dub and that I will crawfish. Well, he is the only one who has shown the yellow so far. I am ready to sign up with him at any time, but I don't think he will meet me. I have $50 here to deposit as a guarantee of good faith, and whenever he says the word we will post forfeits and sign up." Burns gives the impression that he means what he says. Some time ago he was dangerously ill from an attack of pneumonia, and was in a hospital for several days. He has fully recovered now, it is reported, and will be able to enjoy the much-needed vacation his paper will give him next month. Elsewhere on this page will be found an article written by "Wally" on the coming fight betdeen Eddie Hanlon and Battling Nelson.

The Boise team left this afternoon for Spokane where it will meet the Indians. The series between the two leading clubs in the league will be watched with a great deal of interest. It is said that Mgr. Relliy has decorated his aggregation with a few extra feathers and painted them with red paint.

HOW TO START A RACE. J. J. Haltman, the well known racing

starter, says: "When the bugle calls the horses to the starting point they parade past the judges' stand, and it is then when my duties really begin. I invariably insist that all jockeys bring their horses to the starting point in as much haste as possible and all come there together. Once there, I remind them of their position at the post, which is drawn by lot the night before the race, and unless the horse is a bad actor that position

the jockey must keep. "My instructions to each boy is to pay no attention to any other horse or jockey in the race, but to concentrate his mind on his own mount and try to get away in as good a position as he can and when all the horses are straight and in line I release the machine, calling to the boys, 'Come on, come on! and as a parting shot yell, 'Go on!' in a loud voice, and this ends my work for each race. "If a jockey at any time commits a breach of discipline I never allow him to get away without telling him I noticed it and what he must expect for a repetition of the same offense, and in this case if any fines or suspension, or both, are imposed they are never remitted by me.

When it comes to the use of starting machines any device that is noiseless and instantaneous with an upward and forward movement will do for the

"The position of the starter during the race should be back behind the starting machine, say on a parallel with the horses as they stand with their heads close to the barrier, and he should be elevated from four to six feet above them. This position affords plenty of freedom to the eyes, and there is no strain whatsoever on them, like it would be if the starting stands were in front of the machine and the starter constantly looking first to the inside and then to the outside with his head turned partly sidewise,

"This description of a starter, as I said before, I follow very closely each racing day. Whether I have been a success or not I leave it for the racegoing public to decide."

NOT THE SAME DAVID.

John Luther Long, the novelist and playwright, gave a dinner in Philadelphia in honor of David Belasco. Mr. Belasco, in the course of a toast, said: "Henry de Mille and I, in one of the dramas we colaborated on, used that strong line from the Psalms of David, 'Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the actor to whom "At a rehearsal the actor to whom

"At a rehearsal the actor to whom this biblical quotation had fallen, took De Mille aside.

'that's a funny line about the triumph
of the wicked, ain't it?'

"Why, I don't know; I rather like
it,' said De Mille,
""Are you stuck on it?" asked the 'Are you stuck on it?' asked the actor "'Yes, I confess I am. The fact is,' De Mille explained, 'it isn't my line. It's David's.

"The actor sneered.

IN JAPAN.

In a recent letter from Japan, Lafcadio Hearn speaks of Oyama, the chief of the Japanese general staff.

"A pretty story of Oyama," he says, "has been told of late. During his service as judge-advocate in Toklo, he attended a ball one night. He was standing near a doorway at this ball when a beautiful woman swept by, and so greatly did her charm impress Judge Oyama that he exclaimed involuntarily:

"What a lovely woman!"

"She overheard him. With a little smile she looked back over her white shoulder, and recognizing him, she said:

"What an excellent judge!"
