NONSENSICAL SANITARY TALK.

A GOOD deal of what ought to pass for insanity is mixed up with the talk about the sanitary condition of this .indifference assumed by Mr. Matthews city, which is heard so much in certain has aroused a storm of indignation, quarters. A persistent effort is made which, perhaps, nothing but his resigto have it appear that the soil in all the central portions of the city is full want of energy has had its effects on of poison, which issues forth in the form of deadly and insidious vapors, the criminal have thus far been fruitconcealing in their invisible, mysterious and awful convolutions, the angels of death, bearing the dread messengers about on the breeze, and conveying them through open doorways, unprotected windows and down unsuspecting chimneys, to infect with deadly disease, children and adults alike. It is represented that the earth, in the business part of tewn, is saturated with filth to such a degree that danger to health would result were the surface of the ground broken and the subsoil disturbed and exposed.

A climax in this line of nonsense has been reached in an article in a morn-ing paper of this city, in which it is represented that, because of the aw-fully filthy condition of the earth in the sewer district, the house laterals ought to be laid in cold weather. Such stuff as this is given out, too, on the authority of "a physician of much ex-perience." An instinct antagonistic to truth, sense, reasen and science, is the only apparent motive for the dissemin-A climax in this line of nonsense has only apparent motive for the dissemin-ation of such absurd and ridiculous ideas.
