"Home Run" Butler Third Baseman and Good Hitter Caught.

HE IS SAID TO BE A HUMMER

Directors Hope to Complete Lineup
For Saturday's Game With The Lobster Crowd.

Directors of the local baseball team hope to have the lineup completed by Saturday for the game scheduled at that time with the Lobsters from Ogden. For some time they have been casting about for a fast third baseman and have finally "captured" one who will undoubtedly make good and then some. The man who has been signed for that position is known as "Home Run" Horace Butler, and the baseball dope says he is one of the fastest fielders in the business. In addition to his ability to eat up fast grounders and flies, he is one of the best batters in the game and by reason of this fact has been given the title of "Home Run Butler." He is young, strong, and is always "gingered up" for any emergency. He first broke into the national game on a high school team in Omaha, but had not been in the ball tossing business very long before some of the big leaguers saw him and took him in the state league. Among those who vouch for him is Harry Stoney, well known to local fans. The two are old friends and Stoney says Butler is a winner. Butler has played with the Western league and with the Connecticut State league.

BROWN'S IN TOWN.

Manager of Calder's Track Returns
From the East.

Hal Brown, manager of Calder's park race track, has returned from a two week visit to the east. Immediately upon his arrival Manager Brown started to work on the program for the opening races of the Calder track on Decoration day. There has been considerable talk about a match race between four or five of the fastest pacers in the city, but Mr. Brown says he will try to have the horses matched and signed for the race within a few days at the most.

LOOKING TOWARD SALT LAKE

Eyes of Pacific National League
Are Cast This Way.

President Lucas of the Pacific National league has received a letter from President C. H. Lane of the Butte club, inquiring regarding rumor that Butte and Helena would be dropped from the P. N. L. at the end of the season. The report concerning the dropping of the Montana towns from the circuit has been persistently circulated and President Lane wrote inquiring what, if anything, President Lucas knew of the matter. President Lucas said:

"I know nothing whatever about the matter. No proposal relative to the dropping of Butte and Helena has ever been considered by the league. Further I have heard nothing concerning the matter."

Despite this, in all probability the closing of the baseball season will make some changes in the league map. The warfare waged in California cannot go on forever, and next year one of the leagues will be seeking a compromise, with every thing pointing to the fact that the P. N. L. will be the one to dictate the terms. The P. N. L. is already in the battle in Seattle, Portland and San Francisco. President Lucas has received word from Harry Hart of the "Frisco" P. N. L. club stating that they were drawing better crowds than the Coast league. In Los Angeles the eyes of the baseball managers are being cast toward Salt Lake, which is an exceptionally fine ball town. Butte is too good a town to be dropped from any league. What changes the end of the season will bring forth time and the base-

ALFRED DREYFUS AS HE APPEARED AT HIS TRIAL.

ALFRED DREYFUS, who has submitted to Minister of War Andre of France a lengthy letter in which he earnestly asks for a reopening of his case, has been living quietly in Paris for some time past. The letter is an earnest plea that the court which condemned him at Rennes was improperly influenced, first, by the annotated document ascribed to Emperor William, and second, by the false testimony of one of the witnesses, Czernski. Dreyfus declares that Esterhazy, not he, was the real traitor to France.

TAKE IT IN MAY.

Purifies the Blood as Nothing Else Can Do—
Makes Strong Nerves, Cures Disease.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Weariness, insomnia, impure blood, and nerve troubles make life a burden for our women in springtime. Accumulations of waste and morbid matters in the blood during the winter season have poisoned the life stream, causing the liver to become sluggish, and the kidneys are suffering and unable to remove waste and dangerous products from the system. It is now time for the sick and ailing to strike at the root of trouble. The month of May should be a time of recuperation and cure. The needed and blessed work can be successfully accomplished by the use of Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can correct unhealthy nerve action, and feed the nerve centers with elements that will build them up into healthy tissues. Try Paine's Celery Compound this month if you are suffering, weak, languid, and despondent; happy and blessed results will follow.

Mrs. Rebecca K. Rowland, Lexington, Ky., writes as follows:

"Some time ago I had a very severe attack of Grip, and it left me with a cough. Then kidney and bow troubles set in, and I became so weak that I reeled when I walked. I was so nervous I could scarcely feed myself, and could only sleep a small part of the night. I had doctor after doctor, but did not get rid of my ailments. I chanced to hear of some wonderful cures wrought by Paine's Celery Compound, and decided to give it a trial. I did so and it cured me of my troubles. I thank God that Paine's Celery Compound was discovered; it made me strong, it made me walk, and it gave me sleep. People say to me: 'You look younger than you did ten years ago,' and I reply that Paine's Celery Compound did it with God's help. I shall praise Paine's Celery Compound while I live for all it has done for me."

SHOT DOWN IN COLD BLOOD

James B. Marcum of Jackson,
Ky., Assassinated.

ASSASSIN IN COURT HOUSE.

Victim Was Counsel for the Fusionists Who Are Contesting Office of Sheriff and Other Places.

Lexington, Ky., May 5.—Just after he had finished filing briefs opening the contested election case of Breathitt county, James B. Marcum was shot and killed by an unknown assassin. He fell in his tracks at the front entrance at the courthouse at Jackson, Ky., and never spoke, death being almost instantaneous. He fell within a few yards of where Town Marshal James Cockrell was shot down in July, the assassin being stationed in the courthouse in each instance.

Marcum was counsel for the Fusionists, who are contesting for the offices of sheriff and other places now held by Democrats. As a result of his efforts and his sympathy with the Cockrell faction in the Hargis-Cockrell feud he had for a year been generally regarded as a "marked man."

Various plots to assassinate him have been reported and sworn to in affidavits. For 72 days last year he was a prisoner in his own home, during not even to go out on his porch. The bitterness of the feud abated somewhat, however, and the election cases were allowed to sleep until Monday. Despite warnings, Marcum felt safe in resuming his interrupted practice some time ago, and felt secure in filing motions to reopen the cases which had imperiled his life months before. At 8 o'clock this morning he went to the courthouse at Jackson, and the papers were filed. He walked from the clerk's office to the front door of the court house, and facing the street, engaged in conversation with Benjamin Ewing, a friend. The corridor at his back was full of men. Marcum was half leaning on Ewing's shoulder. The men had been talking about three minutes, and it was 8:30 o'clock when a shot rang out in the rear of the corridor. Marcum staggered and as he sank to the floor another shot was fired. The first bullet entered the back to the right of the spinal column, and after passing through the breast and body, struck the door, facing him. The next shot passed through the top of his head and was aimed as he reeled. The shots appeared to come from a doorway or possibly from behind a door in the corridor, but as the passage was cleared amid great confusion, no one seemed able to state accurately where the assassin was located. A telegram from County Judge Harris, received at 8:30 o'clock, stated that the assassin is still unknown after a diligent search, and no arrests have yet been made, even on suspicion.

Marcum's body lay for ten minutes untouched, but as the passage was cleared to approach the place or to touch the body. It was finally picked up by friends, who took it to a drug store opposite, and from there it was taken home. Some of the men who saw the assassin run out of the rear door, and it seems certain that he made his escape that way during the confusion. It is generally believed that the assassin was recognized by several persons, but no one has thus far had the courage to name him.

Marcum was a trustee of the Kentucky State college and represented the Lexington & Eastern railroad and other large corporations, and also was United States commissioner from his district. He had practiced law in Breathitt county for 15 years. He had avoided "shoots," until he took charge of the election cases which involved the Hargis faction, had been a friend of members of both factions. For three months, beginning last July, he had not left his home, and after that for months was always accompanied by his wife and women friends or carried one of his children with him for protection.

HATS FOR GIRLS.

Special Correspondence.

New York, April 26.—No, indeed! The list of those who are to have big hats this season, and the smaller the child the bigger the hat. Some of them intended for children of four and five years are large enough for umbrellas. For the very small children hats are made most often this season of heavy linen, the brims being formed by the wide borders of lace along the folds, while the front is decorated with an immense bow of ribbon, generally white. The form is what used to be called mob shape. The crown is cut about twice as large as it is expected to be when finished, and this is then gathered to fit the head. There should be a round of featherbone cord which is flexible and yet strong enough to keep the band in shape. The folded border is to be cut about six inches wide and four times the circumference of the size desired on the outside edge. This is hemmed and the folds laid in generally in double box plaits. If lace is to be put on, it should be put on the brim portion before it is plaited. When
